People, places and things

People moving about: Mrs. Guy Smith, (Thelma), of Los Angeles is vacationing in the East . . . D.C., Baltimore, Atlantic City and New York.

She's the Baltimore girl who is married to the collection investigator in the California city.

Both are former AFRO employees.

In new home: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shamwell (Phyllis), now call 3304 Liberty Heights Ave. home.

• • •

Three June graduates in the family: — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipley (Sylvia) of Druid Hill Ave., had graduations at Morgan for daughter, Lissa, at Lemmel Junior High for daughter, Denise, and at Frances Murphy Laboratory School for daughter, Nina.

• • •

Romance note: Mrs George Wise of 3707 Callaway Ave., is giving a reception on Saturday (6 to 8) in honor of the newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Jack B. Wicker.

Bride is the former Dorothy Lee Davis, whom many know as a good, good neighbor.

Thoughtful tribute: He makes his students learn. He makes them think. But most of all he makes them enjoy learning and thinking.

This is an excerpt of the tribute paid Harry Jones, Morgan State College English professor.

He was named distinguished teacher of the year by the Student Government Association and the Alumni Association. Orchids to him.

Mr. Jones, 13 years on the Morgan faculty.

• • •

Plenty of get - well wishes, please, to Mrs Florence J. Wright, 2367 McCulloh St.

She's the retired teacher who many call 'Miss Flossie.'

Scores know her as the kind neighbor who is quick to lend a helping hand to others when they're in distress.

She had eye surgery, is now at home, so keep her spirits up while the bandages are still on.

• • •

Doing better, thank you, is Mrs. Audrey S. Brooks, 2205 Ruskin Ave. She is the assistant registrar at Morgan who has been ailing.

• • •

Orchids to Dr. Herbert M. Frisby. He has a special knack for doing thoughtful things.

In the mail this week are his printed thank - you cards to those who sponsored or attended the recent testimonial in his honor.

This was the affair sponsored by the historical society which bears his name.
