Mrs. Lula Dawes, 76, leaves 47 close kin

Funeral services will be held Monday noon at Douglas Memorial Church for Mrs. Lula Dawes, 76, a longtime member.

Mrs. Dawes died on Tuesday at the City Hospitals. The Rev. Marion Bascom, minister of Douglas and a longtime friend of the deceased, will officiate at the funeral.

Mrs. Dawes is survived by 47 close relatives who live here and in N.Y., Ill., and N.C.

HER DAUGHTERS are: Mrs. Mildred D. Johnson, Chicago; Mrs. Jessie Fisher and Mrs. Hilda Burnett, both of Long Island, N.Y., and Mrs. Daisy Scribner and Mrs. Pauline Eaton, both of Baltimore.

Two brothers, the Rev. William Weaver, Tarboro, N.C., and Frank Weaver, and a sister, Miss Maggie Weaver, both of Pinetops, N.C., and 16 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren also survive.

The body will be on view at the church beginning at 10 a.m. Monday. Morton and Dyer Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Medicare questions can be answered by phone

Mrs. Margaret Schweinhaut, chairman, state commission on the aging, has announced additional steps to be taken to inform those eligible about Medicare.

All questions on eligibility, registration for Part A, and general information on the Medicare program should be directed to the District Office of the Social Security administration nearest any person's home.

These offices and their addresses and telephone numbers are:

Central District, 535 St. Paul Place, 685-7022; Towson office, 200 E. Joppa Rd., 825-5900; and the Glen Burnie office, 95 Aquahart Rd., 761-3350.

Questions about eligibility for and the amount that can be paid in any specific case of hospitalization under Medicare should be asked of Cross-Blue Shield by calling their special number for such inquiries, 828-1400.

Bishop Baber to speak at Trinity fete

On Sunday, July 10, the eighty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Trinity AME Church will be celebrated.

Bishop George W. Baber, presiding bishop of the second Episcopal district, will deliver the sermon.

The first site of Trinity Church was at Linden Ave. and Biddle Street in 1881. For five year after the church remained under the trusteeship of Bethel AM Echurch. In 1885, Trinity members assumed their own mortgage.

When the city of Baltimore bought the original property site to erect the State Office Building, Trinity moved to its present location at E. Hoffman St. and Collington Ave.

The late Rev. I. A. Miller was pastor at the time.

During the past 85 years, Trinity has had 24 pastors, each of whom added a unique contribution.

The first minister was the Rev. John H. Herbert. The present minister is the Rev. Perry M. Tilghman Sr.

Following services and an aniversary dinner, a pilgrimage will be made by the congregation to the original site of Trinity Church.

Rev. Nellie J. Chase buried on Thursday

Funeral services for the Rev. Mrs. Nellie J. Chase, 71, oldest member of St. James Baptist Church, were held Thursday at the Elliott Funeral Home.

The Rev. Mrs. Chase died July 2, at a Northeast Baltimore apartment house where she was employed.

The deceased was known as "Mother Chase" because she mothered everybody in the church and in fact all with whom she had contact.

The Rev. Roberta E. Baker, pastor of St. James Baptist, said Mrs. Chase had no children of her own, but she just loved children and looked after them as though they were her own.

"She will really be missed," the Rev. Mrs. Baker said.

* * *

BORN IN Gloucester, Va., Mrs Chase's parents were William and Martha Jones.

Her husband, William Chase, died ten years ago.

Survivors are: A sister, Mrs. Kate Kelly, a brother, William Jones; and a niece, Miss Miriam Jones, all of Gloucester.

Alex Boyd

Alexander Boyd, 86, 2305 N. Ellamont St., died July 3 after an extended illness.

Funeral service will be held in Brunswick, Va., at Good Hope Baptist Church on Saturday. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Mr. Boyd worked for the Housing Authority at Turner Station before his illness.

He was a member of Friendship Baptist Church here in Baltimore. Mrs. Boyd died March, 1965.

He is survived by 6 children, Corrine B. Fowler, Va., Mis Gladys Boyd, Mrs. Felene Waller, Sillie Andrew Boyd, all of Baltimore, Thomas S. Boyd, Norfolk, Va., Benjamin M. Boyd, N.Y., Nineteen grandchildren, and 10 great - grandchildren also survive.

Viet Cong kill West Point grad

A West Point graduate, who was reported killed while a prisoner of the Viet Cong, is among the Baltimoreans in the latest list of Viet Nam casualties released by the Defense Department.

The prisoner, Capt. Humbert R. Versace, 27, was the son of retired Army Col. and Mrs. Humbert J. Versace, of 506 Hazlett Ave.

He was captured in October, 1963, when a Special Forces camp in South Viet Nam was overrun.

The Viet Cong announced they had executed him for the killing of captured Cong guerillas, but the Defense Department had previously listed him as missing.

He was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in July, 1955.

Rev. Kearse says he pastors here and in N.Y.

The Rev. Logan Kearse who is party to a court action concerning a New York church in the same Rev. Dr. Kearse who pastors Baltimore's Cornerstone Baptist Church.

Advised of the news accounts concerning him and trustees of Community Baptist Church in Bayside, N.Y. the Rev. Dr. Kearse told the APRO:

"The New York Church (Community), is a small suburban church with about 350 members. I commute there every Wednesday. I have been in full control of the N.Y. church since February.

He added that "Baptist law decrees that a church has the right to hire and fire and that trustees can not dissolute the congregation. I'm still pastor there."

When he is not able to officiate in N.Y., associate clergymen at Cornerstone in Baltimore take over in N.Y. Dr. Kearse said they were his brother, the Rev. James Kearse and the Revs. Mervin Gray and Harold Kilgore.

Cornerstone has 5300 members. Dr. Kearse said he became the member of his New York church visited the Baltimore church last month, and we've visited there.

Dr. Kearse refused comment on reports that he planned to become minister of a third church in Pennsylvania.

Trustees hailed to court after firing L. I. pastor

JAMAICA, L.I., N.Y. — "I find the seven other board members have been evicted from the post of pastor without authority of statute or church law," the Rev. I. Logan Kearse told the Jamaica Supreme Court last week.

The deacons and trustees of the Community Baptist Church, 167-04 108th Ave., will have to show cause Monday why they fired him.

Represented by Assemblyman Percy Sutton, of Manhattan, the Rev. Mr. Kearse asked the court to restrain the board from interfering with services and direct the congregation to meet and adopt a church constitution and by-laws.

In his affidavit, the pastor said the church is not registered by a central governing body. He said he was elected Feb. 4 by a written congregational ballot and served until May 17.

* * *

AT THAT TIME he submitted his resignation because difficulties had arisen, but the congregation rejected it by a 60-26 vote.

On June 8 he and several members of the congregation went to the church but were barred by Alex Ganaway.

Alex Copeland

Alexander Copeland, 60, 307 Valley Rd., Glen Burnie, died unexpectedly at his home on Monday.

Mr. Copeland, a 31 - year Army veteran, more recently had been head custodian at Ft. Meade.

Funeral services were held Friday morning at Morton - Dyett Funeral Home. Burial was in Baltimore National Cemetery.

Mr. Copetand survived by a dzughter, Mrs. Harriete Franklin, Springfield, Mass., a granddaughter, Edith Franklin, and a brother, William Copeland.

His wife Mrs. Lillian E. Copeland, died this past September.

JULY 12

"Baltimore Summer Pops" concerts by the Municipal Concert Band will begin the 18-concert series at 8 p.m. at Patterson Park with featured soloists Marvin Clark and Jean Westwood.

Two are promoted with NCCY agency

The National Committee for Children and Youth has announced the promotion of two Baltimore men, William G. Sykes and Wendell Wright.

Mr. Sykes has been appointed national training coordinator for NCCY's Youth Services Project in Washington, Baltimore, Chicago, Rochester, Los Angeles, Houston and St. Louis.

He will have responsibility for the training of staff in these programs and will serve as a consultant to program administrators in these cities.

Since 1964, Mr. Sykes has been Director of Training for the Baltimore Youth Services Project. Prior to that time he held social work positions with several educational, welfare, court and mental health agencies in this city.

He is a graduate of Hampton Institute and the Howard University School of Social Work and was one of four recipients of the Distinguished Service Award of the Baltimore Junior Association of Commerce in 1965.

MR. WRIGHT, who succeeds Mr. Sykes as Baltimore Project Administrator, has served as the senior counselor on the project staff since early 1965.

He is a former juvenile probation officer and has been a social worker with the Baltimore departments of Education and Welfare.

He is a Morgan State College graduate and received his master degree in social work from Howard University in 1963. He and his wife Ernestine reside in the 4300 block of Norfolk Ave.

Both Mr. Sykes and Mr. Wright are members of the National Association of Social Workers and the Academy of Certified Social Workers.

Clean Block registration perks up for 32nd drive

MAJOR John H. Carter is shown presenting a check for $10 to AFRO Clean Block Director Jeanette B. Leath from the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Also shown are the members of the Dorie Miller Post No. 5367

The pace of registration for the 32nd annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign is stepping up the telephones is still busy and the mail heavy as the blocks come rolling in.

Many blocks however still fail to send in their worker's list. The block is not officially registered until this information has been received in the office.

Over 10,000 youngsters, their parents and adult advisors are expected to be signed up by the time registrations close, it was predicted.

The need for the drive has never been greater. Litter is a blot on many neighborhoods throughout the city and constitutes a threat to health as well as property.

Parents are urged to encourage their children to register in this year's drive to make the 1966 campaign an all out effort to make Baltimore the cleanest and most attractive city in the nation.

Funeral services were held at Perkins Square Baptist Church, with the pastor, the Rev. Ward D. Yerby, officiating. Burial was in Arbutus Memorial Park.

A daughter, Mrs. Sadie Brown; son, Eddie Vaughn, five grandchildren and three great - grandchildren survive.

Prayers For The Target City

We, a group* of Baltimore citizens, welcome the opportunity afforded by C.O.R.E.'s choosing Baltimore as its Target City. We share C.O.R.E.'s intent to improve the conditions of Baltimore's Negro citizens, and to gain them acceptance and opportunity in the community. We hold that this can be done without bitterness or violence.

We hold that lasting correction of racial and religious inequities may best be effected by a change in man's attitudes. The selfish become unselfish, the indifferent become concerned; the wrongheaded become right-headed through the grace of God.

Baltimore has a wonderful opportunity to set a pattern for racial reform by peaceful means.

To all people of good will, we issue a call for cooperation in our effort to promote calmness, good will, and mutual respect and understanding. To this end, we ask all who pray to join us every morning and evening in prayer. To provide solidarity in this movement, we publish this prayer for this week:

Father in Heaven:

We ask Thee to bless our City of Baltimore and free it from bitterness, hard feeling, strife, and violence. Help us, the citizens of Baltimore, to do all that is in our power to right the wrongs that exist in our City. Rouse us from lethargy and complacency. Give us sympathetic insight into the problems of others and the vision to help them solve these problems. Bring together all who stand for good will. Restrain all who are for discord and violence. May we have peace, we pray Thee, in our city, justice, equality, and good will for all our citizens.

Amen

Mrs. Ruth Logan, wife of H. U. historian, dies

WASHINGTON

Three clergymen officiated Tuesday at funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Robinson Logan, 66, wife of Dr. Rayford W. Logan former chairman of the Howard University history department.

Victim of a stroke, Mrs. Logan died Thursday. June 3 at Freedman's Hospital.

Her services were held at McGuire Funeral Home, burial following at Lincoln Memorial Cemetery. Participating ministers were Dean Evans E. Crawford; Dr. William Stuart Nelson, both of the Howard University faculty; and the Rev. Mr. R.J. Winbush of Richmond, pastor of the Baptist Church where the Logans were married 37 years ago.

Dr. Logan had been history department chairman at Howard from 1942 to 1964. His wife had assisted in research and writing books on Negro and diplomatic history.

Among the works are "The Negro in American Life and Thought: The Nadir 1877-1901," and "The Diplomatic Relations of the U.S. with Haiti, 1776-1891."

Dr. Logan retired in 1964 to devote his time to writing the centennial history of Howard University.
