FOR THE past two years it seemed that only death had been the motivation for the Murphy Family to re-unite. Therefore, several of them decided that it would be worthwhile to "get together" and socialize as they had done so many times in the good old days.

As a result on Sunday historic Druid Hill Park was the setting for the clan to meet. Three generations were represented and ages ranged from 8 weeks to 80 years. Everyone engaged in activities such as baseball, basketball, badminton, volley ball and dodge ball.

The more sophisticated ones chose to play cards such as pinochle, bridge and pokeno. After the little ones had visited the reptile house and strolled through the zoo, and even catching mementoes such as tadpoles, crayfish and snails, they finally settled down to games such as bingo, scrabble and monopoly.

Of course, everyone participated in the modern dances such as the boogaloo, the duck, temptation walk and the mojo.

Plans are in the making to make this an annual affair.

Out of town members were Gertha Smith, Virginia, Ovella Smith, Eloise, Rita Cynthia Smith, Charlene Taylor, John Saundra, and Henry Branch, Philadelphia Baltimoreans included:

Susie and Delores Murphy, Betty and Charlene Frazier, Lloyd Ragland, Rosa Johnson, Dorothy Buster, Alberta Murphy, Amy Mulock and Lavon Mulock Naomi and Joanne Jackson, William Murray.

Eva, Willie, Myra, Yvonne Theresa Coleman, Ronald, Lauren, and Stephanie Coleman, Jay, Constance and Wade Turner, John, Marie, Everett, Gary and Gregory Murray, Wallace, Dorothy Michael, Janice Faulkner, James, Lorene, Andre, Craig and Beverly Murphy.

Gracie, Arthur, Margaret, Terry, Grant and Lynn Murphy, Claudia, Ellis, Delores, Pamela, Duane, Gary, Anthony, Renard, and Angela Murphy, Nora, Karen and Kevin Etheridge, Laura, Gerald Pratt, Fe[illegible] Maude and [illegible] Marcellus.

Lisa Moore, Penelope Holly Lamont, Mary and Michael Jones, Leonard, Christine, Leonard, Jr. and Leon Foy, Floyd, Roberta, Onida and Keister Stovall, Gaynelle and Orlando Gray Mary, Donna and Andrea Holeman.

Georgianna, Thelma, Raymond and Fairy Holeman, Leroy and Geneva Gaskins James, Hazel, Zelma, Marie, Nora and Aldora Branch, Lloyd and Sue Crowder, Spencer, Joseline and Fannie Crowder, Joshua Crowder.

Martha and Richard Highsmith, Walter Lawson, John Davis, Jake and Doris Fullard, Susie, Kirk, Rodney and Darnell and Angela Simms.

Guests of the family were:

Calvin and Patricia Hall, Effie and Justin Adams, James and Monroe Coleman, Fannie and Janice Patterson, Mrs. Pettiford, Deborah Jones, Sylvia Ringgold, Richard Jones, Janice and Elizabeth Grooms, William Vaughan, Lorenzo Drummon Gilbert Peterson, John Green, James Bond and Melvin Braxton.

Nieces and nephews also present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Whaley of Berlin with daughters Valerie and Wyleta and son Clyde, Jr., Mrs. Ann Gates Murphy of Baltimore with son, Christopher; Mrs. Clara Barber and David Richardson of Philadelphia; and Joseph and Jerry Kane, Chester Pa.

Others who helped surprise the honorees were: Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Fitchett of New York, Misses Porsia Wise and Teola Britingham, Snow Hill, Md.; Mrs. Barbara Miller and daughter, Ray, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Quillen, Elroy Brittingham, Mrs. Sarah Gaines and Mrs. Virginia Purnell, all of Berlin.

The Herbert M. Frisby Historical Society held its last meeting of the year at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Frisby.

After gathering on the spacious lawn for a delectable dinner the members held the serious part of their meeting in the "igloo."

Naturally the first business on the agenda was the report on the testimonial dinner honoring Dr. Frisby. Some of the members passed on to the group some comments they had heard from many of the guests, namely: "It was the first time in Baltimore that an affair of this nature had been sold out with persons seeking tickets up to the last minute." "There was a cross-section of people from all walks of life paying tribute to Dr. Frisby."

It was the consensus of opinion that the first project of the group had been successful, considering the limited time the group had to carry out its plans. It was also agreed that there were many ways of improving certain details.

The executive committee is to meet during the summer to map out a program for the coming year.

Perkins-Madison ceremony held

Miss Sarah Madison, daughter of Mrs. Rushmore Madison, was married to James Perkins of Washington, here recently.

The marriage took place in the Cathedral of Mary our Queen at 3:30 p.m., with The Rev. Fr. Roman officiating in the double-ring ritual.

* * *

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by Bishop Jose Lingres of South America, and attended by Miss Clanther Ingram as maid of honor.

Her bridesmalds were Misses Alma Vaughn Marva Johnson, Pattie Smith, Joyce Hill and Mrs. Margaret Jackson.

Flower girls were Betty Coleman and Sally Linnares.

* * *

THE BRIDE wore a gown of imported silk organza over taffeta with appliques of re-enbroidered Aleucon lace. She carried white carnations, and her veil was of silk tulle.

Miss Ingram's gown of silk crepe was in mint green, and the other attendants wore gowns of yellow.

* * *

MR. PERKINS had as best man, Jack Bennett.

Ushers were N. Davenport, Eddie madison, Jerome Richardson and Larry Ball. Jessee Miller, Rudolph Rhoads and Donald Knotts.

A reception was held at the Civic Center following the ceremony.

* * *

MRS. PERKINS is a graduate of Dunbar High School and the Baltimore City Hospital School of Practical Nursing.

Mr. Perkins, an accountant, who graduated from Cornell University, served as a lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

Eggs at their best

If you want to get the best eggs available, look for the U. S. grademark on the egg carton. "U. S. Grade AA" eggs are consistently high eggs—that look especially good fried or poached.

But you may be able to find an even higher U.S. Department of Agriculture grade of eggs at the egg counter — a grade that's relatively new and increasing in popularity.

This grade-known as either USDA Quality Control Grade AA or USDA Fresh Fancy—is the product of the most thorough grading and quality control program available for any shell egg pack in the nation today.

* * *

ADMINISTERED BY USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service in cooperation with State departments of agriculture, this program is known as the "Federal-State Quality Control Program."

The unique feature of this program is that eggs marketed with this exclusive shield are controlled for quality from the time they are laid until they are sold to the consumer.

* * *

HERE'S HOW the program works:

If a farmer or egg picker wishes to earn the "USDA Quality Control" grademark for his eggs, he must apply for the service and must agree to pay for it.

The farm is surveyed both before and after the program starts to insure that it meets and maintains the high standards required.

NAACP stops Nazi invasion

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A member of the American Nazi Party leaped on the stage Tuesday night at a mass meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Convention and interrupted the proceedings.

The tall man, blond-haired and about 30-years-old, was grabbed by NAACP officials and ejected from the First Methodist Church, where the meeting was being held.

* * *

HE WAS punched several times by the men who hustled him from the church, but then broke loose and escaped in a waiting car. As he ran to the car he shouted: "The NAACP is led by communists."

Then he said: "Lincoln Rockwell for President." George Lincon Rockwell is president of the American Nazi Party.

The man appeared to be the same one who garbed in a cleryman's suit heckled delegates outside their hotel convention headquarters, earlier in the day.

* * *

AT THAT time a stern Los Angeles policeman, Sgt. B. E. Stephens (perhaps remembering Watts, which is four miles away averted a riot between white citizens when the American Nazi Party representatives picketed the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

Six policemen and this sergeant kept others from hurting the American Nazis, the same group which in 1963 created confusion in the historic March on Washington.

The only Nazi were the persons arrested.

The crowd of whites were angered after the Nazis applied epithets to Catholics Jews, and colored people.

The sergeant with a few policemen ordered the Nazi half-ton truck off the street and forced them to move out of the area.

* * *

THE INCIDENTS occurred before Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP, addressed the meeting. In the address Wilkins referred to a Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) resolution passed last weekend in Baltimore, "declaring for defense of themselves by colored citizens if they are attacked."

Some delegates do not agree wholeheartedly with CORE or SNCC but many think there should be some change in NAACP's administrative officers.

* * *

MANY PREDICT that a local demonstration will be held on bmonday when Vice President Humphrey addresses the convention.

* * *

If you wash silverware in the dishwasher, make sure that knives, forks and spoons are secure in their baskets or rack. If carelessly loaded, they may slip out and be nicked by the rotating impeller arm.
