Miss Edith Dennis reception honoree

Elegant informality marked the reception, on Saturday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dennis in honor of their daughter, Miss Edith Louise Dennis, a current debutante.

The reception was in their home on Gwynns Falls Parkway, and highlighted by a color scheme of pink and green.

• • •

IN KEEPING with the color motif, Miss Dennis, gowned in green, held a bosegay of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Dennis wore pink.

A good exterior paint job requires a clean, sound surface. Use a scraper or power sander to remove loose or flaking paint. Clean rough spots and edges with a scraper or wire brush. Spot prime bart wood with an exterior primer.

JULY 27-30

Beauty contestants throughout Maryland will compete for the title of "Miss Maryland," at a Jaycee - sponsored pageant to be held in Hyattsville.

Don't press a stained fabric. Pressing may set it. Instead, place a Turkish towel under the stain to absorb the spotting materials, put the stained side of the fabric down on the towel, and use clean cheesecloth to apply water or drycleaning fluid. Work from the outside of the stain toward the center.

Miss Barbara Smith, John Sutton married

MR. AND MRS. JOHN S. SUTTON were married in St. Gregory the Great Catholic Church, Baltimore, recently.

St. Gregory the Great Catholic Church was the scene of the nuptial service for Miss Barbara C. Smith and John S. Sutton recently.

Father Joseph Connolly, priest of the church, performed the marriage rites uniting the pair in a double ring ceremony. Sacred music for the occasion was performed by Matthew Fraling and the church organist.

THE BRIDE, escorted by her father, George M. Smith, was radiant in a white formal gown of silk organza with a front panel of French lace. The dress, designed with handsewn appliques of French lace outlining the bodice, had a short cathedral train.

An elbow-length mantilla veil was worn by the bride. Mrs. Sutton carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white carnation centered by a removal white orchid.

MRS. GEORGE M. SMITH, mother of the bride, wore a silk linen formal sheath and jacket. Her matching petal hat and accessories completed the ensemble.

Mrs. Nathaniel Sutton, the bridegroom's mother, wore a powder blue formal gown beaded at the neckline and waist, a matching cone chapeaux and harmonizing accessories.

ATTENDANTS for the bride were Miss Edith Blackwell of this city, and Miss Rose Sutton, of Philadelphia; the bridegroom's sister. The matron of honor was Mrs. Frederick A. Peck, sister of the bride.

The bridesmaids' gowns were pale blue chiffon over taffeta with a midriff of satin. The dresses had boat necklines, elbow-length sleeves and bell-shaped skirts. The bridesmaids carried cascades of pink carnations, centered with red roses and ivy. The matron of honor's gown was also blue with a French lace bodice and a straight skirt of blue chiffon over linen. Mrs. Peck carried a cascade of pink carnations centered with red roses surrounding a white orchid.

Mr. Sutton was attended by Joseph Lynch of Unionville, Va., as best man. Ushers were Wendell Sutton, his brother; and Robert Ridgeway of Brooklyn, New York.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding reception for the couple was held at the home of the bride's parents on Wylkwick Road, Bare Hills, Mount Washington, Maryland. Guests were served indoors and then enjoyed the festive atmosphere on the lawn.

HOSTESSES for the reception were Miss Florine Poulson, Mrs. Horace Chappell, Mrs. Wendell Sutton, Mrs. Allen Bradby, Mrs. Carl Chase, and Mrs. James Richardson.

The newly-married pair flew to Bermuda for their honeymoon. For the trip, Mrs. Sutton chose a champagne silk-shantung costume dress with matching accessories and a swirled chiffon pill-box hat.

The former Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mercer Smith of Mount Washington, Md. She is employed by the Department of Employment Security.

Mr. Sutton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Sutton of Philadelphia, Pa. and the grandson of Mrs. Martha Smallwood Gulliver of this city. He is a supervisor in the Department of Employment Security.

PRIOR to her wedding on June 11, Mrs. Sutton was feted at a miscellaneous shower given by numerous co-workers of various divisions in the Department of Employment Security.

Entertaining in honor of the former Miss Smith, and Mr. Sutton after the wedding rehearsal was a family friend, Mrs. Eunice Brooks Johnson, who saw the romance bud and then blossom into marriage. A delectable supper was served at her Madison Avenue home. The centerpiece was a creation of white, pink and yellow carnations with multi-colored stre..mers.

Members of the wedding party and invited guests present were:

Mrs. Nathaniel Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. G. Mercer Smith, Miss Rose Sutton, Miss Edith Blackwell, Wendell Sutton, Joseph Synch and Robert Ridgeway. Also enjoying the festivities were Mrs. Minnie Mason and Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Peck Sr., and son, Frederick Jr.

Miss Elvear Allen, A. Johnson wed

Miss Elvear Bessie Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Allen, of 3306 Copley Road, and Antione Darius Johnson were married here, last Monday.

The ceremony was performed by Father William Simms at 10 a.m. nuptial mass in the Basilica of the Assumption, Cathedral and Mulberry Streets with 300 persons in attendance. Musical accompaniment was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bateman.

• • •

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a silk, A-line, floor length gown embossed with lace and pearls at the bodice, with a detachable chapel train.

Miss Carmen McGill, of New York City, maid of honor, wore a sea spray linen gown with matching headpiece.

Her attendants, inclusive of Miss Evelyn Allen, sister of the bride, Miss Doris Brodie and Mrs. Lavadia Gibson, of this city, wore similar gowns of ice lemon.

Miss Aveline Allen, niece of the bride and Lavell Allen, nephew of the bride, were flower and ring bearer, respectively.

• • •

ALYIN JONES of this city served as best man. Ushers included Eugene Johnson, of Philadelphia, brother of the bridegroom; Legis Hawkins and Arthur Hall both of this city.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Evelyn Allen wore a pink floor-length crepe gown of empire waist. Mrs. Johnson wore a yellow chiffon floor length gown.

A gala luncheon reception at the One West Restaurant followed the ceremony. 200 guests greeted the bridal party in the receiving line.

The couple will reside at their new home at 1259 Kitmore Road.
