From left: Mrs. Tillie Pair, Daniel Brewington Miss Carla May Brewington, Mrs. Daniel Brewington, Dr. Delores Hunt, Mrs. Lorraine Johnson, Mrs. Frances Branch, Mr. and Mrs. Brewington gave reception in honor of Miss Brewington, current debutante.

From left: Mrs. Delores Luck, Mrs. Myrtle Phillips, Mrs. Beatrice Butler, Mrs. Catherine Johnson, Mrs. Bettye Hunson, Mrs. Helen Weatherford, Mrs. Anis Gazaway, Annapolis chapter of Links initiate new members.

-Gadabouting

(Continued from Page 16)

affair given them by their husbands a few weeks ago, countered by sporting their spouses to a lively fling in Washington, D.C. last weekend, which closed the social-civic group's activities for the season.

After checking in at a motel, the men were treated to cocktails, dinner and a wonderful show at a supper club. A party at the motel ended a delightful evening.

After breakfast, pictures were taken of the group in front of the motel's colorful pond. Later, the group dispersed to continue their week end of merriment in various places.

The members and husbands who took part were: Alonzo and Helen Bennett; Jim and Agnes Williams, Paul and Patricia Holtsclaw, Douglas and Belle Campbelle, Earl and Dorothy Koger, John and Mary Patterson, Franklyn and Lucille Williams, Dallin and Gertrude Wicks, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Harris and Handy and Clara Coulbourn.

Regretfully, Emile and Lucille Gibson were missing due to Mrs. Gibson's convalescing from a recent illness.

THE WEDDING of Miss Ella Mae Campbell to Stewart Patterson took place in the Zion Baptist Church, Baltimore, Saturday.

MR. AND MRS. GORDON RAY were married in Baltimore, recently. Mrs. Ray is the former Miss Annie Haywood.

Hints

Hats and gloves are worn to finish off the dressed look; you need not remove gloves when shaking hands.

Gloves are either worn on both hands, or both gloves are carried.

Hats should be worn in a color which coordinates with dress or coat. No hats should be worn with sport clothes unless of the 'fun-in the sun' variety.

How to pick up a dropped object: walk up along the side of the object. Never face it and bend over.

Keep back straight, bend at the knees and pick the object up. Do not lean and reach for it.

THE CONTEMPORARIES, one of Baltimore's newer club groups is composed of (left to right, seated) Mesdames Geraldine Jenkins, business manager; standing: Mesdames Gladsey, Jackson, Gaines, Ellis, Jones, Lee, Ellis, Jones, Lee, Ellis, Jones, Lee