First Honor Flag awarded in drive

The big bright red, green and white Honor Flag was awarded this Friday morning to the block completing most of the work. The name of the captain and block will be announced in the Tuesday's AFRO.

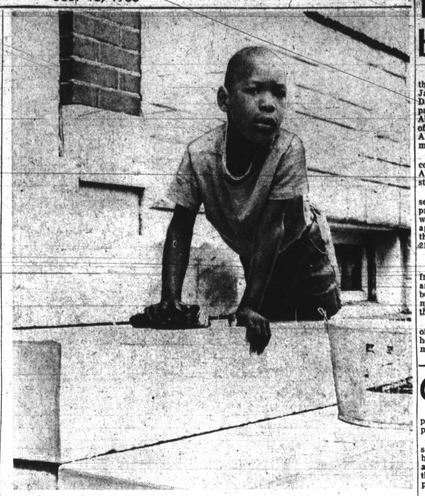
In winning the flag, the captain of this block was merely carring on a growing tradition of Clean Blockers who annually are cited for beauty and improvement.

Twelve Honor flags are given each year to blocks showing the most progress for the entire period of the Clean Block Campaign.

The first Honor Roll for the 32nd annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign was at the regular Friday morning pep rally at the Willard W. Allen Masonic Auditorium, 1307 Eutaw Pl.

The Honor Roll, was emphasized as being the first recognition every block must receive before it can qualify for top prizes in the campaign.

It appears this year that many Clean Blockers are a little slow getting their blocks together, maybe this is due to the high temperatures that we have been having here in Baltimore. Mrs. Jeanette Leath noted, "However, there are blocks ready for Honor Roll."



EDWARD CAMERON of the 2500 block W. Fayette St. was caught by AFRO Photographer and Clean Block Director Jeanette B. Leath, cleaning his front steps.

Rome Theatres to play host to 'Blockers'

A letter in this week from Mr. Leon B. Back, manager of Rome Theatres, in answer to a request for a show for Clean Blockers.

Said Mr. Black, "the Apollo Theatre would be happy to be host to the youngsters involved in the Clean Block Campaign."

Mrs. Margaurite Brown, manager of the Apollo Theatre will be there to receive the workers and see that they have an enjoyable morning at the movies.

Many thanks to Rome Theatres, Inc. for their interest in our program. It is because of people like Mr. Black and his staff that we are able to carry out a successful program year after year, commented Mrs. Jeanette Leath, director of the AFRO Clean Block campaign upon receipt of letter.

Clean Blockers always make areas look better

The success of the AFRO-AMERICAN Clean Block Campaign is due to the fact that the youth always say "I can."

Believe it or not, they usually come through with blocks looking better than they have ever been, according to older inhabitants. Its amazing what can be done if both youth and adults work together and say, "I can."

Whether it is a small street wedged behind tall houses, or a large street surrounded by plants and facing a dangerous inter-section, or a commercial intes-section, or a commercial zone with all its tremendous amount of handicaps, all are being made to look like little parks.

The following captains and workers have just completed their registration despite many of these handicaps, are doing their very best to improve their blocks.

Prize fund now over $900 but short of $3,000 goal

With a check for $25 from the Western Electric Company; Jack Hodge, $2; Green Spring Dairy, $5; M. Kovens Company, $25; Delegates Murray Abramson; $10; and the Pride of Baltimore Elks, $25; the AFRO Clean Block Prize Fund moved to over $900.

The total amount of money contributed thus far to the AFRO Clean Block Prize Fund stands at $910.75.

The goal this year has been set at $3,000 out of which prize winning Clean Blockers will be awarded a "token of appreciation," at the end of the summer drive on August 21.

MISS ROSELLA GREENE became the bride of Hugh Harvin in Baltimore, Sunday.

MR. AND MRS. BRUCE S. JONES

Miss Linda Scott weds Bruce Jones

Miss Linda Faye Scott was wed in P.V.G. Bruce Standley Jones recently at Faith Baptist Church by the Rev. Walter E. Paige.

The new Mrs. Jones is a recent graduate of Western High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew E. Scott, (Alice Norwood).

P.V.G. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jones and in the U. S. Marine Corps.

Miss Scott wore white satin trimmed in lace and sequins with a five-yard train trimmed with lace. The gown was designed by her brother, Carl Norwood and made by her aunt, Mrs. Marion Norwood and Miss Linda Holmes.

Her brother also created the flowers for the wedding with the Faith Baptist Church auditorium being turned into a flower garden . . . including archway, palms,candelabra.

• • •

THE BRIDES' bouquet was of white and yellow sister mums, yellow roses and Baker's fern with Emerald green velvet ribbons.

Mrs. Yvonne Johnson, matron of honor wore green taffeta sheath under yellow organza. Her bouquet small mums and yellow roses with Emerald green velvet ribbons.

Her maids were: Mrs. Sylvia Dotson, counsin of the brid, in yellow taffeta sheath under red organza. All the maids carry bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Carl (Shirley) Norwood Jr. wore yellow taffeta under turquoise organza; Miss Lucretia Spears, yellow taffeta sheath under blue organza; Miss Marlene Jones, sister of the bridegroom, yellow taffeta sheath under peach organza; Miss Jacqueline Jone, another sister of the bridegroom, yellow taffeta sheath under mint green organza.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Alice Norwood Scott wore a peach floor length gown with white orchid. Mother of the groom, Mrs. Archie Jones, wore pale yellow floor length gown with mint green orchid.

The flower girl was Miss Brenda Haynie, foster sister of the bride; ringbearer was Darrell Bridgeforth, cousin of the bride.

• • •

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by her father, Matthew Scott.

Best man was Curtis Jones, brother of the bridegroom.

Ushers were Douglass Bryant Jr.; Harrison Dobson, Curtis Scott and Carl Norwood Jr.

The reception table created by Carl Norwood, the Rev. William E. Hamilton and and Mrs. Loretta O. Valentine, was done in yellow and green net skirts, a Japanese display of fruit and silver flowing pucnh bowl.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Lillian Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. James Norwood Sr. of Green Bay, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Norwood Jr., of East Orange, N.J.;

Miss Gloria Norwood, East Orange, and Charles Holloway, Norfolk.

'Great' Godmother is surprised guest

With Lula Jones Garrett

Mrs. Annette Johnson is a most unusual godmother. So, because she carried her role in such an exceptional way, the mothers of her godchildren decided her birthday would be a fine time to do something exceptional for her.

(Instead of godchildren I should have said godsons . . . for they are all boys: Herbert Moseley Jr., Donald Patterson Jr. and Valdemar Washington).

Hence, the hieing of Jewel Moseley, Barbara Patterson and Vivian Washington to the Lus Room of the Emerson Hotel, with the scores of guests they had invited for a surprise for Annette, Tuesday ago.

There are no words to describe the amazed look on Annette's face when she walked into the strains of "Happy Birthday to You" by the 30 - odd guests.

After cocktails the group enjoyed delicious Hawaiian food to the swinging music of the Hawaiian Ensemble . . . and later the honoree opened her beautiful and lavish gifts . . . cut the huge birthday cake on which was scribed "Happy Birthday Godmother from your Godchildren."

Is the group were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Clifford White, Marvin Davis, Marshall Bright, Herbert Stith, Robert McIver, Joseph Mebane, James Mebane; Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Higgins;

Mesdames Robert M. Rea, Pearl C. Brackett, Mamie Woodford, Herbert Wilson, Lydia Mussenden, Mabel Perkins, Walter Shervington; George Moore, Luther Washington, Ernest Johnson and Dr. Herbert Moseley.

HAVING FUN, mixed with business, in Atlantic City, last week, was Roland Henson.

He was one of the 400 members of the Maryland Chapter Telephone Pioneers of America which was holding its 32nd annual meeting in the Shore City.

Anita (Mrs. H.) went along "for the ride." She's a nursing supervisor in this city.

The Pioneers are employees who have been with the companies for 25 years or more.

MRS. BEULAH DARKINS, affectionately known as "Twin" to many friends, was given a Bon Voyage party by Mrs. Mattie Gardner, Tuesday.

The luncheon was a surprise to Mrs. Darkins, she having been led to believe she was dining alone with Mattie.

When she arrived, however, she found Miss Pearl Montague of Washington, who had taught her when she was a pupil at School

MR. AND MRS. ANTIONE JOHNSON were married in the Basilica of the Assumption, Baltimore, recently. Mrs. Johnson is the former Miss Elvear Allen.
