THE BALTIMORE Chapter of Moles picked a pretty Saturday afternoon, a picturesque country setting, and the perfect hostess, Louise Lockerman, for their closing session which was sparked by a luscious summer buffet, and fun under the elms of the Lockerman's Howard County summer abode.

Reminiscing, there were lively reflections were gala Richmond conclave from delegates Mary Pitts and Anabel Rawlings. Looking ahead into autumn, Bea Wright was selected as delegate to the October executive board meeting which will convene at Portsmouth, Va.

Those thoughtful "Mules" (husbands of the Moles) added zest and the feminine touch to their Sunday business "round-up" when they topped their session with a fun-filled family picnic on the lawn of Dr. and Mrs. Edward McDaniels.

Dr. and Mrs. Dodanna Rajonna, of the Wilberforce, Ohio Chapter of Moles and Mules, and now on the staff of Morgan State College, joined the day's festivities.

The "Mules" proved to be gourmet specialists too, for they dispensed an endless array of delectables, coupled with a variety of tall, tasty coolers.

Mules and their Moles are:

—Messrs. and Mesdames Tom McPherson, Wesley Stubbs, David Sloan, David Wright, Irving Lockerman, Roland Williams, Marsden Rawlings, Paul Beckham, Bob Bailey, Alonzo Hairston, Glenford Dudley;
