Betty Ann Wood, Vern Crawley wed

MR. AND MRS. VERNON CRAWLEY were married in Baltimore, Saturday. The bride is the former Miss Betty Ann Wood.

Miss Betty Ann Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wood of Hamlet, N.C., and niece of the Rev. Marcus G. Wood of this city, was married to Vernon Obadiah Crawley, here, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Crawley is the son of Mrs. Ruth A. Crawley of Charles City, Va.

The wedding took place in the Providence Baptist Church with the Rev. Mr. Moore officiating. The double-ring ceremony was performed.

Mrs. Gloria Street was organist and soloists were Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Booker.

• • •

THE BRIDE, who was given in marriage by another uncle, Leslie B. Wood, was attended by her cousin, Miss Beverly Wood of Norfolk, Va.

She wore a gown of peau de soie and lace, reembroidered with seed pearls. The gown featured elbow-length sleeves and a detachable train. Her veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a nosegay of white carnations.

• • •

MISS WOOD, the maid of honor, wore pink chiffon. The bridesmaids, Misses Betty Whitfield and Sandra Reid of this city; and Sandra Mathias of Washington, wore gowns of aqua chiffon.

All carried nosegays of carnations in the colors of their dresses, backed with lace and marked with ribbons. Headpieces matched the gowns.

Barbara Braxton, a cousin, was flower girl. Her dress was of ice pink crepe, and she carried a basket of aqua and pink carnations.

Lanier Braxton was ring bearer.

• • •

RONALD CRAWLEY of Charles City, Va., was best man for his brother.

Ushers were Daniel Easter and William Brewington of Richmond, Va., and William Cooke of Charles City, Va.

• • •

A RECEPTION was held in the lower auditorium of the church. Guests were introduced to the line by Mrs. Alfred Carter, who wore a pink dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Hattie Wood wore a floor-length pink dress with matching accessories.

For their trip to Canada, Mrs. Crawley wore a two-piece pink silk suit with matching accessories.

• • •

A GRADUATE of Douglass High School and Coppin State College, the bride is a teacher at Harlem Park Elementary School, here. Her husband studied at Charles City School, Virginia State College, the University of Virginia, William and Mary College and American University. He is on the faculty of Morgan State College.

They will be at home at 2008 W. Cold Spring Lane after the 15th.
