

will and command that if any Order hath or shall without our knowledge hereafter be given, and any Quo warranto or other Writt or commencement of suite, hath or shall be made and sued thereupon or otherwise, for the infringing, avoyding or overthrowing of either of the aforesaid Letters Pattents, for or in respect of any clause or matter therein containd; the same forthwith to cease and to be made voyd, so as the said now Lord Baltimore and his heires, may be no way prejudiced thereby; And for so doing this or a true and Authentically Coppy hereof, testified under the hand of one of our Principall Secretaries of State, shalbe to you and every of you a sufficient Warrant in that behalfe. Given under our Signett at our Court at White hall the _____ day of May in the 13th year of our Raigne.

P. R. O.
Colonial Papers. Vol.
IX, No. 55.

To our right trusty and right welbeloved our Commissioners for forreigne Plantations, our keeper of our great Seale of England, and our Keeper of our Privy Seale, for the time being: To our right trusty and welbeloved our Principall Secretaries of State, our Cheife Justices, and all our Judges of any of our Courts of Judicature whatsoever for the time being: To our trusty and welbeloved our Attorney and Sollicitor Generall, and the rest of our learned Councell in the Law for the time being, and to all other our Officers and Ministers whom it may concerne.

Dni. 1637

Shipped for the Isle of Kent upon the S^t Thomas by Thomas Cornwallis Esq; three pieces of blew truck cloth, & 2 dozen of trucking Axes which the said Thomas Cornwallis doth acknowledge himself bound to the Lord Proprietor in Two hundred pound — not to trade Sell or put off the said Cloth or axes or any part or parcell of them to or with any Indian or Salvage whatsoever further then he shall have Licence therefore from the Lieutenant General of this Province.

Liber Z.
L. O. R.
No. 2.
p. 1

Tho: Cornwallis

N. B.—The above Entry is Crossed out in the Orriginal Record Book

locus + Sigilli Know all persons whom it concerneth, that I have & hereby do give free Liberty and Licence to Thomas Cornwallis Esqr; and one of the Council of this Province to trade with any the Indians of this Province for corne or Roanoke or peake, and the same to utter and Sell to any of the Inhabitants of this Province, and no further or otherwise, this Licence to endure untill I shall signifie the Contrary. In Wittness whereof I have hereunto Set my hand and Seal this 30th of December 1637.

Leonard Calvert