

Kedger, william Asiter, xpofer Carnoll, rob^t nicolls, william Liber P. R. hardige william howkins, Joseph Edlo, John halfhead, & Gerard fford, for that in a certaine verdict vpon the triall of John Elkin, on the third of ffebr last, touching a certaine endictm^t of felony & murther wherof he then was arraigned for killing the Indian king of Yowocomoco, they returned that they found that the said John Elkin killed the said Indian, in his owne defence by having the same evidence given in to them by w^{ch} another Jury on the 9th of ffebr last, found the said John Elkin to be guilty of manslaughter & therefore prayeth that all the said former Jury be greivously fined according to the Law in that behalfe warr^t Sher: or Rob: Kedg^r to have body of Geo: Pye at Co^r on monday next 1. clock afternoone.

Eod: Simon Richardson made oath that vpon the 9th of this month to his best remembrance John Robinson barb^r called this dep^t and in pⁿce of him acknowledged that he had received three hundred & odd pounds of tobacco of ffrancis Posie, in part of payment for the boate.
 Jurat

appeared George Pye, at one of the clock after dinner, & ordered to bring in his answee within an houre.

And the said George Pye for answee saith that the verdict given by him was no fault nor he finable for it.

And the Court adiudged that he should forfeit to the Lord Proprietary 2000^t tob

Sedent { Gov^r
 Secretary
 mr Langford

1642

ffbruary 13th appeared william Cox, & denied that he said p. 81 the words of slander obiected ags^t him by Anne Avery; & vpon the testimony of Edward Cottam, that he named daniel the Gov^{rs} irishman & described the wallnutt tree to be in the Captaines cow pen; & vpon his owne acknowledgem^t that he said she had beene better have lien wth an irishman, in the moon light twice then have stolen his pott, & that he was told she did so by a woman; the Court found him to be guilty of a slander, & adiudged that he should publiquely ask her forgivenes in Court & acknowledge that he hath wronged her therin & should pay to her in reparation of her fame 1000^t tob & should be imprisond in irons till he p^rforme this iudgem^t

Eod: John Lewger on behalfe of the Lord Proprietary informeth ags^t George Pye, for that in publique Court on the 6. febr last, the Court importunately pressing & charging the Jury that were vpon the triall of John Elkin, to proceed