CLEAN BLOCK AID — Ronald C. Reed, Exalted Ruler, Pride of Baltimore Lodge No. 713, Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, presents check of $25 to Clean Block director Jeanette B. Leath. Also seen are chairman of trustee board James Allen and financial secretary Stewart Coley. This is a boost to the prize fund for Clean Blockers. Token awards are given at the close of the campaign.

Message to all Clean Blockers

A reminder to the boys and girls that one of the rules of the contest is to be dignified in dress when attending weekly meetings since Clean Block is a civic meeting.

Mrs. Jeanette B. Leath, AFRO Clean Block director, has said that play clothes are out and shirt tails must be in, unless the shirt is made for outside. "I want the boys and girls to dress neatly, nothing fancy, just neat and clean," she said.

• • •

THE WEEKLY Clean Block meetings are held in the Willard Allen Auditorium of the Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 107 Eutaw Pl., Friday at 10 a.m. until the close of the campaign. Representatives from each block should attend this meeting.

Clean Blockers riding the No. 28 bus line should get off at Lanvale Street and walk two blocks east.

Youngsters boarding the No. 19, bus may get off right in front of the door at the corner of Eutaw Pl. and Lanvale St.

A reminder to the boys and girls attending these meetings. Please take care of facilities offered to Clean Blockers by the Prince Hall Masons.

Cooperation is answer to cleaner streets

Wherever people are willing, some good can be accomplished. Clean streets, yards and alleys are only kept that way when those living around care. If all join in and keep their sidewalks swept, this alone would improve the neighborhood? To get best results each must do his or her part.

If the street is swept and the sidewalk is not swept the dirt from the sidewalk blows in the street.

With neighborhood forces joined, the result can be clean surroundings. Won't you do your part to help keep Baltimore clean. See to it that your children put their candy, ice cream wrappers and etc. into a waste paper basket.

BAPTIST INSTITUTE HOST TRAINING UNION

CHICAGO — (NPI) — The Chicago Baptist Institute will host the Illinois Baptist Extra Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress, Aug. 5-8, with 1,000 delegates from across the state are expected to attend, according to the Rev. William L. Branford, dean.

Prize fund now at $1,034, Clean Blockers need more

The prize fund for the 32nd annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign climb to a total of $1,034.75 this week.

The flood of checks are badly needed. The money is to be distributed to captains and workers of winning blocks at the end of the campaign Aug. 21.

It is again emphasized that every penny contributed to the prize fund goes for that purpose.

A long-time friend of the Clean Blockers, Mrs. Dorothy Shipley Granger, sent her check for $5 to the Clean Block office. She's the public relation director for the Sanitation Department. Each year Clean Blockers are invited to take part on her radio show, Clean City.

Another group of well wishers and supporters to Clean Block for many years, The Women's Civic League, Inc., Mrs. Norman Pritchett, president, sent a check in for $25; Mrs. Jeanette Christmas sent her check of $10. She too has been a long time contributor to Clean Block.

Delegate Alexander Stark, $5; a check for $25 and a word of encouragement from Mrs. James Campbell, of Harry T. Campbell Sons Corporation.

A check from Dr. J. E. T. Camper, also an annual contributor, $10; Mr. M. Gerber of Public Realty, $10; Reliable Liquors, $10; Mrs. Adah K. Jenkins $1; Shiloh Christian Community Church $15; Mrs. Allie L. Barber, 19C McKee Str. Ct., Tuscaloosa, Ala., $1, and Mr. Theodore Banks $1.

The AFRO AMERICAN'S food FEATURES

BENJAMIN McCUTCHEON, JR., and Miss Phyllis Hoover exchanged marriage vows in Timothy Baptist Church, Baltimore Saturday.

ON APRIL 7, 1940, the first Booker T. Washington stamp was sold by Postmaster General James Farley to George Washington Carver at Tuskegee (Alabama) Institute Post Office.

To drive big screws into hard wood, rub threads in soap. Makes them about a third easier to turn.

Lentil Soup

While split pea or lentil soups may serve as the appetizer to a meal, they're readily adaptable to meal-in-one use. The richer the soup, the heartier it will be.

Here's a good basic recipe for split pea or lentil soup. You can readily vary it to give it a new look or a richer consistency.

Use 1 cup dry split peas or lentils, 6 cups boiling water, Ham bone, 1 small onion, chopped, and salt and pepper.

PURE ELEGANCE is the description to use of the wedding ensemble worn by Phyllis Romaine Hoover, who was married to Benjamin McCutheon Jr. in Timothy Baptist Church, Saturday.

Her wedding gown of crepe chiffon was a beautifully constructed floor length affair with short sleeves, an A-line skirt and double - breasted top. Four silver buttons on the top was its only decor.

Her shoulder - length veil was held by a flat bow. Elbow - length gloves, matching shoes, and a cascade of white carnations and baby's breath completed her ensemble.

And may I add that the bridegroom, in a dark Italian silk suit, was a suave note also.

The bride was attended by Miss Gloria Thomas, who wore a shocking pink dress that featured a sequin-trimmed top, with skirt of chiffon crepe, worn under a full - length lace coat. She carried pale pink carnations. Robert Coleman of Richmond, Va. was best man.

The Rev. James Ball officiated at the ceremony which took place in the Timothy Baptist Church. The program of music was by Mrs. Marie Davis, organist, and Nathaniel Adams, soloists.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Mariano, and is on the staff of the downtown branch of the First National Bank, where she serves as a security agent.

Mr. McCutcheon is director of industrial relations of United Appeals, here.
