Teachers give African event

The social studies section of the Model School Division Summer Institute will present a culminating activity on Africa.

As part of its summer institute program, two consultants on early African civilization — Miss Beryle Banfield and Mrs. Lenchen DeVane — have instructed a large group of teachers in the D.C. public schools on early African.

Friday (today), there will be a program and exhibit in the auditorium of the Raymond Elemenary School to which the public is invited.

Participants on the program include Mrs. Doris Moore, supervising director, Social Studies Section; Ada Robinson, Eugene L. Hanes, Jean Foster, James Hinton, Owen Mathieu, Ivaline Cummings; Vera Sills, Pauline Payne, Earnestine Davis, Bessie Williams, Rose Williamson, Audrey Spence, Carmen Jones and Barbara Murray.

Famed beautician coming to conduct demonstration

On July 25, Adolph's Beauty Products Company of Philadelphia, In cooperation with Johnson's Beauty and Barber Supply of Baltimore, will sponsor an educational clinic and demonstration at Johnson's Beauty and Barber Supply 825 N. Gay St. 12 noon until 6 p.m.

Miss Katherine Jones, international demonstrator for Adolph's Beauty Products Company and well known along the eastern seaboard, will be on hand to show visiting beauticians from Baltimore and area the proper methods and techniques of using—Adolph's Temp - Tress Proof Relaxer and other modern products.

In 1959 Miss Jones was commissioned as theofficial hairstylist for the Mardi Gras Queen and her attendants at Port Au Prince, Haiti. The missioned as the official hairstyles executed with Adolph's Products, even in Haiti's hot, humid climate, led to their selection as the official hairstyling creams for the Haitian Mardi Gras.

Miss Jones completed her basic training in beauty culture at LaSalle Beuty School of Pittsburgh. She completed training at the Robert Fiance School of Hair Design of New York City and has received her teacher's certificate for Pennsylvania.

All beauticians in Baltimore and area are invited. Refreshments will be served.

Zucchini Bake

Add new variety to vegetables — serve Zucchini Onion Bake.

Use four medium (four and one half cups) thinly sliced zucchini squash, one sliced large onion, two tablespoons butter; two tablespoons flour, one teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, one and two-third cups (large can) undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk, one-fourth cup (two-ounce jar) drained, chopped pimiento, one - half cup (two ounces) shredded process American cheese, one - half teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, and one-half cup soft bread crumbs.

Parboil zucchini and onion until just tender in salted water, about 2-3 minutes. Drain. Melt butter in small saucepan. Stir in flour and seasonings. Add Carnation gradually, stirring constantly, over medium heat until thickened. Add pimiento, cheese and Worchestershire sauce.

Stir until cheese is melted. Place layer of zucchini in buttered one and one - half quart casserole. Top with layer of onion. Spoon half of sauce over vegetables. Repeat layers. Top with crumbs. Bake in moderate oven (350 degree F.) about 24 minutes.

The best fruit buys are in peaches, watermelons, blueberries and lemons. At moderate prices you will find Thompson seedless grapes, California plums, nectarines and honeydew melons and cantaloupes.

A&P

SELF-SERVICE, PRE-PACKAGED MEATS CAN BE A PROBLEM!

You can see the to[illegible]m.
So you wonder.
The steak looks good, but is the bottom all bone and fat?
It's a problem... a problem we've given a lot of thought.
We think we have the answer.
We have a policy.
We put the best side down.
The side you don't see is guaranteed to be equal to or better than the side you can see.
Simple? as ABC.
Effective? No more gamble.
Fair and square? Sure because "We Care."
Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.
