Mrs. Roberta H. Johnson, widow of minister, dies

Mrs. Roberta H. Johnson, 68, 4220 Fairview Ave., widow of the Rev. James W. Johnson, formerly of 1417 Laurens St. died Wednesday at Sinai Hospital.

Her husband formerly pastored Cornerstone Baptist Church. He died 18 years ago.

She was the mother of Mrs. Elaine J. Harvey, secretary of 20 years to Dr. Robert L. Jackson, Miss Essie L. Johnson medical secretary at Lutheran Hospital and Mrs. Alice G. Jones, nursing aide at University Hospital.

She is also survived by three step - daughters, Mrs. Cora E. Greene, RN. of New York; Mrs. Catherine Douglass and Mrs. Mabel Easton both of Philadelphia;

AND, four step-sons, James A. Johnson, Hampton, Va.; Curtis W. Johnson, Philadelphia fireman; Redmond H. Carson, Philadelphia, policeman; and Lenwood Johnson of New York. There are also two granddaughters.

Mrs. Johnson was known as the 'mother' of Cornerstone Baptist Church, where funeral services are scheduled for Tuesday, August 9, at 1 p.m.

Morton and Dyett Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Burial will be in Arbutus Memorial Park.

BUSY HANDS — Students at Vacation Bible conducted at 1100 Calvert St., under direction of Mrs. Mary Mitchell, teacher, are busy making animals and objects from clothes pins.

Officers replaced at Powell's church

NEW YORK — Two top officials of the Abyssinian Baptist Church, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell's Harlem pastorate at 132 W. 138th St. were among those voted out of office, in a recent reshuffle of church officers, according to a Powell spokesman in Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Vashti Flowers, chairman of the board of trustees and Nathaniel Brown, Church treasurer, both veteran officials of the 12,000-strong church were removed from their posts. All ousted officers had opposed Powell's administration of the church at some time during their tenure of office.

• • •

THEY WERE replaced by Mrs. Gwendolyn Jones, named new board chairman. Clarence D. King, treasurer, and Plaxton Dixon, new church secretary.

The action stemmed from a five-man committee previously named by Powell to institute a new group of church officers. The committee was chosen before a crowd of 800 members who were told that any member contributing a $1 to the church during the last year was entitled to vote. Powell said that a corporate meeting could be called at any time at the request of 10 members of the church.

• • •

POWELL TOLD the gathering last week, that false rumors had been circulated about the purchase of a building at 177 West 137th St., emphasizing that neither corruption nor stealing were connected with the replacement of the top officers.

The church was not informed by officers, he said, of a $75,000 second mortgage on the property. The church still owes the Drydock Savings Bank more than $173,000 on a first mortgage of the property purchased a few years ago.

• • •

THE REV. DANIEL L. LICORISH, associate minister of the church at which Powell preaches almost every Sunday, stated that he was "not free to discuss the changes." But he added, "Lies are flying left and right around me."

Dr. McGowan, Dr. Ridout among Methodist ministers to London

A delegation of Maryland Methodist is en route to London, England, for the 11th World Methodist Conference to be held there, August 18-26.

Heading the list of prominent Methodists who are delegates will be Dr. Edward H. Porter superintendent of the Baltimore Northeast District of his church; Dr. and Mrs. William E. Firth of the Baltimore Southwest District; and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Roderick of the Hagerstown District. Dr. Porter will be accompanied by his daughter, Judith Ann.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman W. Clemens of the Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Church, Dr. and Mrs. Edwards McGowan of Baltimore's Union Memorial Methodist Church, and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. L. Carroll Yingling Jr., of St. Mark's Methodist Church are also expected in London.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Werner of the Waverly Methodist Church, and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Schell of the Woodberry Methodist Church are also delegates.

• • •

DR. AND MRS. E. CRANS-TON RIGGS of Baltimore are also delegates. He is executive secretary of the Baltimore Conference Board of Missions.

Representing the Peninsula Conference on Maryland's Eastern Shore will be Dr. and Mrs. Alton S. Miller, superintendent of the Salisbury District, and Dr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Ridout of the Chestertown District.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mackey of Asbury Church, Salisbury, are delegates, as are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hancock. Mr. Hancock is lay leader of the Peninsula Conference.

Presenting the youth of the Peninsula Conference will be Benjamin Asbury Bryan of Elkton.

Mrs. Olympia Jackson buried in Princeton

He was born in Baltimore, attended Polytechnic Institute and received his B.A. degree in Political Science from the University of Maryland.

Clergy will answer viewers' questions

A clergy panel will answer viewer questions on all facets of religion on: "To Promote Good Will" on Monday, August 8 at 7:30 p.m., in color, on WBAL-TV 11.

This program is in response to a long-standing public request for a "To Promote Good Will" program featuring exclusively viewer questions.

Comprising the panel will be Dr. Abraham Shusterman, rabbi of the Har Sinai Congregation; Dr. Frederick Heller of the Christian Temple; and, substituting for Father James B. O'Hara, Father Casimir Pugevicius of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese.

David Brigham, is host of the program arranged by J. Sydney King, manager.

Prayers For The Target City

We, a group* of Baltimore citizens, welcome the opportunity afforded by C.O.R.E.'s choosing Baltimore as its Target City. We share C.O.R.E.'s intent to improve the conditions of Baltimore's Negro citizens, and to gain them acceptance and opportunity in the community. We hold that this can be done without bitterness or violence.

We hold that lasting correction of racial and religious inequities may best be effected by a change in man's attitudes. The selfish become unselfish; the indifferent become concerned; the wrongheaded become right-headed through the grace of God.

Baltimore has a wonderful opportunity to set a pattern for racial reform by peaceful means.

To all people of good will, we issue a call for cooperation in our effort to promote calmness, good will, and mutual respect and understanding. To this end, we ask all who pray to join us every morning and evening in prayer. To provide solidarity in this movement, we publish this prayer for this week:

Father in Heaven:

Look with mercy upon those in our City of Baltimore who would stir up angry passions and strife. In thy great kindness, give them wisdom to see that lasting good can come only with good will, and that good will is not gained by threats or hard feelings that the innocent suffer when violence occurs. Give those who are reluctant to move toward racial justice the power to see the urgency of this problem.

May we have peace, we pray Thee, in our City and justice, equity, and good will for all our citizens.

Amen.

WHOOPEE — Young Clean Blockers make merry while watching film starring animals and animal lovers at Regent Theatre.

Regent hosts first Block theatre party

Jamboree Time

Well, Clean Blockers Its Jamboree Time. This week we attended two movie parties. The first one was at the Regent Theatre, where we watched Jerry North and Andy Devine in "Zebra In The Kitchen," in technicolor on exciting story about animals and animal lovers.

Carolyn Chatwick and Sonny Harrison were kept busy at the concession stand while Mrs. Cora B. Thomas kept the group moving.

The projectionist was Walter Rohoit, and Norman ("Mickey") Johnson, assistant manager, was there to receive the youngsters.

At the Apollo Theatre on Wednesday morning, clean Blockers from East Baltimore gathered for their first movie party. They were greeted by Mrs. Margaret Brown, manager The projectionist was Perry Adams. The ushers were Albert Paige and Robert Williams, was counter clerk.

• • •

CLEAN BLOCKERS were shown a film in color of a model home. The main attraction, "The Laughing 20's" starred Laurel and Hardy.

• • •

THE CONCESSION stand was kept busy. Blockers obviously enjoyed themselves to the laughter and the expression on their faces.

Again next week, we will attend movie parties at the Biddle and at the Harlem Theatres. It will be still another chance for Blockers who are properly registered to enjoy themselves.

To be properly registered, a captain must have sent in the application blank, and a complete list of all persons working in his block.

Tickets will be distributed 10 a.m. today at the regular weekly pep rally in the Willard Allen Auditorium of the Masonic Temple, 1307 Eutaw Pl..

The Biddle Theatre located at Biddle St. Central Ave.

The Harlem Theatre is at Gilmor St. near Edmondson Ave. the scene of Wednesday's Jamboree, beginning at 10 a.m.

Special gratitude is extended to owners and managers of the theatres for their generosity in making the Jamboree possible. This is their contribution to the younsters for doing an outstanding job.

Our sixth and last Movie Party will be held at the Bridge Theatre Monday, Aug. 15 at 9 O'clock.

Businessman praises work of Clean Blockers

"You should be commended," is the view of a Glyndon, Md., businessman whose salesman visited in the area of an AFRO Clean Block this week.

C. M. Montanye Jr., vice president of the manufacturing firm which bears his name, wrote on behalf of his salesman to praise the beauty of the 2800 block W. Baltimore St.

Mr. Montayne's letter says:

"The other day in the area of the 2800 block West Baltimore and adjacent side streets, I noticed the streets were spotless, every house had window boxes with flowers, and in many cases sitting groups of lawn furniture.

"Being entirely rowhouses it was exceptional looking.

"On several of the side streets I noticed banners "This is an AFRO Clean Block," which leadr me to believe it might be a project of AFRO-AMERICAN."

Mr. Montanye himself said:

"I have heard other favorable comments about this project, and I just wanted to say that your paper should be commended for constructive efforts of this kind. It is an example for others to follow and sudely adds to the betterment of the Baltimore community."

Yule card sale during August

A special sale of Christmas cards, among them best sellers from previous years, is being held during August by the Sales Desk of the Walters Art Gallery, Charles and Centre Sts.

They are cards of which there are insufficient quantities on hand to include in the 1966 catalogue of Christmas cards, which will be published late in September, due to the heavy demand for them in previous years.

Included among the cards is a handsome reproduction of an angel, which is an enlarged detail from a Netherlandish altarpiece of about 1400 A.D. in the Gallery's collection.

The card is in full color and measures almost 5 inches by 7 inches. Normally selling for 25 cents, it has been reduced to 10 for $1.25, including envelopes.

Block party enjoyed by all

Members of the 100 block Catherine St. gathered on Saturday in front of their homes for a bit of fun. The street was blocked off, tables were set out on the sidewalk near the curb, in front of many of the homes with a variety of goodies for the youngsters who have maintained a beautiful block.

The advisor, Mrs. Allean Morgan, arranged for the affair along with other adults. Captain of the block is Marlene Clay. Co-captain is Andre Lofton.

Workers are Brinda Alston, Stanley Johnson, Avon Camphor, Kenneth Nelson Darlene Frantz, Mary James, Kenneth Williams, Reginald Johnson, Kenneth Johnson, Kenneth Woods, Marilyn Mudy, Freddie Mae Nash, Lena Nelso, Leroy Lofton.

Diamond Jim Sears, of radio Station WSID was at the turn table spinning records. Records were given to youngsters for dancing skills.

• • •

BOTH THE retail and wholesale merchants in the neighborhood contributed to the block Party — Manger Meat Co., 124 Franklintown Rd., donated nine pounds of hot dogs, 3 pound of hambutrger. Becker Potato Chip gave five pounds of potato chips. A corner grocer 2500 Pratt Street donated 40 cans of soft drinks, corn twists and potato chips.
