Viet Nam veteran told 'no housing' in county

Colored soldiers returning from tours of duty in Viet Nam are complaining of housing discrimination to the Harford County NAACP after being refused housing in 10 different areas near Aberdeen, it was announced Thursday.

Mrs. Janice Grant, director of the NAACP Summer Project, said, "many servicemen returning from duty in Viet Nam and Europe as well as those being assigned to the many military installations surrounding Harford County find decent housing non - existent."

Mrs. Grant pointed to refusals for housing also being met by government employees, school teachers, and colored residents on all economic levels by county realtors.

* * *

PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS will take place at various housing developments over the week-end.

Among those marching for open occupancy will be clergymen of all faiths from Joppa, Aberdeen, Edgewood and Baltimore.

Representatives of the Women's League for Peace and Freedom, ESCRU, activists for Fair Housing and interested citizens.

A voter registration drive will continue through Aug. 13 in Salisbury, led by James Tarver, president of Wicomico County NAACP.

A rally will be held today (Friday) at 8 p.m. at the Blue Tango and a youth voter march will begin at 11 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 6.

Search for State Queen of Flowers

A beautiful girl, 18 to 25 years of age, to serve as Maryland's 1967 Queen of Flowers, is being sought by the Allied Florists Association of Greater Baltimore.

The queen will be crowned at the annual Festival of Flowers in Baltimore on Saturday night, October 22, at the Blue Crest North. It was announced by Joseph Reger, president of the Allied group. She will appear at public events, television and raido shows, Mr. Reger added. She will reign for a full year. Entrants must be single.

CANDIDATES ARE requested to mail photos to the Allied Florists, 215 E. Fayette Street, Jefferson Federal Building, Baltimore 21202. Each picture should be accompanied with name, address and telephone number, where born, name of parents, where attending school or working, and any details the candidated believes would be helpful to the committee. Deadline is September 17. The girls will be invited on the basis of the photos and notes, to finals to be staged later at the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce.

Pamela Pinkett party honoree

Pamela Pinkett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin D. Pinkett, celebrated her 13th birthday at a cook-out party at the home of her parents, 3639 Liberty Heights Ave., Saturday.

The girls wore pants and tops ranging from the popular wranglers, bell bottom trousers and many kinds of shorter pants, matched with poor boy shirts. The boys, of course, were just as fashionably dressed.

* * *

THE CHILDREN feasted on hotdogs, hamburgers, baked beans, potato salad, pretzels, pink popcorn, pickles, roasted marshmallows, and a most delicious cake made by one of Pamella's mother's closet friends, Mrs. Doris Wilson.

Robol G. Pinkett, Jr., a cousin of the guest of honor, Robnol G. Pinkett, Jr., a cousin of the guest of honor, made pictures of the group in "polaroid color." The group seemed to have enjoyed the picture taking activity as much as they enjoyed listening to and dancing to the music provided by Janice Dixon with her record collection.

* * *

GUESTS AT the party were:
