

W^{ch} being read and signd was sent to the vpp^r house by M^r Hill, who was alsoe Ordered to Acquaint them that noe sum of Tobacco Cann be, furth^r Allowed, vnless the bill for Assessing the Publique Charge be faire drawne Over w^{ch} there is now Noe time to doe.

He returnes and sayes he has delivered the sayd Message
This house sent for Then Came M^r Secry Sewall & acquaints this house, that his Lōps is ready in house to Conclude this sessions, And requires this house to Atten re :

They goe vp Wh house Adjourne Into the vpp^r house to Attend his Lops

Th Right Hono^{ble} the Lord Proprietary Demands of M^r Speaker and ouse what bills they have to w^{ch} they desire his Assent

The bills presented Wherevpon M^r Speaker delivers to his Lōp all the forementioned bills being Tenn in number, Reading the titles as he delivers them

Which being done his Lōps Answeres
His Lōpps Answer to severall Bills To the bill prohibiting the Imbezelling his Lōps Ordnance &c That there is a Law for that already, w^{ch} though severer Enough in the letter yet found Insufficient to deterr Ill minded people from Imbezelling them, soe that a Law proposeing lesser penaltyes as this doth, Cannot be sufficient to that end, Therefore his Lōp sayes he will Advise therevpon

To the bill provideing ag^t suddayne Accidents in the Government :

That he hath soe sufficiently provided for all things Conteyned in th^t bill That he thought there was need of itt,

To the bill for Continueing the payment of the Imposition of 2^s p^h to his Lōps Sonne &c: his Lōpp returnes his thankes to both his houses for their kind Tender thereof, And Desires it may not be ill taken if he Declines it at present :

To the bill for Reviveing the Temporary Lawes: His Lōp sayes that in that bill there is mentioned an Act for killing of to bee revived, by the same, w^{ch} Ought not to have been there because by an Act of Assembly for Ascertainyng the Lawes of this province the sayd Act is made perpetuall and soe has noe need of being revived: To w^{ch} M^r Speaker made Answer That though th^t Act was by a mistake put into the Act for Ascertainyng the Lawes, w^{ch} law for Ascertainyng the Lawes is a perpetuall Law, Yet he humbly Conceives that the Act for killing of wolves, being in its Owne body, Expressed to be Temporary is not made perpetuall by being barely Incerted into the Other, for though that Law be perpetuall w^{ch} Ascertaines the lawes therein mentioned to be
