Prayers For The Target City

We, a group* of Baltimore citizens, welcome the opportunity afforded by C.O.R.E.'s choosing Baltimore as its Target City. We share C.O.R.E.'s intent to improve the conditions of Baltimore's Negro citizens, and to gain them acceptance and opportunity in the community. We hold that this can be done without bitterness or violence.

We hold that lasting correction of racial and religious inequities may best be effected by a change in man's attitudes. The selfish become unselfish; the indifferent become concerned; the wrongheaded become right-headed through the grace of God.

Baltimore has a wonderful opportunity to set a pattern for racial reform by peaceful means.

To all people of good will, we issue a call for cooperation in our effort to promote calmness, good will, and mutual respect and understanding. To this end, we ask all who pray to join us every morning and evening in prayer. To provide solidarity in this movement, we publish this prayer for this week:

Father in Heaven:

We thank Thee for the news media of our City of Baltimore — for the Free Press, and for the marvels of Radio and Telecommunications. Give, we pray, to all those who control these powerful tools of information a sense of proportion. Help them to recognize their responsibility. May all newspapers and all networks in our City work to promote good will and understanding.

May we have peace, we pray Thee, in our city and justice, equity, and good will for all our citizens.

Amen.

* This group consists of laymen of Jewish, Catholic, and Protestant faiths.

By Authority of Dr. J. E. T. Camper, Treasurer

GOVERNOR AND EXPLORER mark the 100th anniversary of the birth of Matthew A. Henson, first man to discover the North Pole, with wreath - laying observance Aug. 8 at the State House in Annapolis. Governor J. Millard Tawes presented the state flag to Arctic explorer Dr. Herbert M. Frisby (right) as a memento of the historic occasion, the first time a Maryland hero has ever been so honored in the State House. The plaque in center to Matthew Henson was placed in the State House in 1961.

State House ceremony honors Matt Henson

'And, yet with the Pole actually in sight, I was too weary to take the last few steps,' were the words of the loving the discovery of the late Commodore Peary following the discovery of the North Pole.

The first man, to locate and set foot on the Pole was Matthew A. Henson, a colored Marylander, brown in color.

Shortly before his death, Matt Henson said of the Artic expedition, "Whatever I have done has not been for myself alone, but to help lift the colored man's standard to a higher sphere in the eyes of ehe civilized world.

* * *

ON AUGUST 8, the 100th Anniversay of Henson's birth, Dr. Herbert M. Frisby, the second colored man to reach the Pole, and Maryland's Governor J. Millard Tawes placed a memorial WREATH AT THE Henson pl in the state House at Annapolis.

"To my knowledge, this is the first time in the history of the State of Maryland, that one of its heroes memorialized in the State House, has been honored with a memorial wreath," Governor Tawes said.

The Maryland State Flag which had been draped over the wreath was then presented to Dr. Frisby, as a memto.

THE GOVERNOR commended Dr. Frisby at the presentation for his "persistence and trreless engry in hero has received the recognseeing that the Maryland hero has received the recognition due him."

Mrs. Eloise Richardson of Annapolis presided at the ceremony and thanked Governor Tawes for his support of legislation which provided the installation of the Henson Memorial Tablet in 1961.

Dr. Frisby, who will celebrate the tenth anniversary of his own journey to the Pole today (Friday) will complete a book on Matt Henson's life in the near future.

Maryland State Senator Joseph Tydings introduced a bill recently to have Matt Henson's remains moved frrrr
