

Roger Mathews
George Goldsmith
John Bevanes
Thomas Lowes
Daniell Peverill
Sam<sup>l</sup> Browne
Thomas Hodges
John A. Arding
John Fold

John Haies
Moses Groom
Joseph Peake
Charles Forsuch
Lodwick Martin
Thomas Preston
W<sup>m</sup> Digges
Edward Dorsey. with divers more.

P. R. O.
Colonial Papers.

[Indorsed]

Baltimore County in the Province of Maryland.
Address to His Majesty.

Address of the Inhabitants of Charles County.
To their most Excellent Majesties King William and Queen Mary.

28th Nov<sup>er</sup> 1689.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants,
Planters, Freeholders, and Freemen their Majesties Protestant Subjects in Charles County in the Province of Maryland.

Wee your Majesties most faithful and loyall Subjects reflecting upon that greate transcendant happiness, that hath crowned the wishes of all your Protestant Subjects in your Rightful Succession to the Imperial Crowne of these Realmes, have thought it our duty in particular to prostrate ourselves before your most gracious Majesties in an humble recognition of the same, acknowledging these tyes of an infinite gratitude by which we are ever bound as well by our owne natural dutye to your most sacred persons for that great deliverance of which Almighty God has blest you in making the glorious Instruments of the Protestant Religion, to the great comfort and rejoicing of us and our Posterity.

Wee make bould to assure your most Excellent Majesties, that notwithstanding the Endeavours and discouragements of the Popish party here to withdraw us from our Allegiance, wee will still resolutely persist to own and justifie your Majesties with Sovereign Right and Dominion to this Province of which wee are Members together with the Protestant Religion of which your Majesties have been such Eminent owners and Defenders, in the mean time attending your most gracious pleasure towards a Settlement under a Protestant Government in this your Majesties Province, whereby our Religion, Lives, Liberties and Properties may be secured, we daily pray the Divine Providence to protect your Majesties against all your