It is Major Marshall F. Atkins now. He was promoted last month while on duty with the Army in Germany.

As of Sept. 6, he goes to A and T College, in Greensboro to head the ROTC.

Coincidtnce: A and T College is the same place where Major Atkins's mother and dad met 30 years ago.

The Atkinses live at 1621 N. Payson St. here in Baltimore.

• • •

Other Atkins child is Mrs. Leon Wilson (Sylvia), Cherry Hill Junior High teacher now on maternity leave.

She gave birth to 6-pound girl (they've named her Melanie April), on June 8. New daddy is a Ft. Meade chemist. Hellos to them at 1214 Glenwood Ave.

Major Atkins' family, includes his wife, the former Freda Thompson of Newport News, Va. Their children are Marshall W., 9; Hope, 7. They arrived from Germnay last week, and are visiting here and in N.Y. before they go to their new home in Greensboro.

Word from Paris: Baltimore's Sara Dorsey Jones writes this interesting note from the French capital:

"The many years of reading books borrowed from Pitcher St. (Site of an Enoch Pratt Library branch in our high school days), have paid off as we travel through the old world.

"It is like we are in a fairytale world. From Amsterdam to Germnay to Austria, Lichenstein, Switzerland and now France, we have talked to many people who are extremely responsive and friendly.

"This is an experience that can never be counted as trivial. Please say hello to all our Douglass 1934 classmates, and to Union Baptist Church members . . ."

"My son's skin was rough, chapped... a neighbor told me how good pure 'Vaseline' Petroleum Jelly was. It didn't fail"
Mrs. Betty Washington, Chicago, Ill.
From a child's dry, chapped skin to the dry, ashy-gray condition that plagues grown-ups, 'Vaseline' Petroleum Jelly, applied as a continuous film, is the soothing answer. No other softener, no other skin cream, no skin lotion provides better moisture protection. Try it.
