THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Betty Louise McGuire to Samuel Howze, has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Mary Speaks McGuire of Hilton Road.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Howze of Terra Firma Road. A fall wedding is scheduled.

IT'S BEEN a long, hard night (a la Beadles), socially speaking. What with town folks having their minds more on straying than on staying, there were few on the local heath to do anything exciting with.

Come the end of the month, though, will come an end to the summer doldrums. The first of the major parties, more than likely, will be that at which the Charles Hickses christen their beautiful new pool with a splash, dinner and dancing, in Frederick, Md. That's on the 28th.

IN THE INTERIM, Baltimore hostesses do make bricks, straw or no straw!

The Harold (Flozella) Clarks, having as houseguest a cute French Miss, who Flo met while in Paris, last year, had a delightful, informal cocktail party for her, Wednesday evening.

The honoree was Jackie Coeffee, a native Parisian. A lot of new faces, sparkling conversation, hugh trays of hors de ovures, and Harold at the bar, made up the ingredients of a very fine party.

The guests included:

Dr. and Mrs. Irwin Cohen, Carolyn Blumenthal, Marsha Baker, Ann Thomas, Dr. James Davidson, Margery Coates, Mr. and Mrs. Art Carter of Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Skinner, Mrs. Shirley Strothers, Mrs. Frank Sykes, Alice Sykes, Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Shelton, Wade Horsey, Milan Fitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Mackay, Maria Clark, Veronica Clark, John Carey, and Eloide Rousseve.

FORMER Baltimorean A. Dukye Wood, now of Cincinnati, Ohio, was the raison d'etre for the elegant card party Harriet White Jones gave on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Wood had been in Washington for conferences and the capital was, of course, too close to not drop over to say hello to her score of friends, here.

Thereabouts were:

Bertha West, Annie Smith, Grace Hunt, Elizabeth Henderson, Elizabeth Patterson, Beth Hodge, Audrey Norris, Ethel Hucles;

Emmie Gilkes, Alma Gray, Ethel Hodges, Louise Lamb, Mattie Townley, Dollie Walker, Dorothy Atkins, Phoebe Goff;

Mae Campbell, Ruth Shipley, Betty Davis, Joy Cooke, Rubye Walker, Lillian Watty, Elise Hunt, Beth Walker.

Sue Mansfield, Vivian Pendleton, Marion Banfield, Flozella Clark, Mattie Connor, Catherine Adams, Louise Perrin, Mattie Gardner and Marion Robinson.

ON THE up-coming agenda is an opening session for the Gold Leaf Club (chiefly clergymen's wives) with Mrs. Ward Yerby as hostess.

The most recent meeting of the group was at a luncheon party when Mrs. Walter E. Fagle hosted at her Liberty Heights Avenue home.

TO TELL the truth, local women are too busy politicing to do much partying.

The Colored Women's Democratic Campaign Committee of Maryland has a series of Coffee Hours going that are as much fun as they are business.

But don't be fooled by the fun part. Their purpose is to make friends and win votes for their chairman, Mrs. Victorine Adams, who is a candidate for the fourth Legislative District. So they are getting voters together and talking issues over the Java.

Mrs. Cora Henderson opened her beautiful club room for the organization meeting, a week back, and Mrs. Geneva Griffin was appointed campaign chairman, and Mrs. Ruth Jackson, co-chairman. Mrs. Mary Maiden became acting campaign secretary; and Mrs. Ruth Turner, general secretary.

The first of the Coffee Hours was in the home of

Cottage Cheese

Salad time is here and one of the most popular foods for salads is tuna fish.

Following is a tempting version of a old favorite. It is a combination of tuna fish, cottage cheese and avocado, and is loaded with good nutrition as well as flavor.

Serve Cottage Cheese Tuna Salad in lettuce cups. Top with cool cucumber slices. Arrange tomato wedges and halves of hard-cooked eggs around each salad.

COTTAGE CHEESE Tuna Salad is made with one seven - ounce can chunk-style tuna fish, one ripe avocado, two cups cottage cheese sieved; one tablespoon grated onion, two teaspoons lemon juice, one teaspoon salt and an eighth teaspoon pepper.

Place tuna fish in sieve. Pour hot water over fish to remove oil. Drain well.

Peel avocado and remove pit. Press cottage cheese and avocado through a sieve. Add onion, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Blend thoroughly. Stir in tuna fish. Chill.

Mrs. Ethel Clay, with some hard-core campaigners doing the talking and giving the instructions. Serving coffee with Mrs. Clay was Mrs. Bernice Jackson.

There is a flock of the parties coming up. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morton are opening their elegant Grantly Road home; Mrs. Marie Nealy and Mrs. Alice Stone have an affair set for the latter's Freestman St. place; Mrs. Viola Murielle of Overview Road is planning a party, and so is Mrs. Ethel Moore of Ellamont St.

PEREGRINATORS: Ran into Edna and Abdella Campbell at dinner, Saturday night . . . she on the eve of taking flight for Los Angeles, Calif. and Alpha Kappa Alpha's international conference.

Already there or en route were the Medford (Vernieca) Reynoldses and Flossie Dedmond.

Back from a motor trip which took them through seven states and to Canada are Mr. and Mrs Gaston Finney of Annapolis, Md. The trip was designed, say the parents, to show their children, Carlesa, Gayla, and Gaston, 2nd, something of the United States. . .first. Mrs. Gaston is a county agent, working for the extension department of the University of Maryland. Mrs. Gaston is an Annapolis high school teacher.

Any number of the younger set have deserted town for camp, this month.

Take Camp Atwater, in East Brookfield, Mass., for example.

The contingent from Baltimore and nearby Washington this season includes:

Olga Barnes, Vicki Boyd, Carla Buchanan, Mary Cunningham, Roberta Dent, Lynne Foster, Kay Giles, Janice Hackett, Nerrolyn Hackett, Bonita Gatewood; Vida Hayes, Gail Hilson, Donna Jackson, Barbara Johnson, Helen Jackson, Rosie McCray, Denise Parker, Ingrid Payne, Jacqueline Radcliffe, Joyce Stewart, Beryl Wade, Joanne Ward, Yvette West, Kim Williams, Jacqueline Wright, Lynette Yager and Patrice Yager.

Atwater is the nation's oldest camp, and is currently ghosting 200 girls from 12 states on the shores of Lake Lashaway.

It is operated by the Urban League of Springfield, Mass., and is directed, this summer, by A. B. Mapp of Springfield and R. T. Dickerson of Philadelphia.

And there's a "Maryland Colony" in the cool confines of Martha's Vineyard, having a lovely summer. In the group are Claude and Ida Rogers of Annapolis, Ducky and June Ross, Milton and Doreva Stanley, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Doles, and Millie Hall and her children of this town, and Brad and Irma James of Glen Burnie.

Baked custard

Here's the recipe for an old family favorite, baked custard.

You will need three or four eggs (as desired), six tablespoons sugar, a fourth teaspoon salt, three cups hot milk, a teaspoon of vanilla and nutmeg.

Preheat oven to 325 degrees F.

Beat eggs slightly. Add sugar and salt. Stir in milk gradually. Add vanilla.

POUR INTO custard cups. Sprinkle with nutmeg. Set cups in pan of hot water. Bake 30 to 40 minutes or until custard is set.

Baked custard is done when the tip of a table knife inserted in the center comes out clean.

Two egg yolks may be used in place of each whole egg. Longer baking time will be required.

MR. AND MRS. JEROME H. WILLIAMSON were married in Baltimore, Sunday. Mrs. Williamson is the former Miss Sedonia Brown.

Dugger wedding is 'family' affair

Miss Barbara Francis Augustus and Milton A. Dugger Jr. exchanged marriage vows, Sunday, in a nuptial that was strictly a family affair.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Deborah Augustus.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, James Dugger. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Eugene Hicks of Staten Island, N.Y., a cousin of the bride.

MISS AUGUSTUS, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pruden Jr., wore a floor - length gown of white brocade, and a mantilla which were designed and created by her mother.

Her attendant was gowned in a street-length blue brocade dress, which was made by her and her aunt, Mrs. Lena Brown.

Both the Misses Augustus es carried bouquets of pompons, the bride's being white and the maid of honor's blue and white.

ONLY OTHER members of the wedding party were two ushers, Charles Dugger, brother of the bridegroom; and Nathaniel Mitchell.

The wedding took place in the Immaculate Conception Church, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

THE NEW Mrs. Dugger graduated from St. Francis Academy and attended Baltimore Junior College.

Mr. Dugger, a Morgan State College graduate, is on the faculty of the Clifton Park Junior High School.

They are at home on the Alameda.
