FROM EASTSIDE

Ira Johnson, good neighbor of week

By CHARLOTTE W. MASON

Our Good Neighbor of the week is Ira Johnson, pleasant Eastside grocer for many years at the corner of Chase and Bond Sts.

Mr. Johnson and his charming wife, Betty, reside in the 1300 block E. Chase St.

A native of Roxboro, N.C., he has lived in our town for the past 18 years.

The Johnsons are parents of six lovely children. They are: Ernest, Mary, Barbara Ann, Norma Jean, Kenneth and Faith.

Our Neighbor's hobbies include working on cars, watching television and baseball.

His favorite dish is smothered pork chops and tomatoes.

He likes to recite the Lord's Prayer and his favorite color is black.

NEIGHBORS ON the move and still working to improve our community are the officers and members of the Wilson Park Savings Club.

The group was organized 27 years ago by the dynamic, longtime resident, Mrs. Margaret Peay (her friends call her Maggie).

Mrs. Peay is still very active in the club, and is really a pacesetter. During the year members distribute gifts to Henryton, Crownsville and Rosewood Hospitals.

Fund raising projects, which include dinners, rummage sales and teas, help the members to promote these causes.

OFFICERS AND members are: Mrs. Beryl Williams, president; Mrs. Margaret Peay, vice president; Mrs. Mary Rosell, recording secretary; Mrs. Edna Mitchell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Dora Lee Hill, treasurer; Mrs. Clara Dyson, sick call; Mrs. Sandy Curtis, sinking fund.

Others are Mesdames Ruth Foster, Bessie Gaskins, Martha Bower, Mrs. Flowers and Miss Mary Young.

Neighbors, we will be hearing more about this very worthwhile community organization.

MY FRIENDS and neighbors at Israel Baptist Church are making great plans for their coming Diamond Jubilee Homecoming Celebration, which will be held this Sunday.

Activities will be held during the coming week and will feature various guest preachers and their choirs.

If you want to hear good singing, attend Israel on any Sunday. You will be inspired.

The Rev. Edmonde E. Meade is the very fine pastor who is well - known for his many civic deeds.

His church members have long supported the NAACP in their many fund - raising projects. (Ask its dynamic leader, Dr. Lillie M. Jackson).

Let's all go to Israel this Sunday for the Big Diamond Jubilee Homecoming. All day long. See ya there. More about this big event next week.

Mrs. Margaret Weaver, 200 Ainsworth St., Apt. 5-C; Miss Louise Butler, City Hospital, Dr.; Mrs. Laura Saeed, 2711 Woodbine Ave.; Mrs. Josephine Jackson, Carver Nursing Home, 607 Pennsylvania Ave.; James Saeed, Monitebello Hospital; Thomas Walker, Johns Hopkins Hospital; Mrs. Henrietta Lewis, Carver Nursing Home, 607 Pennsylvania Ave.; Mrs. Lena Simon, 1035 Orleans St., Apt. 11J;

Memory Verse: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help."

Fund drive needs boost

"I realize and I am grateful for the effect that a previous AFRO article had on the growth of the scholarship fund," Coppin Student Michael Peay said today.

He had written the AFRO several months ago concerning additional funds which he needed in order to accept a grant for European studies.

With donations from AFRO readers who took an interest in Mr. Peay's situation, the deadline amount needed for enrolling at the Institute of European Studies was met.

Dr. Charles W. Harris, Mr. Peay's faculty advisor at Coppin; and Mrs. Mary K. Stawhorn, administrative assistant to the president of the college have also been working to help raise the additional funds needed for personal living expenses.

MR. PEAY will leave the country aboard the M.S. Aurelia, an Italian liner, on Sept. 8 at 11 a.m. Sixty-four other persons representing colleges and universities across the nation will also be aboard heading for similar foreign study programs.

The semester of study which Mr. Peay will pursue will include French literature and comparative governments. All of his work will be transferred to Coppin and used toward his degree.

While his faculty sponsors and friends work to get the additional money for his living expenses, Mr. Peay is himself working for the summer at the publications center at Fort Holabird in Middle River.

He plans to repay those who have contributed to the foreign study project through Aulks and lectures which he will give upon his return.

Pastor forgives church bombers

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) — The pastor of a firebombed church said Monday night he would not press charges even if police apprehend the persons who hurled Molotov cocktails into the edifice.

"We have decided we won't hold any grudge in this matter," said the Rev. Clarence Farrow, whose congregation recently purchased the church in a predominantly white neighborhood.

"All we had before was a storefront mission type church and we bought the one on Federal Hill because the price was reasonable and we hoped more people would attend," he said.

"All we wanted was some peace, in which to serve God."

'To Love, To Cherish, From This Day Forward'

WEDDING FESTIVITIES Mr. and Mrs. Wisdom Franchot Coleman who were married on the campus of oHward University emerge from their limousine smiling as they prepare to enter the Gramercy Inn for their wedding reception and the traditional cutting of the wedding cake. The bride is the former Veronica Boyd Freeman and the bride groom's home in Greenwood, Mississippi.

Miss Freeman becomes bride of Wisdom F. Coleman Jr.

WASHINGTON

Howard University's Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel was the setting Saturday for the lovely wedding of daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freeman Jr., to Wisdom Franchot Coleman Jr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wisdom F. Coleman Sr., of Greenwood, Miss.

The double ring ceremony, which took place at four in the afternoon, was officiated by Dean Evans E. Crawford.

THE BRIDE, who wore a white peau de sole, empire style, full length dress with sleeves and wide mimosa lace, was given in marriage by her father. Her bridal head was a net toque with a fingertip veil attached, and she carried a bouquet of orchids, carnations and stephanotis.

The little flower girl, Tina Booker cousin of the bride, was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Cofford R. Booker of G St., Southwest. She wore a yellow polished cotton full length gown with white lace trimming. Adorning her head was a crown of yellow and white daisies and on her arm she carried a white basket filled with white rose petals.

THE MATRON of honor, Mrs. Sygrid Caudle of Seat Pleasant, Md., wore Conquil chiffon full length dress with empire lines and floating panels in the back of the dress. She carried a bouquet of jade gladioli.

THE BRIDESMAIDES; Paula Balckburn, Michele Des Verney, Marilyn Robinson, all cousins of the bride; Joyce Mahan and Cynthia Shepherd, wore jade chiffon gowns with empire lines and floating panels in the back of the dress and carried bouquets of jonquil gladioli.

Musical arrangements were furnished by Professor Thomas Kerr and George Harshaw sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The church, which was decorated with beautiful palms, held more than 200 friends and relatives.

Allen Counts, Carl Westbrook, Clyde Blassingale, Robert T. Freeman III, brother of the bride, Walter Murray and Kenneth Anderson were ushers.

Th best man was Wendell Johnson of 1825 New Hampshire Ave., Northwest.

IMMEDIATELY following the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom and a motorcade of cars left for the Gramercy Inn where the reception was held.

Heading the reception line, which was composed of the bride and bridegrooms' parents, bridesmaids, and matron of honor, was Robert J. Jones, grandfather of the bride.

In the center of the reception room was an elaborate spread of delicacies, with champagne fountains at each end of the table and the huge five tier white wedding cake held up by swans adorned the center of the table.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was the cutting of the wedding cake by the bride assisted by the bridegroom with more than 400 guests looking on.

The couple will fly to Greenwood, Miss. in a couple of weeks to be honored guests at a reception given by the parents of the bridegroom.

THE BRIDE, who lived in Brooklyn, N.Y. for 10 years and spent two years in Accra, Ghana is a graduate of Solebury School in New Hope, Penn., and a June graduate of Howard University.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Howard University and will enter his second year in Howard University's Dental School this fall.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Martin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Milton of Philadelphia, Mrs. Leonard Savoy, East Orange, N.J.; Mrs. Ruth Hicks, Rocky Mount, N.C.; Mrs. Yvonne Graves, John Thompson of Los Angeles; Dr. and Mrs. James Henderson, Tuskegee, Ala., Mrs. and Mrs. John Murphy III, and Sharon Murphy of Baltimore, Mrs. Georgia Lawson, Boyds, Md.; and Leonard Robinson, Newark, Del.

Col. and Mrs. Luther Evans, Woodbridge, Va., Mr and Mrs. Nieto and Carol Burgess of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, Mrs. Samuel Faide of New York; Dr. and Mrs. I. L. Manley and son, Helen Holt, Jr. and Mrs. James Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Shorter, Dr. Barbara Randall and Stephanie Smith all of Brooklyn.

INCLUDED AMONG the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Jones, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. Sylvia Blackburn and family, Gretchen oJnes, aunt of the bride.

Dr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Maury Wills was a Carnation baby and baby, look at him now!

The Dodgers' amazing captain slides his way into the Hall of Fame, breaking Ty Cobb's record with his 104th stolen base of the year!
Maury Wills, born on October 2, 1932, Washington D.C.
Carnation has been growing sports heroes (and other unusually healthy people) for more than sixty-years.
