If YOU Ask ME

BY BETTYE M. MOSS

People, places, things

A real dream trip is the one which members of Edgewood Methodist Church take on Monday.

They will go on a seven-day bus tour of the New England states and Canada.

The tour includes a visit to Alexandria Bay, the New York resort, a two - hour ride around Thousand Islands.

Plus, visits to Quebec and to the world Shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre, to the little village of North Pole, Santa's Workshop; and to Saranac Lake, and Lake Placid.

Then, down the Hudson River, through the Catskill Mountains, and back home. Along the way, they'll visit the Roosevelt Memorial in Hyde Park.

• • •

Mrs. Gladys Bentley is chairman of the tour. The Rev. Joshua Hutchins is minister of Edgewood.

• • •

Making the trip are:

Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Coates, Rufus Williams, Alfred Matthews, Melvin Brown, Lewis Bentley; Mesdames Hilda Adams, Mildred Taylor, Gladys Lomes, Jeanette Weems, Eunice Briscoe, Georgia Patterson, Marie Jackson;

Also, Mesdames Bernice Wait, Bessie Fleming, Amanda Dorsey, Dorothy Beard, Birdie Johnson, Sarah Green, Gladys Dixon, Maria Warner, Mary E. Weems, Charlotte Cooper, Isabella Braxton.

And, Misses Deborah Smith, Bertha Sembley, Martha Minor, Edna Mack, Dorothy Johnson.

• • •

The Norman Chapmans (Mattie), were able to get a flight (on a standy basis), and had a 'thrilling' trip to California.

They are in Pasadena visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Damon Mills (Marcia) and their three children.

Another grandchild, Steven Frazier, accompanied them.

Postcards: From Harold L. McDaniel, who tells of the beauty of Panama — he was headed for Kingston when he wrote.

From: Meredith Birche, the music specialist, in Atlantic City.

Ditto: Irvin Bryan, the teacher. Card told of seeing Shirley Robinson and Earl Williams, also of Baltimore.

The Henry Allmonds (Marian), and their son, Henry Howard Jr., have picked Smithfield, Va., for their vacation spot. It is his family home.

• • •

Visitors here a week back: Mr. and Mrs. William C. Holt (Mary), of Inkster, Mich., who visited her relatives.

• • •

Here from Buffalo visiting her relatives are Mrs. Leeland N. Jones Jr. (Carlita Murphy).

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bond of Carrollton Ave., and their son, Barton, their granddaughter, Karen, and Mrs. Bond's sister, Miss Blanche E. Wilson, are back from a vacation in Bermuda.

• • •

Boston Globe staff artist Francis Yancey, formerly of our staff, dropped in the office Thursday.

He advises his son, Francis, now 25, is with the Army in Germany.

Other son, David, 17, attends Woburn High in Woburn, Mass., where he and Mrs. Yancey (Mabel) live.

More people and things

It's wedding bells tomorrow (Saturday) for St. George I. B. Crosse, III, candidate' for sheriff, and Miss Delois Bowman, 1965 graduate of Morgan, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Logan of NYC.

An honor graduate of Md. State College, and a second-year student of the U. of Md. law school, Mr. Crosse met his bride - to - be at a homecoming game at Morgan in 1962.

Miss Bowman was the room - mate of Miss Tessa Joy Crosse, sister of Mr. Crose, and a 1965 Morgan grad. The bride - to - be is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

The wedding is set for N.Y.'s Salem Methodist Church.

"The honeymoon will be a drive from New York to Baltimore," he said.

Bride to be is with the NYC Department of Welfare.

• • •

P.S. — The bridegroom-to-be is the same person who made legal history recently when he stood up in the Md. Court of Appeals and argued his own case.

His arguments won him the right to run for Sheriff of Baltimore in the September Primary.

Carol Yvonne St. Clair, daughter of Mrs. Katherine St. Clair, the Edgewood Elementary School teacher, is home from Freiburg, Germany, where she has been doing heart research at Freiburg University two years.

She will return Aug. 23, for another year's duty to continue through January.

Miss St. Clair was a 1962 grad of the College of Notre Dame, and for two years worked in research at Brady Clinic at Hopkins Hospital.

About this and that

It's the truth: If you make out your income tax return and Uncle Sam does not agree with your deductions, he'll likely invite you to visit the Internal Revenue office in your area, and have a friendly little chat.

If you are so called, you soon find out Uncle Sam is not a big, bad wolf at all. He is a soft - spoken middle - aged man who talks like an understanding judge.

He quietly explains his reaction to your deductions, and then tells you, almost apologetically, that he will not allow certain of them.

He moves with dispatch—figuring out the difference and gives you a new bill.

And, when he is finished, he says cordially, 'Thank you for coming.' Thank you!

Orchids to the energetic recreation leaders who conducted summer activities at Cherry Hill Center No. 161 under the direction of Mrs. Myrtle E. Burge.

Recreation Aide James Dennis assisted.

The Day Camp enrolled 190 children ages 1 to 13, and that's no handful of children to direct (with a smile) when it is hot and people are sometimes impatient and irritable.

Others, who assisted in making this one of the best rec center programs were their volunteers: Misses Cynthia Jones, Eunice James, Carolyn Chapman, Sharon Artis, Loretta Ingram, and Joseph James.

Arthur Williams, the principal, gave enthusiastic support.

Recreation Staff members were:

Misses Ruby Jones, Loretta Harding, Sonia James, Mildred Green, Lillian Summerville, James Dennis Zachery Thastel, Jacqueline Marable.

Also, Misses Vera Gaines, Barbara Harris, Mary McKnight, Horace Diamond and George Faulkner, district supervisor.

Applause, please, for Joseph C. Howard, the assistant state's attorney, who spoke out strong and loud this week against the police practice of belittling complaints when our women are attacked.

You know he's right when he says police and some others too, like to 'forget it' or turn their backs if the rape victim is a brown-skinned lady, but these same people cry bloody murder if the victim is white.

So Mr. Howard dares to stand up and tell it like it is. He calls on police to change their 'lackadaisical' manner where rape cases involve us and he's right.

He cites the case of a 15-year-old girl who was attacked by eight youths in the vicinity of North and Brunt but the rape charge was reduced to assault because a policeman 'did not believe a rape had been committed.'

Whatever happened department: Dr. Charles S. Ward, the dedicated superintendent of Crownsville State Hospital, is now on the staff of the Alaska Psychiatric Institute.

Send hellos to him at 2900 Provident Ave. Anchorage, Alaska.

• • •

Reunion note: Members of the family of Judge and Mrs. Robert B. Watts gather at their Callaway Ave. home on Saturday.

Highlight the gathering is a family worship service on Sunday at Sharp St. Methodist Church.

• • •

Special birthday cards and sunshine too, please, to Mrs. Mary H. Baskerville, 535 N. Carey St.

She will be 84 years old on Aug. 25. Mrs. Baskerville has been ill since October, so do send her your best wishes.

Many know Mrs. Baskerville as the mother of beloved school principal, Dr. Mary N. Brooks.

• • •

Belated: John J. Oliver (he's the AFRO exec), birthdayed on Aug. 17. He and his wife, Marye, the teacher, are vacationing at their Cape May home. Thank goodness, she is doing so much better after her hospital sojourn.

Jazz note: Last Sunday was the first time the Leit Bank Society's Concert did not go off as planned. The scheduled artists did not show in time.

President Vernon Welch and the board of directors promise the Andrew Hill quartet will make the scene this Sunday at 4.

Further word is that a major concert artist is on tap for the World Series weekend. Did someone whisper it might be Miles Davis?

• • •

Overheard: Two teens walking down the street with a transistor playing LOUD, spied a campaign sign. One quipped to the other: Sickles is sick. Finan is fine.

New baby and new job: Good news from Newark — it's a six-pound boy for Mr. and Mrs. Furman Templeton Jr. (Hilda) first grandchild for Baltimore's Dr. and Mrs. Furman Templeton Sr. (Irene). He's our Urban League exec., and she's the teacher.

Baby has been named Kimberly Shawn.

The new father also has a new job. He is assistant director of legal services for New Jersey's Office of Economic Opportunity, and assistant general counsel for the Governor's Commission on law and poverty.

Remember he finished Rutgers Law School this past June.

Pizza Burger

For a real taste thrill, try these Pizza Burgers, a sandwich which was a winner in this year' National Sandwich Idea Contest.

Pizza Burgers are made with six ounces bologna, three ounces Cheddar cheese, one - half pound ground beef, three - fourths cup prepared spaghetti sauce, one teaspoon chopped parsley, one - half teaspoon leaf oregano, one — eighth teaspoon sage, six enriched English muffins or hamburger buns, split and toasted, three slices (1 oz. each) Cheddar cheese and one - fourth teaspoon salt.

• • •

GRIND TOGETHER bologna and 3 ounce cheese. Cook ground beef until lightly browned. Pour off drippings. Add bologna mixture, spaghetti sauce, parsley, salt, oregano and sage to ground beef. Mix only until blended.

Spread ¼ cup mixture on top and bottom halves of muffins or buns. Cut each cheese sliced into 4 strips. Place 2 strips crisscross on each sandwich. Bake in preheated 450 degree F. oven 10 to 12 minutes, or until cheese melts.

Pie fillings

Wouldn't it be lovely if fresh fruits were available in the fall and winter when you wouldn't mind turning on the oven to bake luscious pies and other desserts?

But you can do the next best thing—preserve the summertime goodness of fruit in frozen pie fillings to bake when the snow flies.

• • •

JIFFY PEACH-PLUM Pie fillings are so easy to prepare that you won't mind mixing up a batch on the hottest day of the summer.

You just peel, pit, and slice the fruit; then mix in the quick-cooking tapioca and other ingredients, pour into loosely, and freeze. There'll fit-lined pie pans, cover loosely, and freeze. There'll be enough time left for a dip in the pool before dinner!

• • •

THE PIES can be baked in a jiffy, too, when the time comes. The frozen pieshaped fillings are merely unwrapped, slipped into pastry-lined pans, covered with pastry, and baked—there's no need to thaw the fillings before baking.

The quick-cooking tapioca that was mixed with the fruit months earlier will thicken the fillings perfectly and leave the color and flavor of the fruit clear and bright.

Prepare now for a heavy schedule of wintertime entertaining — make several batches of jiffy pie fillings. Each batch makes enough filling for four 9-inch pies.

Showells host Philly visitors

Christian Lodge No. 12 of Philadelphia was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Showell of Germantown in South Berlin, Md. recently.

Two buses arrived at the Showell home carrying the colorfully attired lodge members, their relatives and friends.

The Showells' spacious tree-shaded lawn bordered by beds of petunias, geraniums, and rose bushes, was a scene of varied activities.

The Wilford Showell Catering Service planned and served an elaborate dinner centered around a Chesapeake Bay menu.

• • •

THE HIGHLIGHT of the day was the presentation of the Merit Award Plaque to Mr. Showell, Past Master of this lodge. It was for his dedicated efforts and unselfish devotion. Mr. Showell is the originator of the Annual Fellowship Banquet.

MR. WM. E. ROBERTS

SWITCHES TO SICKLES!

HERE'S WHY!

WILLIAM E. ROBERTS, 4th District House of Delegates Candidate, announced today that he was withdrawing from the Finan ticket and joining the Sickles ticket in the 4th District.

Tendering his formal resignation from the 4th Distict Democratic Organization ticket in a telegram dated August 13, 1966, to David T. Mason, Chairman of Board of Directors, Mr. Roberts stated: "I am before the people at this time asking them to let me represent them. I strongly feel that I can best do this by supporting the people's candidate, Carlton Sickles, whose platform I can respect and believe in."

Mr. Roberts further states that neither the Board of Directors nor the rank and file membership of the 4th District Democratic Oganization ever had a democratic opportunity to review the records and platform of both gubernatorial candidates. He indicated that the results would have been different had this happened.

"It is important to political freedom in the Fourth District that the people make their independent choice," he said.

Mr. Roberts is the liquor Board Inspector who tendered his resignation from that city agency rather than take leave.

"I resigned my position from the Liquor Board so I could be free to demonstrate the courage of my convictions. I intend to be successful, but success without respect is empty," he stated.

Delegate Clarence M. Mitchell, III, who heads the 4th District.

Sickles Action Team, praised Mr. Roberts' action and stated that he would be an "asset to our team."

This is evidence that the people are not fooled by the extravagant promises of Mr. Finan who has been in office six years and has done nothing for the masses of voters. "We are tired of benefits to the few at the expense of the people," he added.

Mr. Roberts, a World War II veteran and former PTA president of School No. 142, is the father of eight children. His oldest son, William, Jr., is serving in the U.S. Navy on the USS Lawrence. He has been active in the 4th District Voter Registration Campaign. He has been a member of the 4th District Democratic Organization for 4 years. Manager and sponsor of a Maryland League Baseball Team of 16 to 19-year-old youth, Mr. Roberts has been also active in the Parent Teacher Associations at Douglass High School and Lemmel Junior High School and Lemmel Junior High School. He is a member of the St. Peter Claver Catholic Church. He received an outstanding citizen salute from Radio Station WEEB in 1965. He resides at 2012 Walbrook Ave., with his wife, Mrs. Willie Mae Roberts.

The days of the "Show case Negro" and the "B.B.P.I.G. (Black Bouregeois Personal Interest Group") is coming to an end, its going to be a new ball game, a game in which we all will have a chance to participate.
