due to the factional fighting in the badly organized district with neither faction "going anywhere."

Currently, Mr. Williamson said while confirming earlier reports by Mr. Taylor and Senator Mach, they have no difficulty working for the interest of the colored voters through their affiliation with the organization.

"Whenever a question is raised about matters affecting our people, the senator consults with us before he acts.

"Throughout our entire association, he nor any of his associates have ever dictated to us. On the other hand, he has always followed our recommendations on matters of patronage and scholarships." Mr. Williamson declared.

Mr. Mach corroborated this view, adding that Messrs. Williams and Taylor are "my lieutenants."

"We don't tell them, they tell us what to do," he told the AFRO.

Mr. Mach answered UJOIN's charges with a considerable degree of vigor.

"They are just trying to gain publicity and notice by making unfounded charges," he declared.

Taking Mr. Lively's attack on Mr. Williamson point by point, the political leader made these points.

"I could not vote on the open occupancy bill because it never came before the Senate. It failed in the House.

"I voted for the Public Accommodation Bill and the Fair Employment Practice Law," he added.

On his criticism of employees in the Community Action Agency conducting political activity among the poor, the senator had this to say:

"If they want to become involved in politics, I think they have that right. I don't however, believe they have the right to do it at taxpayers' expense."

UJOIN also charged that Mr. Mach was against the Rent Strike Bill introduced in the last session of the General Assembly.

The militant civil rights group also accused him of attempting to reduce the colored vote in the district by supporting a measure requiring a complete city - wide re-registration.

On those accusations, the senator told the AFRO:

"How could I vote against the Rent Strike Bill when it didn't not reach the Senate.

"Yes, I favored a complete new re-registration because I conducted a personal survey and it shows that there are 100,000 'ghost voters' on the books.

"A registration would benefit colored city residents more than it would anybody else because the vast majority of the 'ghost voters' are white people who have, in many cases, moved to the county and still vote in the city."

TO THE charge that he operates a segregated tavern, the legislator candidly admitted that "I did, like all other taverns owners, but now anyone who is orderly is served."

He further challenged any individual or organization, including UJOIN to prove he is associated with any person or organization having racists leanings.

"I don't, and have never known any of the people who are involved in racists activities," he said.

—Mrs. Hall denies from the same office, insisted the wife know her rights.

MR. FISHER said that while there was no question in his mind of the ability or integrity of the attorneys, to prevent later questioning, he wanted Mrs. Hall to know that she had the right to take a position in the matter.

IT WAS THEN that Mrs. Hall's silence broke.

"I didn't leave my children alone. I was staying with an aunt of mine. My husband came in the house and we had a fight. I had to go to the hospital. I was afraid to go back to the house but the children were not left alone," she said.

Asked if she visited the children, she said no, but that no longer than the day before, the children had come to see her.

Mr. Fisher pointed out that the Welfare Department frowns upon interference in foster homes by the parent.

THE MASTER said that he would recommend the divorce on the grounds of desertion, since those grounds had been established and it was apparent that neither party wanted the marriage continued.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall were married on Jan. 10, 1951 and separated on Nov. 18, 1954.

MRS. MOZELLE HACKNEY of 1923 McCulloh St., testified that Edward A. Hackney, 1701 McKean St., put her out.

The wife said that her husband had changed after he came out of the service. He stayed away at nights, she saw very little of him, and when he was home he wanted to fight, she said.

On the morning of June 29, 1954, he told her to get out and "I had to leave because it was his mother's home," said Mrs. Hackney.

They had been married a little more than a year and a half.

Mrs. Hackney had her maiden name, Mozelle O'Neal, restored.

MRS. LILLIAN E. ALLEN of 2410 Edmondson Ave., won a divorce from Leigh A. Allen Jr. on grounds of voluntary separation.

Mrs. Allen testified that she left Mr. Allen, who lives at 308 Suter Rd., Catonsville, on March 1, 1957. They were married on June 24, 1942 and are parents of two daughters, both of whom are adults.

CLEAN BLOCK

Bridge Theatre hosts Blockers

Clean Blockers attended the last of six Movie Jamborees on Monday, at the Bridge Theatre, Edmondson Ave. and Pulaski St.

The group started gathering about 8:30 a.m.

Mrs. Mildred Lewis, manager, and her staff, greeted the anxious group. Mrs. Gloria Thomas was at the concession counter and Mrs. Veronica Mason, cashier.

Two cartoons and a movie feature were shown. The main feature was "The Crawling Eye," the nightmare terror of slithering eye that unleached organized horror on a screaming world.

Many thanks to the owner of the Bridge Theatre and to Mrs. Lewis, were expressed by Mrs. Jeannette Leath, Clean Block director, and campaign workers.

of the shooting.

ACCORDING TO police records, an altercation between the two men took place about 3 p.m. during work hours. The shooting took place about 10:15 p.m. as they were walking off the job at Pier 11 in Lower Canton.

Mr. Hayes was discovered a few minutes later lying in the middle of Newgate Ave., wounded in the stomach. He was taken to City Hospital and released June 2.

Mr. McPherson, married, and father of six children, was released under $4,000 bail which will be continued through the pending trial.

Tom Finan Asks:

Have You Read This?

FROM THE MAY 3, 1966

BALTIMORE AFRO-AMERICAN

By MAX JOHNSON

Thomas B. Finan, Democratic candidate for governor, said Saturday he would initiate some definite racial advancements, if he is elected.

In statements directly to the AFRO, Mr. Finan said:

1. He would integrate his State House office staff at a high level, if he is elected governor. (The governor's staff has never been integrated.)

2. He would give "a justifiable priority" to the Improvement of race relations and the greater participation in government to all minority groups, with more such key appointments.

THE ATTORNEY general's commitments came in reply to these indirect questions:

"What plans, if any, do you have for integrating your State House staff, if you are elected governor?

"What advancements can the colored voter look forward to, in return for giving you support?"

Carlton B. Sickles, congressman at large, who announced his bid for the Democratic nomination for governor a week ago last Sunday, was asked the same questions at that time by George W. Collins, AFRO city editor, and this writer at his Lanham home near Washington.

Mr. Sickles replied flatly: "I will make no commitments."

He is generally considered to be Mr. Finan's more formidable foe for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

HERE MORE completely is how Mr. Finan answered the question about integrating his governor's staff, should he win election:

"On numerous occasions, I have suggested to the governor (J. Millard Tawes) that there be a colored person on the administration's staff.

"I was sincere then. I am sincere now in saying that a colored person should be on the governor's staff, not just in a clerical status but a high level position of administrative assistant.

"This I believe and I would make such an appointment."

On the second question of what advancements colored voters could expect in return for supporting him, Mr. Finan had this to say:

"I HAVE spent many, many hours in my office serving on citizens committees in human relations matters, in an effort to better standards of colored citizens.

"In my own office, I was first to appoint a colored assistant attorney general to my staff (David T. Mason), and upgrade the colored assistant working with the Workmen's Compensation Commission (T. Theodore Hayes).

"Also, I am the first attorney general to appoint a colored legal secretary (Mrs. Gwendolyn Clarke) to that staff.

"I would feel that my policies along these lines should not only be continued but implemented.

"As governor, I would feel that the improvement of race relations and greater participation by all minority groups in government is something to which I would give a justifiable priority."

So spoke Mr. Finan, Democratic candidate for governor, in contrast to the "I will make no commitments" comment to the AFRO from Mr. Sickles, his opponent.

THESE ARE NOT IDLE STATEMENTS. THEY ARE A KEY PART OF THE "BLUEPRINT FOR PROGRESS" WHICH I WILL OUTLINE TO THE PEOPLE OF MARYLAND DURING MY CAMPAIGN FOR GOVERNOR.

How sweet the hour of closing day.

Sud and sudden was the call
Of one, so dearly loved by all;
A home and a place it left vacant and sore.
It was to part with one so dear.
We miss you at dinner and at supper
And speak of how you died.
On that last morning you said good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did you best.
Oh, God bless our dear departed rest.

You now live on a higher plane
An angel at Jesus feet.

YOUNG — In loving memory of my dear wife and our mother NEVA YOUNG, who passed away August 17, 1965:
A picture we see of a beautiful face,
Reflecting an image of heaven-
Of grace —
A picture which shows many traces of care,
And yet an expression sweetest love there
The work of an artist, the loveliest art —
A picture of 'Mother' that is framed in our hearts.
And though she has crossed to her heaven of rest.
Sweet memories of Mother lie wrapped in our breasts.
The print of her footsteps again we can see,
The voice we hear, saying, "My dears, follow me."
No artist can paint us a picture so fair;
It takes a true mother, her love, faith and prayer.
