MISS FRANCINE LEWIS and Larry Hopkins were married in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Baltimore, Saturday.

Miss Lewis bride of Larry Hopkins

Miss Francine Theresa Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, and Larry Wallace Hopkins were married in Saint Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Saturday, at high noon.

The Nuptial Mass was performed by Fr. Malone, who also officiated at the double-ring marriage ritual.

* * *

MISS LEWIS was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a gown of white silk trimmed in silk lace and featuring a cathedral train which flared from the waistline at back.

Her shoulder length veil of silk net was attached to a rhinestone edged flower of the material.

She carried a nosegay of delicately tinted garden flowers which she placed on the altar of the Virgin Mother at the end of the Mass.

Leaving the altar at the end of the ceremony she carried a white Prayer Book topped with white orchids. White gladioli were used throughout the church decor.

* * *

MISS DOROTHY HOPKINS, was maid of honor for the bride.

Her other attendants were Misses Barbara Soares, Christina Pena, Beverly Forde, Nina Himan and Corine Stokes. Adrienne Britton and Patricia Ann Britton were flower girls.

All of the attendants wore floor-length dresses in silk turquoise and aqua, tiny starched circular net halos centered with material roses and carried nosegays in multi-colored garden posies.

* * *

BEST MAN for Mr. Hopkins was Everette Hopkins, Sr., and ushers Ellis Hopkins, Arnold Hopkins, Donald Hopkins, Dennis Britton and Conrad Cook.

Everett Hopkins, Jr. was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lewis wore a two-piece, floor-length ensemble, the top re-embroidered in brilliants. Mrs. Hopkins chose an ensemble in blue.

Following the wedding a reception for 300 guests was held in the Forest Park Manor, King Draper Combo provided the background music. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins are at home at 3631 Liberty Heights Avenue.

* * *

THE BRIDE, who graduated from St. Francis Academy and Morgan State College, will be teaching in the Baltimore City School system this year.

Mr. Hopkins is employed by the Koontz Creamery Co. He is a graduate of Dunbar High School.

Openings at Coppin State

Although Coppin State College has admitted a freshman class fifty percent larger than that of last year, room can be found for approximately seventy - five more well qualified freshman and about 30 more transfers in good standing.

All applicants who have not taken the American College Test should do so on Saturday, Aug. 27 at 8 a.m. in the Pulley Gymnasium.

Announcement has also been made of the availability of additional financial aid.

For additional information call LA 3-1111 Ext. 5.

MR. AND MRS. Haywood Simon leave the altar of St. Peter Claver Church, where they were married, Saturday. Mrs. Simon is the former Miss Gwendolyn Fellow.

Modern Modistes, friends cover 5,488 miles on tour

The Modern Modiste Club, with relatives and friends, returned to Baltimore, last week after a 20-day bus tour of Western United States.

The trip included a visit to the Mormon Temple Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, Utah, where the group heard an organ recital; an after dark trip through America's most fascinating Chinatown, in San Francisco, which included a complete authentic Chinese dinner; a tour of Hollywood and Beverly Hills in Los Angeles, an all-day tour of Disneyland; a tour of the Hollywood Bowl and the studio grounds of Revue Universal International Studios.

Magnificent Grand Canyon views in Arizona climaxed the trip.

The tour covered 5,844 miles (excluding the tours) and 14 states.

* * *

MEMBERS of the Modern Modiste Club include Mesdames Violetta Wade, president; Irene Matthews, secretary; Virginia Tabb, business manager; Bernice Mitchell, Allethia Cook, and Lillian Trotman. Mrs. Florence Kelley, also a member, was not on the tour.

Other tourists include:

Messrs. and Mesdames Edward Wilson, Gordon Booker, Bernard Holly, Joshua Mitchell, Sr., William H. Tabb; Mrs. Joshua Mitchell, III and children, Vickie and Robin, who were joined in Los Angeles by Dr. Joshua Mitchell, III;

Also Mesdames Geneva Randolph, Annie Hill, Pearl Singleton, Gladys Allen, Ada Pitts, Leona Robb, Eylless Johnson, Ella McNair, Ida Mae Jones, Hattie Clemmons,

Mesdames Nina Biddle, Florence Walker, Annie V. McKinstray, Mary Williams, Susie Johnson, Emma Hampton, Mary Gross, Marie Lewis;

And Misses Virginia Moore Virginia Tabb, Diane Williams, Patricia Trotman, and Gladys Palmer.

MRS. DORIS C. JOHNSON has received a scholarship grant to study at the University of Hawaii next term. A Morgan State College graduate, she is a former teacher in Baltimore.

Agreement reached in Blackwell divorce suits

Mr. and Mrs. Hobron R. Blackwell, each fighting for a divorce from the other, reached an agreement and a decree was signed in favor of the husband Friday.

Mr. Blackwell had charged his wife, Mrs. Lelya Mae Blackwell, with desertion.

They were married on Aug. 1, 1945 and on Feb. 1 1963 she moved from their bedroom to the living room to sleep, he said.

Mrs. Blackwell told him that she was finished with him and tired of married life, added the husband.

In December, he said, she moved from the house and took all of the furniture.

* * *

MRS. BLACKWELL filed a cross bill in which she too charged desertion. She charged that her husban was using divers means in an attempt to lure their three children from her.

She said that their 19-year-old daughter had left her and was residing in the father's home without proper supervision, care or female guidance.

With her request for a divorce, Mrs. Blackwell asked for support.

She said that Mr. Blackwell was capable of earning $10,000 as an employee of the Department of Education and that he occupies the home at 2102 Baker St., that is jointly owned by her. He has other assets and property, said the wife.

* * *

UNDER A stipulation which brought an end to the suits and gave a divorce to Mr. Blackwell, he is to provide $27.50 per week for the support of the three children.

Mrs. Blackwell is to have their custody. Her bill was dismissed. Mr. Blackwell is to pay court cost.

Mrs. Blackwell and the children, two daughters and a son, live at 2612 Allendale Rd.

Europe tour

JACQUIN STONE

BARBARA STONE

Misses Jacquin E. Stone and Barbara Stone, 430 N. Hilton St., returned Wednesday from a twenty-one day tour of Europe.

Miss Barbara Stone is an elementary school teacher at the Edgewood School in West Baltimore.

Burton '66 grad

Airman George Burton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Burton, 1205 E. Federal St., now at Chanute Air Force is a 1966 graduate of Douglass High School. A Tuesday story listed his graduation date as 1960.

Board rules on Harlem stores

One Harlem Ave. store was approved and another rejected Tuesday by the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals.

Okayed was the continued use of the first floor at 925 Harlem as a store.

The board disapproved however, the operation of a confectionery and carry out shop at 1924 Harlem.

In other action, the board approved 211 N. Woodyear St. for the storage of lumber, and 402 N. Chapel St. for the storage of produce.

Among the cases scheduled to be heard the coming Tuesday beginning at 1 p.m. in Room 231 City Hall, are requests to install a soda vending machine in the yard at 2701 E. Chase St. and to house 28 families at 5001 Midwood Ave.
