U.S. asked for $1 million by dad separated from children

A Charlotte, N.C., real estate dealer and his 11-year old children, boy and girl twins, filed suit in Fereral District Court in Baltimore Aug. 16 for $1,200,000 for damages suffered by them as a family due to the father's having been "railroaded" to a Federal penitentiary.

The father is Ottis Mayo Jones, 500 36th St., Charlotte, N.C., a prosperous realtor, who is confined to Federal Prison in Atlanta, Ga. for seven years on two counts of auto theft he claims are trumped up because of his color.

Judge Roszel C. Tomsen sitting in the Federal Court at the Post Office h a s singed permission for the case to be heard in the court here.

In a five-page statement to the court, Mr. Jones claims Federal authorities illegally, and because of his color, began conspiring with Mechkenburg County authorities from Dec. 4, 1963 to have him jailed.

He states that the final conviction and imprisonment have resulted in unfair separation from his twins, David Mayo Jones and Davida Echo Jones, depriving him and them from family rights guaranteed by the Constitution.

He further alleges that imprisonment has caused him the loss of his business. Each child asks $100,000 damages. Mr. Jones asks $1 million compensation.

THE SUIT principally named an FBI agent, Gordon S. Carr, J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Judge Wilson Warwick of Charlotte, N.C.

Judge Tomsen also signed permission for Mr. Jones to file his own suit under a pauper's oath since the real estate dealer claims he is without money due to loss of his business and authorities taking some $1,423 from him at the Mechlenburg County jail.

Mr. Jones claims he has been denied a court appointed attorney. The loss of his funds required him to let go an attorney of his choice.

In claiming he was "railroaded", Mr. Jones complains (1) deprivation of natural rights (2) deprivation of a fair trial (3) deprivation of his money and (4) deprivation of right to present his evidence before the courts where he was tried.

THE UNUSUAL occurrence began, Mr. Jones says, when Mr. Carr, the FBI agent, acting under authority of Mr. Hoover, forced him from his real estate office in Charlotte, placed him in an FBI car to be held by two armed FBI agents, without probable cause or warrant.

Mr. Jones goes on to say that Carr went back to his office and without legal permission, searched the place, stole and carried away his personal property.

In addition, when he came before Judge Warwick in Charlotte he states the jurist denied his petition for a writ of habeas corpus and conspired with the FBI agents to place him under the high bail of $50,000.

When the $1,423 he had on his person at the time was taken at the jail, he said he became unable to pay the attorney he had retained.

In addition, when he was tried before a jury, Mr. Jones states the judge conspired to have the jury bring a guilty verdict although he knew the two automobiles in question had been rented by him under a valid and legal contract.

With the illegal persecution and harm still continuing against him in the Atlanta prison, Mr. Jones states that he has been refused contact and correspondence with his children.

Copies of the $1,200,000 action were also sent by registered mail to the U.S. Attorney, Baltimore; the U.S. Attorney General, Washington; and the U.S. Attorney Charlotte, N.C.

Firm must meet wage minimum

U. S. Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz has obtained a default judgement in U. S. District Court here against Spanos Painting Contractors, 2437 N. Calvert St., and Hercules G. Spanos, company president, for violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The judgment orders future compliance with the misimum wage, overtime and record-keeping provisions of the Act. The court costs were assessed against the defendant.
