beating about the body.

From 3:30 the afternoon before, when Mrs. Dorsey left a friend's house in the same block to go home, until 7:30 Sunday morning, no one called police to report any unusual screams or happenings in the house.

Residents in the block and in Young Court, the housing project across the street, were questioned the next day by police, with negative results. They had not heard anything, they said.

Dr. Spitz said that Mrs. Dorsey had been dead for several hours when she was found by police.

Eastern District police have charged a 35-year-old man with the slaying, who they said rented a room from Mrs. Dorsey, with her death.

MRS. DORSEY, a native of Chesapeake, Va., where she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Olivia Scott, and a sister, will be taken back there for funeral services Saturday or Sunday.

The family, in Baltimore, Thursday, said Mrs. Dorsey's husband, Louis Dorsey, had died just two weeks ago.

She is also survived by cousins and an uncle here in Baltimore.

Big church group meets ambulance

By RUTH JENKINS

The Rev. M. Cecil Mills, pastor of Canaan Baptist Church, couldn't talk much but his eyes sparkled as a 30-member delegation of relatives, brother clergymen and church devotees welcomed his arrival in Washington, Tuesday at Freedmen's Hospital.

It was an emotional homecoming for the minister as he arrived by ambulance from Bedford Memorial County Hospital in Bedford, Pa. where he had been confined since Sept. 2 following an automobile accident in which he sustained leg, arm and hip fractures among other injuries.

A GROUP including the pastor, his two sons, Medric Jr. and Thomas, and the Rev. Harvey Carpenter of Baltimore were homeward bound from Steubenville, Ohio after attending an NAACP banquet when the accident occurred on Route 70 between Reaswood and Cumberland, Pa.

The Rev. Mr. Carpenter, assistant pastor at United Baptist Church in Baltimore was at the wheel of the car.

He said it was about 6:30 a.m. when a tractor trailer forced the car across the median strip onto the traffic lane on the other side of the road. It went up about 20 feet into the air, traveling a distance of about 414 feet.

The back end of the car where the Rev. Mr. Mills was sitting was torn out as if struck a guard rail, the back door jammed, and the gas tank was wrenched from underneath the vehicle.

AS BAD as the accident was, the Rev. Mr. Carptner observed "Nothing but the Lord was with us. There was a 50-foot drop right alongside. And if we had gone over that embankment, we all would have been dead."

The Rev. Mr. Mills was the most seriously injured. His son, Thomas, who suffered a fractured rib, was hospitalized for a day and a half.

The entire group remained in Pennsylvania, housed at the Penn Bedford Hotel, and drove back to Washington at the same time Rev. Mills was returned home by ambulance. His wife went up to Pennsylvania soon afterwards to be at the bedside of her husband.

IN THE meantime, the church secretary, Mrs. Phoebe Trice; the Rev. Browning J. Payton who is in charge at the church during the pastor's illness; and other church officers and member were beseiged in Washington with inquiries about the minister's welfare.

The Wednesday night prayer meeting took the form of a special service of prayer for his continued improvement.

WHEN REV. MILLS' condition warranted his being moved, an ambulance was sent from Washington to Pennsylvania to bring him home.

Some of the relatives and friends, who welcomed him at Freedmen's on Tuesday had waited at the hospital for almost two hours. They came by private car, by bus, by cab and some in the church's Day Nursery station wagon.

They gathered around with emotional words of greeting as the clergymen was lifted from the ambulance and transferred to the stretcher which took him to his room in Freedmen's Annex. The church 'mother', Mrs. Winnie Simms bent over and kissed him and they exchanged quiet words.

AMONG THE family gathering were his wife Mrs. Alyce Mills; their sons, Medric Jr. and Thomas and their wives; the daughter, Mrs. Marian Webb and her husband, James Webb; and grandchildren, Tony Powell, Roger Powell, Tommy Jr., Sherryl Mills, and Lisa Mills; Medric Mills 3rd; and James Webb Jr.

Mrs. Martha Smith, Mrs. Lucille Banks Robinson, Mrs. Phoebe Trice, Mrs. Gussie Frederick, Deacon Willie T. Stephens, Rev. Walter Fauntroy, pastor of New Bethel Baptist Church; Bernard Lee, Rev. John R. Lee, Rev. Browning J. Payton, Mrs. Lucille Banks Robinson, Mrs. Phoebe Trice.

In the reunion with their pastor, it was evident as one of the group said "From the way Rev. Mills feels about the church and the way the church feels about him, had it been left to them, the whole of Canaan would have been here to greet him."

An Open Letter To The Public:

DR. JULIAN

I believe that it is my solemn duty to make crystal clear to those whom I would represent as State Senator from the Fourth Legislative District my position on a matter which is very important to the Negro community of which I am a part.

Contrary to any opinion expressed by others, I definitely and firmly believe that the question of open housing is very much a racial matter and is an important issue in this election.

I believe firmly with an unswerving conviction that all men are created equal as brothers. Therefore all housing that is for sale or rent, new or old, should be without any type of exclusion, available to all.

I cannot now, never have, and never will agree with any person or persons supporting any person whowould openly advocate discrimination against my people.

There should be legislation which clearly states that race must not be used as a factor in the denial of renting or purchasing.

I promise that if I am elected to the State Senate, I shall utilize every available bit of energy that I possess to work toward making this a reality by law!
