TOM FINAN
FOR GOVERNOR

FRANCIS "BILL" BURCH
FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

LOUIS GOLDSTEIN FOR COMPTROLLER

Attorney General Tom Finan receives enthusiastic welcome as he tours 4th District with Senator Verda Welcome.

Afro Clean Blockers receive prizes from the Finan - Burch - Goldstein team, presented by Insurance Commissioner Francis Burch.

State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein addressing audience at Maryland State College at Princess Anne during Achievement Week Program sponsored by Pi Alpha and Pi Epsilon Chapters of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Comptroller Goldstein later accepted a citation and award for Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy posthumously honoring President John Fitzgerald Kennedy which was later presented to Mrs. Kennedy in New York by Comptroller Goldstein. The citation is now a part of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library.

The Blueprint for progress. . .

An improved program for education . . . An adequate supply of qualified teachers. Expanded vocational-technical education, special aid for culturally deprived children, an adequate number of modern school buildings.

Highway Safety . . . creation of a Commission of Highway Safety to deal effectively with traffic safety, roads and motor vehicles, to establish speed limits, to prescribe and enforce criteria for road constuction and create standards for licensing drivers with emphasis on physical and psychological qualifications.

Conflict of interest . . . Passage of the Conflict of Interest statute introduced at the last session of the State Legislature. The bill would prevent any public official or public employee from improperly using his position to enrich himself, his family or his friends.

Law and Order . . . implementation of a model criminal code. Presentation of a "Good Samaritan Act" to the legislature, to provide financial compensation for any citizen injured while preventing crime, apprehending a criminal, or assisting a policeman who is engaged in crime prevention. Increased police salaries.

Mass Transit . . . creation of the office of "Commissioner of Mass Transit," directly accountable to the Governor. This office will coordinate the planning activities of municipal and state agencies, the Federal Government and private industry.

Judicial Reform . . . to vest the judicial power of Maryland in one unified judicial system under the Court of Appeals. Support of the Niles Plan. Creation of an intermediate Court of Appeals.

Higher Education . . . expansion of facilities for higher education. Expansion of community two-year colleges. Increase in the State's contribution to the operating costs of community colleges. Increase faculty salaries. Coordination of programs of higher education with the needs of business, industry and the professions.

Taxes . . . decisive action on tax reform program, larger share of State revenues to suburban counties according to need to help reduce local real estate, graduated income tax, uniform Statewide tax on personal business property.

Consumer Protection and Truth in Lending . . . creation of a Consumer Protection Office to receive complaints from consumers and conduct investigations. Truth-in-lending laws to provide full and accurate disclosure of all charges for the use of money or credit.

Metropolitan Government . . . continued support of the Washington Metropolitan Council of Governments. Metropolitan cooperation in water, sewer, sewage and refuse disposal, joint studies of traffic problems, a combined Transit and Traffic Agency for Montgomery County and Prince Georges' County. Establishment of an office of the Governor in the Metropolitan Washington area within Maryland. An inter-governmental compact with the State of Virginia and the District of Columbia to work toward a solution of all Washington Metropolitan area problems.

Reorganization of State Government . . . creation of a major new Department of Administration in the Executive Branch headed by a commissioner responsible to the Governor. Consolidation in this department of budgeting, purchasing, planning, personnel and public improvements.

ON SATURDAY night of last week, Anethia and Roland Williams, whose time and energy had been spent on a series of trips centered on seeing Maryland and nearby spots during their vacation, decided that they would, after all, have their annual in-the-yard party... and 24 hours later were in the midst of as flossie an affair as most hosts take months to arrange.

Their lovely back lawn was bedecked with colorful umbrella tables, Meredith Birches Combo dispensed music from the patio, and guests in chic regalia added to the scene. The hosts provided a lavish menu and a hundred-plus guests enjoyed a relaxing afternoon.

About were:

The Glendi Johns, the Andrew Edmonds, the Robert Baileys and their daughter, Jan Allison; the Charles Lightfoots and children, Charles, Jr., Gail and Karen; the Irving Williamses and children, Wesley, Gail and Irvine.

The Benjamin Barksdales, and sons, Benjamine, now on furlough from Fort Lewis, Tacoma, Wash., and who lent his talent to the gospel artistry with the Combs and Robertson Wesley Singsters; Robert Paynes, William Clowsers, Harold Jennifers, Harry Carpenters and children, Harry, Jr. and Lynn.

The Alfred Woodridges and daughter, Amy; Donald Parkers, with William and Elizabeth; Miles Rossiters, Irving Greenfeams, Alonzo Hairstons, Mel Reynolds, John Woods, David Wright, Robert Piggens and Lynn; A. Paul Mosses, Marie and Rachel, Frank Jonses and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Smiths.

Drs. and Mesdames McKinley Reeves, Eugene Byrd and son, Eugene; C. Luther Lee, Herbert Trader and son, Herbert, Jr., Ivan Higgins, Allan Forte, Nathan Pitts and daughter, Mitra; M

GWEN AND CHARLES (Granny) Hillen, who have a reputation as one of our town's ideal couples and as gracious hosts for others, turned the tables on Sunday.

They invited friends to a black tie party at their Warwick Ave. home, to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

They had moved furniture around and set up buffet tables on the first floor, where white and silver decorations turned the place into a real dream.

Outstanding, the huge wedding bell designed by Bea Wright; and the beautiful and tasty fruit display done by Clarence Hillen.

There was dancing, of course, in the Hillens' spacious clubroom which had been rearranged especially for the occasion — including addition of air conditioning.

There were champagne toasts shortly after midnight.

For the big day Mrs. Hillen was radiant in a white sheath with which she wore colorful green jewelry. His gift to her was a gorgeous diamond ring. Her gift to him, a diamond-decorated watch.

Messrs. and Mesdames Clifton Morgan, David Wright, Aaron Ellis, Ezrel Taylor, Melvin Callaman, Kenneth O. Wilson, Lee Hillen, A. Paul Moss.

Messrs and Mesdames Alvin Trent, Milton Stanley, Elsee Higginbotham, Rudolph Redd, Samuel Blackwell, Henry Neal, Edward Williams, Theodore Johnson, Clarence Hillen.

Dr. and Mrs. Louise Gregoir, Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Pennington, Mrs. Royal Weaver, Mrs. Richard Hobson, Dr. Frank Beckles (he's the new interne at Public Health Hospital who hails from Barbados. His family includes his wife, Marie, and three small children).

Mrs. John J. de Cecelia, Mrs. Ollie Williams, and Major and Mrs. William Willis (Lucille), who are bound for N. C., where he undergoes special training ere he takes off for duty in Viet Nam.

DR. AND MRS. Alexander J. Walker and son, Douglas, have been on the move this summer.

Douglas attended Park Summer School and won a trophy for being on the winning basketball team. He left for Puerto Rico August 1, and remained a month. While away he played on the All Star Team in the Pony Basketball League.

Dr. Alexander Walker of the Morgan State College Political Science Department, is traveling for the U. S. Government Office of Education, this summer . . . so his visits to their Big Gun Powder Falls retreat have been rather spotty.

Dr. Dollie Walker had a field day as a consultant to the U. S. Office of Education while Doug was away. She will be tied to the hearth until she journeys to Hartford, Conn. on the weekend of the 30th of this month to talk at an administrative conference sponsored by the State Department of Education.

TWO-YEAR-OLD Donna Lynn Jones (she's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jones) celebrated her birthday, Sunday, at the Clifton Ave. home of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Battle.

Donna Lynn is also the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Jones. She's the only girl to arrive in her mother's side of the family in 20 years, and the only girl in her father's family during the past 15 years.

Among the guests at her party were:

Jeanette and Gary Davis, Craig Whittenberg, Phyllis Pollard, Milton Carron, Jr., David Jones, Jr.;

Kenneth Jones, Paul and Paulette Cross, Travis and Meryl Leviner, Carles, Darryl and Anthony Battle, Patricia Dix, Patricia Fuller, Rhonda Fleming, Elaine and Linda Cheatham, Carol Jones, Nelson White, Deborah Taft and Gwendolyn Manigault.

Out-of-town guests were Percy Taylor, uncle; Mrs. Ruth Long, aunt, both of Richmond, Va., Iris Taylor, Percy Taylor, Jr., also of Richmond, and Tonette Taylor of Rocky Mount, N. C.

MEMBERS OF The Organization got together on Saturday, at the Copley Road home of Leana Ferrell for a session of summer recounting and autumn planning.

Also, twas birthday shower time for Leanna, Jeanette Johnson and Ernestine Lewis. They also selected secret pals for the year and planned a barn dance for late November.

In addition to those mentioned, attending were Marian Amprey, Mary Bacote, Mae Cornish, Jean Johnson, Henrietta Jones, Veronia Greene, Aurelia Lonesome, Alphua Williams and Lillian Wilson.

* * *

FOR THEIR annual week end trip, the Guys and Dolls (Club) jaunted off to Asbury Park, and party time at the Empress Motel.

In the party were:

Clarence and Danna Brown, George and Hedy Brown, James and Mandy Bynum, Clarence and Naomi Evans, Albert and Madora James, Troy and Bernice Lewis, Abe and Bernice Lynn and Benjamin and Elaine Welch.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. Byrd Savage of Poppleton St. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Gwendolyn Regina, to James Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrington of Barrington Road.

* * *

MRS. ALFRED CLINKSCALE entertained 50 women, including her neighbors, at a lawn party at her Mount Wood Road home, Wednesday.

On her program of speakers were Mrs. Jerry Larkey, community worker; Mrs. Sylvia Myers, first program director of the Job Corp for Girls; Mrs. Thelma Daley, Mrs. Flossie Dedmond, Mrs. Anne Morgan, president of the Baltimore chapter of United Church Women; Cong. Samuel Friedel, who discussed his Fair Packaging and Labeling Bill; and Miss Sandra East, who gave the history of the Baltimore Council of the National Council of Women, which Mrs. Clinkscale heads.

The Council made an award to Gen. George Gelston, acting police commissioner; and citations to Sgt. Carolyn Robinson and Capt. Violet H. Whyte.

The "getting - to - know-you" party was jointly hosted by Mrs. Helen M. Chamberlain.

Dr. and Mrs. Alan Forte announced the marriage of their daughter, Gloria Elaine to Frank Homer Henderson Jr., this week.

Mr. Henderson is son of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Sr. of Kansas City, Kans. A graduate of Howard University, he is a government employee in Washington, where the couple will live. Mrs. Henderson is a senior at the University of Maryland.

They were married in Washington a year ago, on August 27th, 1965.

* * *

THE WEDDING of Beverly Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Barrett Sr., to John H. Carter Jr. will take place on the 17th in Saint James Episcopal Church, at two in the afternoon.

* * *

THE BALTIMORE chapter of Girl Friends will initiate their 1966 cotillion season with a Pre-Cotillion Tea in the Madison Avenue branch of the YWCA, Sunday, at 2 p.m. Catherine Wilson is chairman for the tea, and Agnes Patterson is cotillion chairman. Their guests will be the prospective debutantes and their parents.

MR. AND MRS. HOYT A. JONES were married in Baltimore, recently. The bride is the former Miss Evelyn McNair.
