1st Pa. Avenue shooting nets $250 fine, jail term

A youthful defendant arrested in the series of shootings which triggered a sweeping dope investigation in the 1500 block of Pennsylvania Ave. was jailed Thursday.

Municipal Court Judge Joseph Broccolino sentenced Clarence E. Williams, 19, 2000 block Norfolk Ave., to 90 days in jail and imposed a fine of $250. He noted an appeal to Criminal Court.

The sentence followed a guilty verdict wherein Williams was convicted of shooting David Johnson, 35, 2100 block Fulton Ave., on Aug. 15.

Johnson, who was shot in the left leg, told the court that he didn't want to send Williams to jail because "it all was a mistake."

"It seems he was cheated out of some money and was upset," the shooting victim told the court adding, "I don't want to prosecute."

Judge Broccolino advised Johnson that he was a compelled witness and his personal wishes had no bearing on the case.

Det. Lt. Clarence E. Roy and Det. Sgt. Bishop L. Robinson testified they arrested Williams on a warrant several days after Johnson identified him from police mug shots.

WILLIAMS, THROUGH his attorney, contended that he was a victim of mistaken identity and that he was in Pittsburgh at the time of the Aug. 15 shooting and didn't return to the city until Aug. 19.

Judge Broccolino dismissed the alibi when Lt. Roy reported that Williams was arrested on another complaint on Aug. 17.

The shooting for which Williams was convicted occurred less than two hours after another bit of gunplay one half block away.

Charged in that case is Melvin (Little Melvin) Williams, a well known Avenue figure.

Accused of assault and shooting with intent to murder, he is scheduled to be tried Sept. 30.

Lt. Roy and Sgt. Robinson, who headed the dope investigation, also arrested "Little Melvin."

Violent deaths rock Baltimore on Labor Day

The Labor Day weekend proved to be another violent one, with a burst of deaths by homicide coming just before the big day.

Left dead Sunday evening were two men and a woman.

In a separate incident, the lifeless bodies of two youths were fished Sunday morning from Three Sister Lakes at Druid Hill Park, where they had been swimming.

IN WHAT police termed a "jealousy" shooting, Miss Shirley Robinson, 22, 4000 block Annellen Rd., died from a wound in the head at Sinai Hospital Sunday night.

She had been shot about 8:30 p.m. Thursday.

Northwestern District police have charged a man who lived two doors away on the same block, Roy Roscoe, 25, with the shooting.

In the Western District, 40-year-old Willie Clinton Jr., 1000 block N. Fulton Ave., was dead on arrival of a knife wound at Provident Hospital at 6:15 p.m., also on Sunday.

Police said Mr. Clinton was stabbed in the right side of his head during an altercation at Lanvale and Gilmor Sts.

Charged was John W. Harris, 24, 2600 Ridgely St.

AT THE same time in the Eastern District, a 65-year-old man was pronounced dead, after the robbery of Rice's Bakery in the 800 block of N. Gay St.

Albert Sevick, 2400 block E. Biddle St., died at 6:15 p.m. Police were holding a 37-year-old man for investigation.

The victims of the drownings were identified by police as Danny Ross, 11, 2500 block Boarman Ave., and Eugene Watson, 15, 4400 block Pall Mall Rd.

The younger boy was pulled out of the water by the Baltimore County Rescue Unit and pronounced dead at 9:20 a.m.

His body discovered later, young Watson was pronounced dead at 11 a.m. by the morgue wagon crew.

Parks urges unity in Sickles blast

"Tuesday will mark the most important election in the history of the city.

Fourth District City Councilman Henry G. Parks Jr. issued this appraisal today of the Tuesday Primary Election while calling for solidarity among voters of the Fourth District.

Mr. Parks, an executive of the Fourth District Democratic Organization, called on all community leaders of his district to join him in "preserving this organization from destroyers from the outside."

The councilman announced he will address personal requests to religious, business, educational and community leaders, urging them to show unity at the polls Tuesday.

"The Fourth District Organization is the only effective political tool with which our voters can achieve greater political representation. It must be preserved at all costs," the councilman declared.

He has charged Senators Joseph Tydings, Daniel Brewster and Rep. Carlton R. Sickles with heading a "conspiracy designed to destroy the Fourth District Democratic Organization."

Mr. Sickles, with the blessings of Senators Tydings and Brewster, is seeking the Democratic nomination for Governor. His Fourth District faction is headed by Delegate Clarence Mitchell, who is running for one of two district Senate seats.

Mr. Sickles' chief opponent is Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Finan, who has the support of the Fourth District Or-

CLARENCE M. MITCHELL, III SUPPORTS AND ENDORSES
PHILIP H. GOODMAN
FOR CONGRESS, 7th DISTRICT
Clarence M. Mitchell III, candidate for the State Senate from the Fourth Legislative District and the entire Sickles Action Team from that District today endorsed Philip H. Goodman for Congress from the Seventh Congressional District of Maryland. Delegate Mitchell stated that this endorsement was another step toward new leadership on all levels of Government in Maryland. He praised Mr. Goodman's record as former Mayor of Baltimore City and in other State and City offices, and particularly Mr. Goodman's courageous and progressive actions toward resolution of the problems that confront our City, State and nation. He further stated that Mr. Goodman had acted as City Campaign manager for the campaigns of Presidents Kennedy and Johnson and Senator Joseph Tydings, and that in the tradition of these great leaders, he would infuse new blood and action in Congress, if elected.
The Mitchell ticket is avowed to be independent and unbossed, and to give this type of leadership on Maryland. They are supporting Mr. Goodman's candidacy for Congress because, he, too, has proven to be independent, and is training his campaign for Congress free from the control of "bosses" of all kinds.
