Come see Tecumseh

Tecumseh is probably the most famous Indian this side of Sitting Bull. His reservation, in case you didn't know it, is the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis.

There is so much for the whole family to see and enjoy in this colorful old town. You can delve into history or take a sail on the serene Severn. Walk the picturesque docks or stand before John Paul Jones' crypt. Explore the State House, oldest state capitol still in use, or the graceful old mansions of another age. Name your pleasure . . . and Annapolis has it!

There are many delightful places to stay in and around Annapolis, but be sure to call ahead for reservations. After 8 p.m. weekdays and all day Sundays, you can make a three-minute station call to any place in Maryland for only 40 cents or less.

This summer, come to Annapolis—for a weekend or vacation. And be sure to bring your camera. Chances are, you'll want to take Annapolis back with you.

5 Cherry Hill groups say McKeldin is double-dealing

Five of Cherry Hill's leading organizations have issued a call to political candidates running in the community and to all citizens there to join hands in a consolidated fight to get what they want done in the area.

They're through with Mayor McKeldin, they state.

In a 3 - page letter, they branded the Mayor's statement after his incinerator inspection tour last week as double - dealing.

They suggest that Mayor McKeldin told the 50 citizens on the tour one thing and then when a group of five went to him a few days la later, told them something else.

After the tour Mayor McKeldin announced his support of the Benton plan, placing the new incinerator in Patapsco Flats.

THE LETTER also resented the fact that instead of being concerned only with what is best for Cherry Hill, the Mayor stopped to question, "which group does represent Cherry Hill."

All this, inspite of the fact that Cherry Hill voters last time helped him landslide into office, the letter notes.

Summing up, the organizations warned Cherry Hill residents that political forces are at work of:

(1) keep the incinerator where it is, in Cherry Hill

(2) to use every underhand device to divide the citizens against each other.

Translating the Mayor's "double - deal" as the age-old, and historic maneuver used "to divide and conquer," they urge immediate unity of all Cherry Hill to stave off the effort.

"Everything else must be secondary to accomplish this aim, the letter states, adding, "We must provide for our children and our children's children a monument to commemorate the struggle of poor people to have beauty, recreation, life in healty surroundings."

The letter ends with the aim, "A place unspoiled by flies, rats, stench, roaches, weeds, soot and dump fallout — nuisances we have suffered long enough."

• • •

SIGNING the letter for the five organizations were the presidents, Clarence Jones, The La Rue Square Improvement Association;

Mrs. Ruth E. Wilson, the Civic Organization;

William H. Murphy Jr., INCITE (Interested Citizens for Equality);

LaRoy Dyson, The Harborview Neighbors Society;

Mrs. Madeline W. Murphy, director of the Cherry Hill Community Church's Community Services Department.

INCITE, it is noted in the letter, has been able to get the following changes in three months: All open-fire burning and private dumping has been halted. Raw garbage dumped formerly on the roadsides has been stopped: Insect and weed control has been put into effect.

Promises given them include a filled - in park and an alternate site away from Cherry Hill for the new incinerator, the content.

• • •

ACCORDING to Mrs. Sarah J. Bundy, president of the Cherry Hill Coordinating Council, the 200 - member group of 30 organizations started 20 years ago, their group met with the Mayor on Sept. 1.

Mrs. Bundy told the AFRO Mayor McKeldin promised to back up Charles Benton's plan for (1) a park (2) Locate the new incinerator on Patapsco Flat a mile from Cherry Hill (3) reroute garbage trucks away from Cherry Hill to go down Hanover St. to the incinerator.

Present at the meeting were Shepard Burge, executive secretary; Jim David, director of voter registration; Robert H. Richardson, member of the 6th District Democratic Association; and Mrs. Myrtle Burge.

Steve Lawrence, Eydie Gorme here Sept. 12

By ADAH K. JENKINS

Singing mates Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme are returning to Baltimore on Sept. 12, at 8 p.m. in a special "one-night" performance at Painters Mill Fair.

Again, it's for PAVLA (Papal Volunteers for Latin America), with the entire proceeds for their performance going towards the support of this non-profit organization that sends professional men and women to impoverished areas of Latin America.

Appearing with Steve and Eydie, will be Pat Henry, one of the funniest new talents to appear on the comedy scene and a 27-piece orchestra.

THE MAGNETISM and talent of Columbia Records' Steve Lawrence has been responsible for his phenomenal and expanding career in show business. He also established himself a major theatrical personaliey when he created the role of Sammy in the hit musical "What Makes Sammy Run?"

As a song stylist and performer Eydie Gorme has been hailed with glowing notices for her appearances on television, radio and in elegant supper clubs here and abroad.

Her best-selling albums include two in Spanish, a language in which she is quite fluent.

Pat Henry's initial entry into the show world was as a trumpet player (he still uses the horn in his act). When the trio in which he was playing found itself stranded in Donora, Pa., he became half owner of a bistro and began a prosperous two years as stellar comedian.

After successful experience in mid-west night clubs he returned to New York, emerging into the big-time in 1960.

PAVLA, WHICH was inaugurated in 1960 following Pope John XXIII's mission encyclical, is a national organization of the Roman Catholic Church. Lay volunteers, who are selected on the diocesan level, with a salary of $59 to $100 a month by the individual diocese, are assigned by the national office in Chicago to active projects already begun by Latin Americans.

Baltimore leads the country of 67 dioceses in the United States in its support of PAVLA.

Tickets for the "one night special" are priced at $10 and may be purchased at the Baltimore Colts Football Office, 600 N. Howard St. or The Catholic Center, 320 N. Cathedral St. For reservations call Don Kellett at 685-6400 or Msgr. Clare O'Dwyer at 727-77.

"My son's skin was rough, chapped...a neighbor told me how good pure 'Vaseline' Petroleum Jelly was. It didn't fail"
Mrs. Betty Washington, Chicago, Ill.
From a child's dry, chapped skin to the dry, ashy-gray condition that plagues grown-ups, 'Vaseline' Petroleum Jelly, applied as a continuous film, is the soothing answer. No other softener, no other skin cream, no skin lotion provides better moisture protection. Try it.

YW schedules 91 classes this fall

Ninety-one classes and special events for the whole family have been listed on the fall schedule of the Madison Avenue Branch Young Women's Christian Association, 1912 Madison Avenue. Registration week is September 22 through October 3 and activities begin the week of October 3.

Open house "Futurama", designed to "put the YW in your future", is scheduled for Thursday, September 22, from 7 to 9 p.m. with demonstrations, entertainment, exhibits, and refreshments.

The public is invited and registrations for fall activities will be accepted also.

• • •

AMONG THE offerings for adults is a Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Special featuring judo and bowling on Tuesday evenings, slimnastics on Wednesday night, Saturday afternoon dips, and Sunday hikes.

Among the adult evening activities listed are "You and the Discotheque" on Mondays, South American and ballroom dancing on Tuesdays, conversational French for beginners and students on Wednesdays, and millinery on Thursdays.

A class in sewing and knitting is offered on Monday evenings, driver training on Thursdays, and group or family bowling every fourth Friday night. Judo for men, women, and students will be taught on Tuesdays at 8 p.m. and slimnastics with exercises, use of massage belt, and bike action pedaling meets Wednesdays from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

• • •

A REAL ESTATE course, designed to open opportunities for full or part-time employment will be taught for 8 weeks beginning October 5. Call the YWCA office, NOrth 9-1881, for full details.

Also opening job opportunities is a class in salesmanship which will meet on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. for 8 weeks beginning October 12.

During the daytime the "Neighborhood Club" for women will meet on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon with varied activities and a nursery for pre-school youngsters. Charm and make-up, including tips on poise, posture, grooming and instructions in hair styling will be held on Wednesday mornings. Pinochle, bridge, and other group games are being offered on Wednesday mornings also.

Adult clubs sponsored by the YWCA are the Business and Professional Girls Club, the YW-Wives Club, a Senior Citizens' group and a Young Adult Club.

• • •

Y-TEEN CLUBS will resume in the fall and new members are invited to join. They include the Belles and Beaux, Deos, Pandoras, Pi Lambda Eta, and the Royal Teens, all of which meet at the branch.

There are also eighteen Y-Teen Clubs which meet in various schools throughout the city plus an Inter-Club Council made up of two representatives from each Y-Teen Club to coordinate activities and special city-wide events.

Teen-age girls and boys are offered, also, a variety of classes which include modern dance, Personality Plus, physical fitness and judo, tutoring in English, mathematics, and reading, as well as a course in "How To Pass Exams" which builds vocabulary, improves study habits and aids students in preparing for college, city, and state standard tests.

• • •

YWCA MEMBERSHIP of $1 yearly admits youths to "Canteen A Go-Go" which meets every Tuesday from 4 to 6 p.m. for cards, bowling, games, snacks, and dancing.

The City-wide Youth Forum will continue this fall under the sponsorship of the YWCA, YMCA, the Me-De-So Wives, and the Urban League. It is held the first Friday of each month at 4 p.m. and teens meet to discuss various topics of interest to their age group and hear a variety of speakers. First meeting is October 7.

Pre-teen activities at the branch include on Saturdays ballet classes for ages 5 through 12, jazz dancing, remedial reading for boys and girls on the elementary level, classes for boys and girls ages 6 to 12, and "Saturday Merry-go-round" with square dancing, bowling, trips, nature lore, games, arts and crafts for boys and girls ages 6 to 12.

• • •

AFTERNOON BALLET classes in several schools will begin October 3, as well as school jazz classes. Swimming for boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 12 will be taught on Saturday afternoons.

For the very young in school there are Y-Pixie groups which feature good grooming, gardening, cooking and serving, and special trips designed for cultural enrichment.

Registration may be made in person or by calling the Madison Avenue YWCA at NOrth 9-1881.

Head Start

Head Start, a pre-school anti-poverty project concluded the summer program in the state having received a total of $843,395 in federal funds.

A slight drop in enrollment from last year was noted in this summer's program of 5,228 children.

There were 32 sponsors in 1965 and 34 sponsors in the Head Start program this summer.

All but one Maryland County sponsored a pre-school program in 1965 and four counties did not participate in this year's program.

With youngsters coming from families which meet the national poverty criteria, the Head Start projects included complete medical examinations, social welfare for the child and family, field trips, and community involvement, among other activities.

The program, sponsored in Baltimore City and most of the counties, is under the authorization of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, Title I.
