Soft Whiskey. Is it just another slogan?

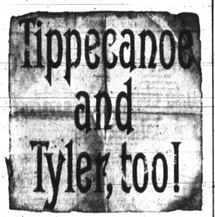
If that were true, we'd be in big trouble by now.

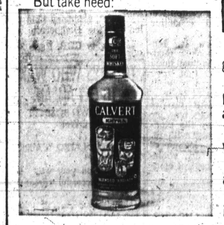
But it took more than some sharp talk on Madison Avenue to make Soft Whiskey soft.

It took time, money and thousands of experiments that failed miserably before we had it:

A whiskey that went down as easy as... well, Soft Whiskey.

But take heed:





That softness we're talking about goes just so far.

After that, Soft Whiskey is 86 proof. Doing what any other respectable 86 proof whiskey can do.

(It's just that getting there is a whole lot easier.)

Naming Soft Whiskey was almost as easy as swallowing it.

One sip and you could have done it yourself.

of Ninth St., NW. To most people, he was simply "Dark Gable."

Police said a resident at the Monroe St. apartment heard a scuffle in the hallway early Wednesday morning.

There was a shot, and Henighan was found in the hallway on the basement steps about 3:30 a.m. He was dead about two hours later at D.C. General Hospital.

The assailant escaped and as of presstime, police had no clue as to his identity. They had no possible motive.

"DARK GABLE," who lived alone, frequented night clubs along U St., NW, usually going from table to table to take pictures.

But his calling card — which bears a picture of him in a turban — also advertised his availability for weddings, parties, and other photographic services.

He had an working agreement with the Hollywood management, but he was allowed to solicit in the premises.

Henighan was also known to wear a fez and to sell wide brimmed, "plantation style" straw hats.

But, the free lancer's trade mark was his photography, which was known to be of high quality.

A woman who preferred anonymity added that he was well liked by many among the nightclub set, but some others resented his attitude at times.

Reflecting on his work, the woman said "he made money when nobody else did.

Wilner named to Giant Food directorship

WASHINGTON

Giant Food Inc. has announced the appointment of Morton H. Wilner to the board of directors of Giant Food Inc. Mr. Wilner was elected at the board's annual meeting on September 14.

Mr. Wilner is senior partner in th law firm of Wilner and Bergson. He is general counsel fo the Aerospace Industries Association and the Armed Forces Relief and Benefit Association. He is a director of the Security Bank, Bruce Hunt, Inc., and Joseph A. Wilner and Co.

Mr. Wilner attended Central High School and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania as first honor man in 1930. He is now a trustee of that University.

He received his law degree from Georgetown in 1934. During World War II Mr. Wilner served with the Army Air Corps, which awarded him the legion of Merit. In 1945 he was appointed deputy director of the Aircraft Division, War Production Board.

HIS PLOT at Memorial Park is still empty, Spencer said.

"I'll have her exhumed and placed over there," he said. But he said he anticipated the cemetery would appeal the ruling to the Supreme Court.

The court dismissed arguments by the cemetery that Spencer was free to choose a burial place for his mother "among his own kind."

"WHEN THE law recognizes the philosophy represented by 'his own kind', we are only a step away from adopting the racist philosophy which World War II was fought to eliminate," wrote Judge Stewart E. Newblatt of the Genesee County Circuit Court.

Chief Appeals Judge T. John Lesinski, upholding Newblatt's ruling, cited U.S. Supreme Court Rulings that courts cannot enforce private contracts that deny equal protection of the laws under the 14th Amendment.

"In a sense, it seems highly grotesque to spend such time and legal effort in considering the rights of dead souless bodies when we have not as a society yet secured full rights for the living," Newblatt said.

MIAMI — MRS. M. ATHALIE RANGE, Miami city commissioner, was recently rprsented an award for her part in raising money for Variety Children's Hospital, by P. William Burke, president of the institution. She received the hospital's highest public service citation at a community award dinner held at the Deauville Hotel.

When his mother died, Spencer said, he tried to bury her at Memorial Park.

"They refused," he said. The case went to court and Spencer buried his mother at an all-colored cemetery in Flint.

FBI probing blasts near all-tan homes

MCFARLAND, N.C. (UPI) — The investigation of three explosions near two rural colored homes continued Tuesday but local and federal agents reported no arrests.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents from Charlotte said evidence gathered at the scene of the blasts was being sent to Washington, D. C. for study at the FBI crime laboratory. However, they would not indicate the nature of their preliminary findings.

DAVID KESLER, an agent with the Charlotte Bureau, said about 16 persons were in the two homes when the bombs went off. The explosions occured Monday afternoon. There were no injuries.

The FBI agent said one of the bombs went off under the rear of a car owned by Ellis Broadie. Damage to the car was estimated at $300 with an additional $30 damage to the house.

Ellis Broadie is a sharecropper who lives only a few feet from the South Carolina line, just south of this Anson County community.

Kesler said two of Broadie's children are enrolled in the Morven School, a recently integrated facility in Anson County.

THE FBI agent said the other explosion occurred at the home of Thomas Liles, whose son was transferred to the integrated school from an all-colored school. Liles has 17 children, seven who were home when the explosion shattered windows at the house.

Kesler said he believes the explosives were thrown from cars passing the Broadie and Liles homes.

S.C. Demo says Nixon, LBJ alike on race issue

COLUMBIA, S.C. (UPI) — Democratic Congressional candidate Fred Leclercq said Tuesday a national Republican figure the GOP is bringing to South Carolina for a speaking appearance holds views on race relations similar to those of President Johnson.

Leclercq noted that the State GOP has former Vice President Richard M. Nixon scheduled to address a Republican fund-raising dinner in Columbia soon.

"If Mr. Nixon were President, the South Carolina Republicans would be trying to disassociate themselves from him," he said. "He is in the mainstream of Republican politics in the United States."

NIXON'S VIEWS on race relations are similar to the President's Leclercq said, and the federal school desegregation guidelines "are the biggest issue the Republicans are running on" in the State.

The Democratic candidate said South Carolina Republicans "are perpetrating a fraud on the people of this State when they say the Goldwater Party is still alive."

Leclercq, who is seeking to unseat Republican Rep. Albert Watson, said the State's public school system is being jeopardized by a private school movement founded partly on fears of desegregation.

"If the persons who can afford private schools withdraw their children from the public schools, this will deprive the public schools of the culturally advantaged children who have so much to offers their schoolmates," he said.

"BUT THE culturally advantaged children will also suffer because they will be cut off from the larger society of which we are all a part," he said.

Leclercq also said most of the new private schools do not offer quality education. He said the public school system must be preserved because it has done much for "The development of a Democratic Society" in South Carolina.

Congressmen ask U.S. forces for Grenada

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Thirteen House Democrats and one Republican demanded Tuesday that federal marshals be snt to Grenada, Miss., to protect colored school children trying to attend previously all-white schools.

The members said in a telegram to the Attorney General that local officials appeared "unwilling and unable to keep law and order" and they were "shocked" by reports of violence against children.

They said in addition to sending marshals, the Federal Government should seek indictments against citizens and officials who took part in the violence.

Mrs. Stansbury loses House bid in Harford

Mrs. Mildred Stansbury, Harford County, first Havre de Grace City Councilman, lost her bid for a seat in the House of Delegates by only 155 votes.

She polled 3,500 votes. Nominated were Dale Hess, William Cox, William Green, and William Osborn.

Although she is proud of her showing in the county, Mrs. Stansbury said she was not pleased at the vote she received at her home town Havre de Grace.

She felt she lost because of her initiation of the program to get rid of slum housing in Havre de Grace.

The new Mayor, she added, fought against her because of her involvement in getting low income housing.

"I HAVE been very active in Harford County affairs as well as the community of Havre de Grace and felt I was ready at this time to serve the people of Harford County she stated.

"The voters are the ones who decide who would be their leaders for the next four years. I feel I really did not lose in one way of thinking.

"I did have some volunteer help and have spent about $550 in my campaign."
