Turkey on your table

Turkey — on your table. Turkey is a good-to-eat, nutritious old American favorite. And this fall, prices are expected to be moderate because of the bumper-size 1966 turkey crop.

September marketings, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service, are expected to be about 6 per cent more than in September 1965. This reflects the record breaking 115.8-million bird crop produced this year, 11 per cent greater than the huge 104.7-million bird crop of 1965.

* * *

NOWADAYS, THE most popular turkey breeds are the Bronze and the Beltsville Whites, a breed developed by USDA's experimental station at Beltsville, Md. For the convenience-minded American homemaker, turkeys are usually marketed in ready-to-cook form, chilled or frozen. Most are sold whole, but halves, quarters, and pieces are also readily available, as are also handy boneless roasts and rolls.

* * *

ANY NUMBER of other processed turkey products for quick and easy use also attract the food shopper: heat-and-serve turkey dinners, turkey pies, turkey roasts, canned turkey, turkey soups and turkey combination dishes, among others.

Surprise your family with this hearty, tasty turkey chowder, a good, meal-in-one dish to serve as a luncheon feature or Saturday night supper.

This recipe requires 1½ cups chopped roasted turkey, 1 large onion, sliced, ½ cup sliced celery, 2 tblsps. butter, 2 cups pared potato cubes, 10 ounce pkg. frozen lima beans, 1 cup hot water,

Also 1 lb. can stewed tomatoes, 10½ ounce can condensed cream of chicken soup, 2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese, ¼ tsp. garlic salt, and ¼ tsp. pepper.

Lightly brown onion and celery in melted butter in a large skillet. Add potato cubes, lima beans and water. Cover and cook 15 to 20 minutes or until vegetables are done. Add remaining ingredients and simmer for 45 minutes to 1 hour. Serve hot.

A&P — A BARGAIN... A REAL VALUE IS NOT A MATTER OF PRICE ALONE!

It's what you get for what you pay.

The house dress or shift at $1.98 is no bargain if the seams pop the first time you wear it or it shrinks inches the first time you wash it.

A cheap product just for the sake of low price is no bargain. A quality product at a low price, that's a bargain...that's a real value...that's our A&P Brands.

More than a century ago we decided our own brands would be our finest values. They are...and we're proud of it. So proud...so sure, we unconditionally guarantee your full satisfaction.

Are A&P Brands a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.
