Clipper defense tests high-scoring Sailors

WILMINGTON, Del.—The hihgest scoring pro football team in the country will get its most difficult test of the season tomorrow (Saturday) night when the unbeaten Virginia Sailors tangle with the upset-minded Wilmington Clippers, here.

Virginia, averaging 47.7 points a contest, leads the Southern Division of the 10-team Atlantic Coast Football League with a 4-0 record.

THE SAILORS have been known as defensive terrors, but they gave up 28 points last Saturday in crushing second place Harrisburg 48-28. When all the globe are healthy, it can be tough to move the ball on them.

The Clippers have a pair of their own in Ray Lairgani (6-3, 280, Miami) and Bill Conaty (6-4, 260 South Carolina) but pound for pound the most fierce Wilmington defender could be linebacker Bob Burton (6-1, 210) whom the Sailors traded to their ACFL rivals this past winter.

Wake Robins continue meets

The 30th annual Wake Robin Championship Tournament goes into its second weekend, with six prominent members leading the women's championship flight.

Ethel Funches, Elizabeth McNeal, Alma Arvin, Amelia Lucas, Frances Mays, and Bessie Yates lead in the tourney at Langston, which will last all of September.

Other Wake Robin members including the most recent to join, Nellie Briscoe and Dorothy Northington — are competing in three other flights.

• • •

IN THE Senior Handicap Tourney, last weekend, Samuel H. Jackson, of Virginia, won the ages 50-54 title with a 69. Second went to Washingtons Dave Brown, who totalled 71.

In the ages 55-up group, Homer Starks, of Philadelphia, won with 67. Tied for second were LaJoie Cooper and Aler Jackson, both of Virginia, with 71.

Miss Yates is the tounament director, assisted by Florence Coleman, EGA tournament director Tim Thomas, and Paris Brown, who acted as advisor. Gertrude Suber presided over last weeks meeting to iron out the details.

JAMAICA PRIZE — Marie Murphy displays handsome trophy that came with winning second flight women's flight in recent International Golf at Jamaica, BWI. Mrs. Murphy was one of four Baltimoreans capturing prizes put up by Pepsi Cola. Others were Vernon Terry, men's champion; Marguerite Brown, women's first flight, and Floyd Jones, men's first flight.

N.C. lifts beauty instruction ban

ASHEBORO, N.C. (UPI) — North Carolina's public schools were freed Wednesday of a restraining order which had barred them from teaching beauty culture courses.

Judge William Johnston J. dissolved the order invoked recently at the request of Elizabeth Hansen and Kay Ricker the owners of Concord Beauty College, thereby permitting public schools to resume Cosmotology classes pending the outcome of the plantiffs' suit in Cabarrus County Superior Court. The suit charges that the public school courses are in direct competition with private enterprise.

Mays, rookie top athletes in August

NEW YORK (UPI)—Willie Mays of the San Francisco Gians, and rookie Jim Nash of the Kansas City Athletics, have been announced as winners of the Van Heusen outstanding achievement award in major league baseball for August.

Mays, who hit his 535th homer to become the top right-handed home run slugger in history, won the award for the National League in the poll of sportswriters.

Nash who joined the A's on July 3, won five consecutive games during August to run his record to 9-1.

Clay appeal back at Justice Dept.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) —Special Judge Lawrence S. Grauman, who heard heavyweight champion Cassius Clay's appeal to be deferred from the draft as a conscientious objector last month has sent his recommendations in the case to the department of Justice at Washington.

Grauman did not reveal the nature of his recommendations in the case.

The Justice Department will make its recommendations to the Kentucky appeals board, which will make the final ruling on Clay's status.

• • •

CLAY'S ATTORNEY, Hayden Covington, of New York, asked last month that Clay be deferred on the ground that he is a black Muslim minister. He requested a classification change from 1-A to 4-D, the ministerial deferment.

Clay was reclassified from 1-Y to 1-A in February after twice failing the Army's mental tests.

The loquacious Clay created a furor earlier this year when he said, "I ain't got no quarrel with them Viet Congs" and his title bout with George Chuvalo was forced to be held in Canada.

COVINGTON SAID Clay should have based his appeal on a ministerial deferment from the first.

In recent months Clay has defended his title three times—twice in England and last Saturday in Frankfurt, West Germany. He had his local draft board's permission to leave the country for the bouts.

Justice suit hits restaurant

WASHINGTON—The Department of Justice brought suit today end racial discrimination by a restaurant in the Gulf Coast resort area in Biloxi, Miss.

Attorney General Nicholas deB. Katzenbach said the suit was filed in United States District Court in Stevens, owner of Gus Stevens Restaurant.

The suit alleged that the defendant has refused to serve colored people on the same basis as whites in the bar and lounge areas of the restaurant. It asked for a court order prohibiting such discrimination.
