He is also an Evening Division counselor at Baltimore Junior College.

He is married to the former Miss Plinie Staton and is father of three children, William, 14; Rae, 12, students at Catonsville Junior School, and Dion, 7, a student at Westowne Elementary School.

Sen. Welcome

istration's program into law. On this basis his contribution to the Congress and the nation is beyond question.

He has served the party and the people eminently. And beside such service everything else is minuscule. He has earned the chairmanship of the Labor and Education Committee. Therefore, my constituents and I protest der the chairmanship meanvehemently attempts to remove the chairmanship meaningless solely for the sake of punishing Congressman Powell.

SEN. WELCOME'S sentiments were also echoed by the United Presbyterian Church Commission on Race and Religion which called the action "blatant racism."

In Wednesday telegrams to President Johnson, Congressional leaders and Mr. Powell, the church's Commission on Religion and Race declared:

"Our commission is strongly convinced that any attempt at this time to alter the structure of one single committee of Congress, or to limit the present prerogatives of its current chairman, apart from an overall change in the total committee structure, can only be interpreted as blatant racism.

"In light of the recent tragic failure of the Senate to pass the Civil Rights Bill and the current attack in the House on the school desegregation guidelines, the present attack on Congressman Adam Clayton Powell can only further undermine the faith of colored Americans in the legislative process and give encouragement to some of the worst elements of American life."

23rd ANNIVERSARY AND MEMORIAL SERVICES
BLIND ASSOCIATION INC. of Baltimore
NEW METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH
McCulloh and Mosher Sts.
Friday, September 30, 7:30 p.m.
The Blind Association was organized on September 3 by Mrs. Anna Mae Hunter at her former residence, 1714 McCulloh St. and named by the late Frank Jobes. The group was incorporated by Lawyer Frank Knox in August, 1951.
An abundance of talent was discovered among the group of 32 members. We formed a choral ensemble. Several members were capable of doing solo work and dramatic readings. They were also able to perform creditably on instruments such as cornet, guitar, violin, harmonica, organ, piano and accordion. Among the group, we are proud to have a quartette, trio nd duet.
We have traveled in, around and out of Baltimore giving recitals for churches and fraternal organizations. This group being charitable in both its civic and social activities makes yearly visits to the School for the Blind, Veteran's hospitals and mental institutions. Gifts such as clothing, fruits, candies, magazine and other literature spreading sunshine has been taken.
Mrs. Hunter served as our first president and is now entering her 23rd year as Business Manager She was succeeded by Alphonso Butler who served for 4 years; the late Frank Jobes who presided for nine years; Elinora Smith, for 2 years; Frank Andrews for 2 years and Charles Russell for 3 years. Miss Helen Thornton is completing her first year.
