MRS. J. LOGAN JENKINS is home, this week, from one of her many sojourns. Her most recent trip was to the Catskill Mountains, New York, where she was guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Chavis at their summer home there. Mr. Chavis is post master in Long Eddy, N. Y. Home for a few days, she garnered Mrs. Mollie Stratley of Washington, and the two went on a tour of New England states. With her too, was her niece, Mrs. Frederick T. Watts of Washington.

They stopped in Boston where they were house guests and honorees at a dinner party of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Burwell.

When the Women's Civic League went a-house-and garden touring, Sunday ago, they also visited the beautiful place of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spriggs in Morgan Park.

The Master Beauticians will hold their 33rd Anniversary celebration at their Madison Avenue Center on the 26th. The organization is currently headed by Mrs. Blanche White. Mrs. Grace Terry is chairman of the celebration.

Mrs. Beatrice Figgs was hostess to her sister, Mrs. Bessie Flippen of Burlington, N.J., during the summer.

The two were entertained by Mrs. Flippen's sons, W. C. Flippen of Washington and Roscoe Flippen of Hyattesville, Md.

Hope School moves

MISS IRIS E. KNIGHT

Two receptions after Priest-Payton ritual

Following the wedding and reception of Miss Sudie Mae M. Payton and Roy Otis Priest in Kinston, N.C., the wedding party motored here for a second reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. James A. Priest.

Miss Payton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley N. Payton Jr., and Mr. Priest were married in St. Augustine's Episcopal Church, Kinston. The double - ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph Banks.

• • •

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor - length gown of silk faced peau-de-soie re-embroidered with Alencon lace and seed pearls.

The chapel train was attached at the back with a lace bow and trimmed in lace and seed pearls.

The waist - length veil of illusion was attached to a crown of Alencon lace and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book, topped with a yellow throated orchid.

The bride's mother wore an aqua two - piece dress, the top of lace. The mother of the bridegroom chose a lace dress of beige with a sheer coat in the same shade.

• • •

MRS. ROLAND HANDY OF Baltimore was matron of honor and Sherecee Payton of Kinston, sister of the bride, was junior maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Misses Marsha Baker and Flossie Foxx of Baltimore, Linda Faison of New Bern, N.C.; Crystal Brooks of Washington, D.C.; Sylveria McWilliam, of New York City, Hilda Payton, of Ayden, N.C. and Mrs. William Brooks of Philadelphia, Pa.

Misses Pamela Beech and Yolanda Banks of Kinston were junior bridesmaids. Flower girls were Lolita Ruff of Columbia, S.C. and Mary Connor of Dover, Del.

• • •

DR. PRIEST served as best man for his son. Ushers were Emmerson Brown and Sherman Rogers of Washington, D.C., Ronald Goldsberg of East Lansing, Mich., Romon Wright and Gary Handy of Baltimore, Morris Rogers of Kittrell, N.C., Walter Talbot of Columbus, Ohio and Amos T. Mills of Greenville, N.C.

Harvey Beech Jr., of Kinston was a junior usher. Jame Priest Jr. was ring bearer.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents.

Following this reception the entire wedding party and relatives and friends traveled to Baltimore where the second reception was held.

The Baltimore reception was attended by 400 guests. The reception was not confined to their lovely and spacious home, but extended to the beautifully decorated patio, which duplicated the same catered service as inside.

• • •

THE newly - weds honeymooned in Jamaica, B.W.I. They will reside in Baltimore.

The bride is a graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro; and the bridegroom is a graduate of Central University, Wilberforce, Ohio.
