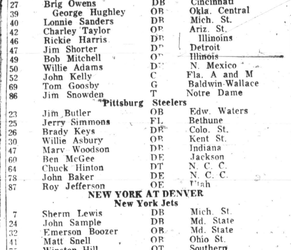
Goodwill game reset for Sat.

The Orioles management has announced the change of Goodwill Industries Children's Night to Saturday, Oct. 1 at 2 p.m., when the Baltimore Birds meet the Minnesota Twins.

Originally scheduled for Sept. 14 against the Angels, the game was rained out.

Free tickets for the October 1 game are still available if boys and girls, 16 and under, will furnish Goodwill Industries with a bag of usable clothing, a repairable electrical appliance or wheel toy.

Tickets issued for the Sept. 14 game will be honored on Oct. 1.



Introducing two of the most radical changes in Volkswagen history. Can you spot them?

Did you notice that the headlights are vertical now instead of leaning back a bit? That doesn't make the car look any better. But it makes the road look better by making the lights a little brighter.

And that little hump in the back? We did that to hold the license plate up straight so the police can read it better. (Sorry.)

What you won't notice without driving the new model are the big improvements.

The engine has been enlarged to a ferocious 53 horsepower. That only adds 3 m.p.h. to the top speed. Because we put most of the additional power where it would make the engine accelerate faster, turn slower and last even longer.

Now that the VW is getting to be such a hot car, we put in a couple of things to slow it down. Dual brakes.

The front wheel brakes are completely independent of the rear wheel brakes. So if you ever lost the front wheel brakes, you could still stop (the back of the car. (Which automatically stops the front of the car too.)

The new VW also has seat belts, backup lights and recessed door handles as standard equipment. In fact, this year we made so many changes on the Volkswagen that we thought we'd better make one more.

We wrote "Volkswagen" on the back of the car to be sure everybody would know what it was.

Irish colt gets Laurel 'raincheck'

LAUREL, Md. — Prominent 4-year-old Irish colt, who was a top favorite for the 1965 English Derby until sidelined by illness, this week became the first horse in the field for the 15th running of the Washington, D.C. International at Laurel Race Course.

John D. Schapiro, Laurel president, announced the acceptance by Prominer's owner, J. R. (Jim) Mullion, wealthy Irish shipping magnate who races the famous Ragusa, 1963 Irish Sweeps Derby winner. Prominer, improving consistently this year, is trained by tre noted Irish conditioner P. J. (Paddy) Predergast.

The $150,000 International, now deadlocked at seven winners for the United States and seven for the overseas horses, will be run over one and one-half miles Nov. 11 on the Laurel grass course.

See the spirit of '66!
See Frank Robinson and the Orioles' other big bats at the stadium!

Patterson reports theft in London

Police said the rings apparently were taken late Tuesday afternoon while Patterson was getting ready for his fight with British and empire heavyweight champion Henry Cooper.

Tempo increases as MSA teams gird for openers

Maryland Scholastic Association football teams stepped up their tempo this week as time neared for the opening whistle in the conference.

Following yesterday's (Thursday) clash between Mervo and an optimistic Southern eleven, six contests are on tap for this afternoon (Friday) and one for tonight.

• • •

TWO OF the local schoolboy aggregations will entertain tough foes from Washington.

Carver, under coach Charlie Robinson, will take on Chamberlain, and Douglass will play host to the rugged Eastern High squad.

• • •

IN THE case of the former, the Cubs would not normally encounter trouble with a so - so Chamberlain eleven. But Robinson is in the midst of a huge rebuilding process, and admittedly does not know his starters from his reserves as yet.

Little need be said of the problem confronting coach Roy Cragway and his Ducks. Eastern is perennially among the top scholastic elevens in Washington, and last week the Ramblers spotted a good Edmondson team six points and won going away.

• • •

DEFENDING CHAMPION City holds the stage at Kirk Field, taking on a classy De-Matha High outfit from Hyattsville.

Edmondson returns home after her visit to the Capital City, to await the arrival of coach Archie Lewis and his 1966 Poets from Dunbar.

In other games of the busy schedule, Patterson Park plays host to Archbishop Curley, Forest Park entertains Northern, and Poly goes against Bel Air at Bel Air tonight. . .LACY.

But dear to our memory you ever will be.

Loving Wife—MAUDE and CHILDREN.

In Memoriams

BARNO — In loving memory of our loved one JAMES BARNO, who passed away September 22, 1965:

I shall remember thee.

MORRISON FAMILY

BOLLING — in loving memory of our dear mother, HATTIE BOLLING, who passed away ten years ago, September 23, 1956:

Ten years have passed
Since that sad day
When the one we love most called away;

Within our hearts she lives still.

Loving Children,
FRANCES HILL,
ESTELLA BOLLING

BOND — In loving memory of my dear husband, HARRY H. BOND, who passed away September 28, 1963:

A life linked with my own!
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.

Loving Wife — MABEL.

BROWN — In loving memory of our dear son, BERNETTA BROWN, who passed away September 22, 1965:

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more;
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.

THE FAMILY

DAVIS — In loving memory of VICTORIA DAVIS who departed this life September 23, 1956:

GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.

JOSEPH DAVIS

FURMAN — In loving memory of my dear husband WILLIAM FURMAN who passed away September 17, 1965:

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past.
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

Wife, MAGNOLIA

GEE — In loving memory of my husband and our father, ALLEN C. who passed away September 26, 1963:

If we had seen you to the last
And held your gentle hand
And heard the last sigh from your heart,
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had,
We did not see you die
We only know you went far away
And never said goodby.

LOVING WIFE and CHILDREN

JACKSON — in loving memory of our mother and grandmother, AMELIA ANNIE, who passed away September 20, 1963:

Sad and sudden was the call,
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A sister give us a shock severe
It was to part with one so dear,
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best,
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.

LOVING CHILDREN

JACKSON — In loving memory of my husband DAVID, who passed away September 15, 1963:

You are not forgotten, mother dear,
Nor will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.

JONES — A tribute of love to the memory of my beloved husband, WILLIAM R. JONES, who passed away September 20, 1965:

Your gentle face and patient smile
With sadness I recall,
You had a friendly word for each
And died beloved by all.
The pain is more and still the heart
That loved me well and true,
Ah! bitter was the trial to part,
From one so good as you.
You're not forgotten, dear husband,
Nor will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last,
I shall remember thee.
I miss you this day in September,
My heart is sore.
