

U. H. J. there, take the said oath. And whereas severall of the Lower Original. house have this Sessions rudely presumed to come before his L^p in his upper house with their hatts on, which his L^{spp} for dispatch of business and other reasons to himself best knowne had now dispensed with, he hoped their will be more modesty and better manners hereafter used, for that indeed his L^{spp} would not any longer endure the same.

And soe his L^{spp} prorogued the Assembly and the same is hereby prorogued unto the first Tuesday in Aprill Anno Dni 1685

John LLeuellin Clk of Assembly
