MR. AND MRS. ANDREW TURNER are among this week's newlyweds. Mrs. Turner is the former Miss Elsie Herring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright. Mr. Turner is the son of Mrs. Gladys Turner. All are of Baltimore.

Gadabouting In Baltimore:

Party after 15 years worth waiting for

With Lula Jones Garrett

"Twas my first party since my twin sister, Julia Fernandez, and I celebrated our birthdays 15 years ago . . . and really the first big party I had ever had alone. But I felt like having friends about."

"Twas Sarah F. Diggs speaking, and have many of her friends about she did. The guest list resembled those of old-day Baltimore when society was spelled with a capital S. . . and when, incidentally Mrs. Diggs was the chief society scribe on the Eastern Seaboard.

Flossie Dedmond summed the party up in a post party note to Mrs. Diggs. "The fellowship was inspiring, the luncheon delicious, I love the prize I won. You produced sunshine within when there was none without.

Mrs. Diggs, pretty as a picture in a multi-colored flowered frock and a chic red hat, held forth in Wilson's Saturday ago.

Guests came through a pouring rain to sip cocktails at noon, have luncheon at one, and play bridge and pinochle until past five.

A bevy of chic matrons and misses aided with hostess duties. Althea Cornish kept scores and presided over the games.- Anita Henson, Alverta Holmes and Irene Blay garnered the scores.

And such handsome prizes were in store for winners.

Elizabeth Jenkins and Ruth Johnson won first prizes at bridge and pinochle, respectively, and received both scales; Dr. Theresa Brown and Verniece Ryeholds were in second places, and their prizes are Steiff salt and peppers and a silver bon-bon dish.

Meribah Bell and Sallie Nicholas, third, took teak salad bowls with silver accessories. This went down the line for the entire 14 who won prizes, to say nothing of her score - keeping group, for whom she had beautiful necklaces.

Other winners of prizes were Ethel Day, Marie Frazier, Daisy Jones, Vernice Matthews, Alyce Young, Flossie Dedmond, Beatrice Hurt and Gladys Pinder-hughes of Washington.

Others of the 60 odd guests enjoying Mrs. Diggs' "party of the season' were:

Louise Pierce, Virginia Quivers of Washington, Edith Scott, Annie Smith, Gaynelle Spaulding, Hattie Tilghman, Alena Thomas, Dorothy Thompson, Hattie Tyler,

Mabel Waters, Virgie Waters, Annie Lyles, Ruth Lighston, Lillian Murphy, Sadie Murphy, Blanche McRae, Patricia Page, Laurie Parker,

Mary Proctor, Vivian Cook, Ethel Day, Addie Donnell, Mary Fernandez, Alma Harris, Genevieve Harris, Alice Hall, Ethel Hodges, Katie Hunter, Fannie Jenkins, Edna Johnson, Romaine Jones, Helen Adkins, Edna Brown, Rosa Bright, Pauline Bonds, Bernice Buckner, Naomi Camper, Emma Clark, Lelia Chandler, Mattie Casey, Bertha Cross, Jane Smith, Alice Wilson, Violet Whyte, Kate Shepperd of Myersdale, Pa.

GWENDOLYN SCOTT LEWIS became Mrs. Walter M. Roper, Friday, in a quiet ceremony performed by a close friend, and witnessed by two equally close friends. Charles and Helen King picked the couple up. . . the foursome drove out to the Morgan Park home of Dr. Richard I. McKinney, where he officiated.

Later the newlyweds drove to Washington, where they joined his niece and her new husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Cypress (Patricia Beams) at their wedding reception, in Calvary Episcopal Church.

For her marriage, Gwen wore one of her crocheted originals in winter white, a matching pill box and pink accessories.

A graduate of Hampton Institute, an AKA and a Girl Friend, the new Mrs. Roper is a pioneer and an expert in family life education. She is on the faculty of the Granville T. Wood School where she is conducting an experimental course with seventh and eighth graders.

Mr. Roper, a vocalist, and formerly a member of "The Virginians," is also a Board of Education Employee.

MR. AND MRS. JOE LEE (he's of the Crownsville Hospital staff) and their children will be enjoying the beauties of California as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Maury Wills (short-stop and captain of the Los Angeles Dodgers) on an expenses-paid vacation, courtesy of Mr. Wills. The invitation was extended by Mr. Wills, here, for the championship series game, Sunday.

The trip is an appreciation gesture. It seems that when the famed player graduated from high school in Washington, and won both a scholarship to college and a bid from professional baseball, it was Mr. Lee who pointed out the financial benefits of the latter. The wisdom of Mr. Lee's advice has not been forgotten by the $100,000 per year Dodger star.

MERCEDES DOUGLASS gathered the Pierians for a cozy session on Saturday night. Under the presiding of Charlotte Mebane, the group scanned a new constitution, discussed memberships, heard of the up-coming program.

Coming up for this art group are a Christmas concert at Brown Memorial Church, here; a White House date in Washington, a theatre-concert fling in New York and a dinner closing party.

Also in the offing are two travelogues.

Dr. and Mrs. G. James Fleming will talk of their sojourn in Africa, and Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Higgins will tell of their round - the world trek.

IT WAS a gay group of We Wives that journeyed to D.C. on Saturday. . . despite the World Series in Baltimore. . . to be entertained by Josephine Brown and Agnes Reaves at the Gramacy Inn, downtown.

The Orioles cooperated with the We Wives. . .in that by 3 p.m. when the group reached Washington, the game was all over. . .Adelle Foreman. . . made the game and club meeting.

Jo Brown the new president, held a brief business meeting. . .handing out new club booklets containing meeting dates, birthdays etc.

Agnes' nephew is Maitre'd so the group really got red carpet treatment. . .from the

A la Carte service to the Tender Loving care of the waiter who anticipated every

WHEN IDA SWANSON and Odelle Rea hosted the VAG'S at a recent meeting, the business was centered around their annual luncheon and fashion show.

The group is quite active in civic and charitable work in the city. They continue to serve the community in the spirit of their namesake, the late Mrs. Vivian Garth Alleyne.

This year the VAG'S will have their "affair on Saturday, November 19, at noon in the Emerson Hotel. Winter and holiday fashions will be modeled by Hutzler Brothers. It is primarily from the proceeds of this project that the group receives its funds for its worthwhile work.

Present at the planning meeting were: Gladys Knox, Alberta Simms, Edna Walker, Ruth Brown, Fannie Lane, Frances Bibbs, and Ruth Murray.

FRIDAY EVENING the GABS (Girls About Baltimore) held its monthly meeting at the beautiful Powhatan Avenue home of Mrs. Barbara Dungee, president of the club. Plans were made for fall and winter activities which includes a fund-raising project, a tour of historical spots in Maryland, a theater party, and Christmas charity and social activities.

Two new members were welcomed. They were Mesdames Vivian Madison and Brenda Johnson. Other members of the Gabs are Mesdames Barbara Dungee, Ruth Croxton, Janice Tribble, Lynda Dobson, Frankie Saunders and Lorraine Coleman.

PEREGRINATORS: Sparking the local scene. . .Vivienne Carey of Washington and Charles Rice also of the capital were house guests of Susie Clark. Came over for the Series.

Guess Who The Boss Is At Your A&P

It's you!
Think about it. It makes sense.
All of us from the President on down work for you.
Frankly, where would we be without you and the many people like you?
We know. We'd still be in that little store on Vesey Street where we started more than 100 years ago.
That's why you're important. That's why we care so much about how we serve you . . . about being fair, honest and dependable.
Is this kind of attitude a good reason for shopping A&P?
It's one of many.
