

Just and Due Obedience, In whose harts you will Rule, and Comānd, vpon all Just Occasions what shall be necessary, for the defence and support of the Dignity of This your Lops Government.

Original Journal.

Signed p Ord<sup>r</sup> An<sup>t</sup> Vnd<sup>r</sup>wood Cl Com<sup>rs</sup>

The sayd Committee alsoe p<sup>r</sup>sent to the house the following paper of Amendments, being the proceedings of the Committee In relaccon to the Lawes of this province: viz<sup>t</sup>

Amendmts
in the lawes,
Resolved on by the Committee for drawing the Address.

Munday Aprill the 14th 1684

p. 18

Att a Committee of both houses Appoynted for drawing vp an Address To the Right hono<sup>ble</sup> the Lord Prop<sup>ty</sup> Relateing to the Lawes of this Province.

Present of the vpp<sup>r</sup> house

Present of the Lower house

{ The Hono<sup>ble</sup> Coll W<sup>m</sup> Stevens }

{ The Hono<sup>ble</sup> Jn<sup>o</sup> Darnall Esq<sup>r</sup> }

{ M<sup>r</sup> Robert Carvile }

{ M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Burford }

{ M<sup>r</sup> Jn<sup>o</sup> Rousby }

Impr<sup>s</sup>

Resolved by this Committee th<sup>t</sup> it is very Expedient th<sup>t</sup> the Act provide[ing against] suddayn Accidents in the Government be amended.

2<sup>dly</sup> [Resolved] likewise th<sup>t</sup> the Act Touthing Judicature made An<sup>o</sup> 1646 be alsoe [amended] In regard of a Clause therein (Viz<sup>t</sup>) In defect of law the &c Is Condemned by an Other Act Entitled an Act Concerning proceedings at Law w<sup>ch</sup> sayes, Leaveing to much to discretion is to Open a Gapp to Corruption.

3<sup>dly</sup> Resolved the Act Touthing pagans, being found to bee Incerted into Other Lawes, Ought to bee repealed.

4<sup>thly</sup> Resolved th<sup>t</sup> the Act for punnishing Certayne Offences ag<sup>t</sup> the peace &c should be mended:

5<sup>thly</sup> Resolved th<sup>t</sup> the Act prohibiting the Exportaccōn & Sale of his Lōpps Ordnance, &c be Inspected in Order to Amendment.

6<sup>thly</sup> Resolved that the Act Touthing hoggs and markeing Cattle, although Incerted in his Lōps Booke for a perpetuall Law, Stands Repeald by an Act made Anno 1671:

7<sup>thly</sup> Resolved that the Act for Appoyntment of Certaine officers, is a Temporary Law, & therefore to be putt out of the perpetuall law booke.

8<sup>thly</sup> An Act for Imposing a penalty On all such as shall dispose of Tobacco Seized & received by the Sher. &c made An<sup>o</sup> 1664: That there is an Other Act made since (viz<sup>t</sup>) 1678: Doe thinke it meet th<sup>t</sup> the Latter Act being allwayes revived, to have it made perpetuall [and the] Other Repealed.