Cynthia Crosby, Jim Blackstone wed

Miss Cynthia Crosby and James Blackstone, Jr. were married in St. Phillips Lutheran Church, Saturday.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis B. Smith.

THE BRIDE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Crosby, was escorted by her father. She wore a dress of strada peau with pearl embroidered chapel train. Her tiered veil of silk illusion fell from a circlet of silk and pearl florets.

She carried a Bible with orchids.

Miss Patricia English was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Annamaina Blackstone, Miss Marcella Blackstone and Miss Sharon Butler.

They wore floor-length gowns of crepe and lace in colors of yellow and blue. They wore French-bowed hats, and carried yellow and white roses.

The flower girls were the bride's cousins Misses Kea, Kim and Kathy Crosby.

BEST MAN was E. Moses. The groomsmen were Dwight Johnson, Edward Gibson, and Reginall Blackstone.

The mother of bride wore a silver brocade dress with matching coat and accessories, which included an orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was stunning in beige lace, with matching accessories and orchid corsage.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES BLACKSTONE, JR.

THE CEREMONY was followed by the reception, which was held at Eastwind, in the Governor's Room. A buffet dinner, with wedding punch and champagne were served. The wedding party and guests were serenaded by the Jolly Jacks. The occasion's finale was a glowing touch, indeed. A toast in unison to the bride and bridegroom.

daughter Mrs. Elmer W. German Jr. were Mrs. Crezette King and her daughter, Mrs. Nathalia Ramsundar, formerly of Crockett, Texas, now of Washington. Mrs. King is dean of women at the D. C. Peters Business School. Mrs. Ramsundar is librarian at Sadie C. Lewis Elementary School. Baltimoreans will remember her as a student at Notre Dame College here, where she did undergraduate work. Her brother is Beasley Robert King, teacher of mathematics at Robeau Junior High, Washington.

At the University of Pennsylvania, this week and last, is S. Edward Smith who is conducting OEO classes.

Glimpsed at the Baltimore Symphony concert on Wednesday evening, Mrs. George Pendleton, Dr. and Mrs Adams, Howard H. Murphy. The latter three went on to the Belvedere - Hotel for the opening night reception.

THRILL TO THOROUGHBRED RACING FILMED IN COLOR!
PLAY "POST-TIME" WIN UP TO $1,000
TUNE IN WBAL-TV 11 SATURDAY EVENING AT 5

BIG VALU FOOD CENTERS

Thousands of Winners Already! Here,s Just a few!

It's easy to play! Here is all you do:

1. Pick up your "Post-Time" ticket each time you visit your Big Valu Food Center.
2. Watch WBAL-TV, Channel 11, each Saturday from 5 to 5:30 P.M.
3. After each race, watch your TV screen for the name of the winning horse and check this name with the name listed next to the Race. For example, in race #1 on your "Post-Time" ticket, if the name on your ticket is the same as that shown on the screen, you have a $2.00 winner. Follow the same procedure for each of the succeeding four races. If the name on your card matches the winner of the second race, you win $5.00, the third race winner pays $20.00, the fourth race winner pays $100.00 and the fifth race winner pays $1,000.00. The first place horse's name only is a winner. Second and third horses are not eligible for prizes. Winners posted at Big Valu each week. Adults only.
4. If you have a winner, circle the winner's name and take the ticket to your Big Valu Food Center by the first Wednesday after the telecast. Store Manager will arrange for prize payment.
5. New races, new tickets each week. Free ticket with every visit. Each week's tickets are printed in different colors and numbered for each week. Only tickets issued week prior to telecast are valid. No purchase required.
