Aggie game looms as 'must' for Banks

GREENSBORO, N. C. — "This, very definitely, is a must game for us — for me, anyway — and the second turning point of our season."

That is the way Morgan State College coach Earl Banks appraised the situation as he arrived here for tomorrow (Saturday's football game with A and T College.

* * *

"I CAN'T emphasize too strongly how important this one is, and how apprehensive I feel aabout it," Bank continued. "I'm sure the boys feel very much as I do, but it is a characteristic of the players to underestimate the opposition.

"I know. I was a player once, too.

"It isn't that they aren't determined to win. We've been assured of this all week at our meetings. But I just don't know.

* * *

"FOR ONE thing," the Bear mentor went on, "A and T is coming off a big win (56-0) against Winston-Salem. For another, it is their homecoming.

"The Winston-Salem affair, after having scored only 6 points against Maryland State the previous Saturday, has to give A and T momentum. Homecoming always has a tendency to bring out the best in a ball club.

Scranton test may prove the key to Sailor title

SCRANTON, Pa. — Atlantic Coast Football League title hopes for the Virginia Sailors may hinge on the outcome of tomorrow (Saturday) night's tiff here with the Scranton Miners.

Playing percentages, you'd have to like the Sailors over the cellar-dwelling Miners (3-7) but too many "ifs" come into the picture for Virginia and they will make winning not so sure.

For instance, will star safetyman Caesar Belser fly back from the AFL Kansas City Chiefs and Hank Stram — in time to go to Scranton with the Sailors?

Or, will defensive halfback Mike Agee make the plane at National Airport following Georgetown University's club date at Catholic University, in time to get to Pensylvania? Agee is head Will Sailor quarterback John Thomas snap out of his passing slump?

* * *

MEANWHILE, the Sailors need two victories in their three remaining games to clinch the Southern title as runner-up Jersey has a 7-2-1 record.

Sranton has much better club than the record indicates. The Miners have a contract with the NFL New York Giants that gives the ACFL team ten players who are property of the Giants.

The Sailors are still a solid 10-point favorite for the game.

At the same time those numerous "ifs" keep them from enjoying their role as favorites.

$70,000 award to longshoreman

William Bialozynski, 47, a longshoreman, was awarded $70,000 against the American President Lines LTD as the owner of the steamship President Buchannan by Judge Edward S. Northrop in U.S. Federal Court Wednesday.

Bernard M. Goldstein, attorney for the docker, presented evidence at the 3-day trial that his client was injured on June 17, 1964 while working aboard ship when he fell into an open manhole injuring both knees and developing a serious condition in the right leg.

Despite lengthy treatment including several surgical operations, he would never be able to return to work, it was testified.

Judge Northrop found the contention was sustained by the evidence and the shipping company's claim that the man's disabilities were not due to the accident was not supported by evidence.
