JAMES EVANS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Evans, 339 Cumberlane, has departed for Memphis to take up a course at the naval school there. The Douglass High grad was accompanied by his wife, the former Erma Rice, and their daughter, Valarie. He visited Baltimore recently after 15 months aboard the USS Ranger Aircraft Carrier.

DHS classes of '45 have homecoming

The Douglass High School Classes of 1945, Inc., held their Homecoming Meeting on Saturday at the home of the president, Joseph L. Wilkins. This meeting marked the beginning of the organization's second year. The president gave the highlights of the past year's activities.

These included: Christmas baskets to the needy; a contribution to YMCA Camp Mohawk; contribution to Michael Peay, a Coppin student now studying in France, and a spring cabaret, proceeds of which were used for the scholarship fund.

The following officers were elected for the year: Joseph L. Wilkins, president; William L. Ames, vice president; J. Edward Lansey, treasurer; Mrs. Thelma B. Jiggetts, recording secretary; Mrs. Bernice M. Haynes, corresponding secretary.

These officers and Theodore Press and Mrs. Margaret Spriggs constitute the Board of Directors."

Marshall E. Dawson is business manager, Mrs. Margaret Campbell is social chairman; and Mrs. Chiorice Hooker, civic chairman.

Others attending were: Mesdames Beatrice Bevans, LaNita Blake, Edith Booker, Caroline Carter, Gwendolyn Culbreath, Ellen Glasgow, Geraldine Johnson, Ruth Lansey, Lorraine Lucas, Cecelia Scott, Evelyn Scott, Iwana Shorter, O'Lillian Smith, Lillian Watts, Hazelle Webster, India Williams, Sarah Williams, Vera Young, and Shirley Coates Glenn, who motored over from D. C.

Also, Roger Bowie, Donald Brown, Harry Hawkins, George Jackson, Samuel Tonkins, James Williams, and Horace Wilson.

Leaders in NAACP drive

The East Baltimore NAACP report meeting at Faith Baptist Church, the Rev. Walter E. Paige, pastor, was a success.

Israel Baptist, the Rev. Edmond Meade, pastor, led with a report of 149 memberships. Faith Baptist was second with 53 memberships. Israel Baptist's total is now 261 memberships.

Willie Hubbard, captain of Israel's team, led the individual reports with 89 memberships. Willie Frazier Sr., also of Israel, was second highest with 39 memberships.

At last Tuesday's report meeting, Mrs. Madeline Taylor, captain of Perkins Square Baptist Church, and W. Ernest Dennis, captain, Sharp Street Memorial Methodist, tied for first place.

Enthusiasm is high at these report meetings.

OTHER WINNERS of day time reports were: Mrs. Leah Patterson, independent worker with 26 memberships, highest; and Mrs. Jessie Mitchell, of Ames Memorial Methodist Church, the Rev. Ernest Clark, pastor, and Mrs. Leanna Brandford of Payne Memorial AME Church, the Rev. W. P. Mitchell, pastor, tied for second place with 10 memberships each.

Leroy Wilkins, Avalon Club, 14 memberships, and the Rev. Howard T. Cornish, Morgan state College, 12 memberships, were daytime leaders at the Nov. 1 report. Mrs. Florence Snowden and Lewis Trayvham, both of Bethel AME Church, Rev. F. Madison Reid, pastor, led with 11 memberships each.

Mrs. Mary McGuire of Payne Memorial AME, was second with 10 memberships. Mrs. Louise Harris, Memorial Baptist Church, the Rev. Charles W. Brownie, pastor, also reported 10 memberships, tying for second place.

SCHOOL BOARD

The Baltimore Board of School Commissioners has postponed its Nov. 3 regularly scheduled meeting until 4 p.m. Nov. 10.

Lower Row: MISS MORGAN 1966-67.

Miss Angela Flanagan, a senior elementary education major from Baltimore, was crowned Miss Morgan at the Coronation Ball, October 22.

A member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, she was elected "Miss Junior" in 1965 and in 1963 was picked as the Lambda Queen. Angela likes to model clothes and hair styles.

ARUNDEL FEATURES:
ICE CREAM "Hand-Packed" to order

ICE CREAM "Hand-Packed" to order. Enjoy rich creamy smooth Arundel ice cream with that old fashioned flavor. Hand packed ice cream has a fresher, more flavorful taste. It's packed to your order, in your choice of any combination of flavors. Costs a few pennies more . . . but what a difference. You get 16 ozs. by weight in a hand-packed pint. Machine filled pints weigh far less. The scale tells the tale — make your own test — buy the Arundel "hand-packed" way.
