

c. c. he had them in his pocket, given by Cap^t Cook. I asked him if he wou^d let me see them he told me no, I then asked him his Reason for not showing them to me he told me that it was Cap^t Cooks Orders that he shou^d let no man see them.

If I had acted in a line of my duty shou^d have put him under Arrest, but Concluded Cap^t Cook had given such Orders & did not Chose at that time to enter into disputes with any officer belonging to the State.

Had Cap^t Cook Apply^d to me or any officer at the Fort he might have had every Vessell Stop^t without putting himself to the trouble of sending his mate there, which I took in no other light then insulting me, but as I did not know what your Orders were, did not Act in the same manner as I shou^d otherwise have done. as I am Confident you wou^d not allow any officer in the State to be Ill treated unless he deserved it) cant imagine you gave Cap^t Cook Orders to Act as he did.

I am Sir
Your m^o Oblidged
Hhble Serv^t
