Towson clock on C and P directories

The stately clock tower at Towson State College has been chosen as the striking cover subject for the new Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. directory.

Company spokesmen said the tower will be reproduced on the covers of 1,082,000 directories to be distributed in the metropolitan Baltimore area November 22 through December 14.

Telephone company representatives will present the cover photograph to President Earle H. Hawkins in a ceremony at the college on November 21.

Miss Pulley and Mr. Escumbise

Miss Carol Ann Pulley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pettaway, of Miscelaw Ave., Annapolis, became the bride of Espiridon Escumbise, Jr., of the U.S. Army, and son of the late Mr and Mrs. Espiridon Escumbise, Sr., of Annapolis.

The nuptial mass and double ring ceremony was performed October 15, by the Father Salmon at Saint Mary's Catholic Church.

A reception and buffet followed at the Bay Bowl.

Escorted by her father the bride wore a beautiful floor length gown of white silk peau de soie, designed with a portrait neckline, empire waistline and long sleeves.

A wide band of imported lace appliqued in a scroll design and trimmed with seed pearl clusters and tiny crystal encircled the waistline.

* * *

THE A - LINE skirt was trimmed with three bands of the same lace and jewel embroideries, with the lowest band bordering the hemline.

The Watteau train of cathedral length was double faced and trimmed in medallions of lace with seed pearls and crystals.

Her three tiered, elbow length veil, of white silk illusion, fell from a headpiece of white peau de soie designed with a rose center and numerous petals, adged in seed pearls and crystals drops.

She carried a bouquet of miniature orchids.

Her attendants were identical dresses. The maid - of-honor, Miss Valeria Watkins, of New York, cousin of the bride, was in turquoise brocade.

She carried a bouqet of miniature yellow roses with yellow streamer.

The other bridesmaid, Mrs. Agnes Gardner of Annapolis, wore cherry blossom pink and carried a spray of blue tinted carnations, entwined with blue streamer.

Little Miss Karen Pulley, niece of bride, was flower girl. Her frock was pink chiffon, trimmed with green and white roses. She carried a basket of assorted flowers.

Master William E. Pettaway, Jr., brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Best man was Arcardio Escumbise, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Donald Burns, Charles W. Adams III, and Lemuel O. Pulley, brother of the bride; Ernest Anderson, nephew of the bridegroom; Raymond Herberts, cousin of the bridegroom and Robert Howard.

The bride's mother, received guests in a two piece ensemble of green brocade with matching turban hat and gray accessories. She wore an orchid.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Angelina Anderson, selected a two piece pink brocade suit with black accessories. She also wore an orchid.

* * *

PRESENTED AT the Elks Cotillon, the bride is a graduate of Wiley Bates High School and Morgan State College. She is a teacher at Cortram Junior High School in Glen Burnie.

The bridegroom also a graduate of Wiley Bates High attended Morgan before he entered the Army. He recently returned from Okinawa and is stationed at a Virginia camp.

The bride was given a miscellaneous bridal shower by Mrs. William Stansbury, at her Lincoln Heights home.

The wedding rehearsal party was feted at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Davis of Reidsville St.

Donald Burns gave a bachlor party for at his home on Poplar St.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a three - piece gray ensemble, with black accessories.

The young couple will make their home in Annapolis.

Just a taste is all we ask ...it's all we've ever needed.
WHY?
Because this is the most expensively made* Bourbon in Kentucky... and probably in the world.
We offer the rare mellowness of our new 86.8 proof OLD FITZGERALD Prime Straight or the famous flavor of our original Bottled in Bond.
All we ask is that one taste. (Wouldn't you if your Bourbon was the most expensively made?)

Singing Cadets family night features actor

Veteran actor, John Marriot, of stage, screen and television fame, was guest speaker for Singing Cadets, the community boys choir's, Family Night.

It was held in the Church School of the Sharp Street Methodist Memorial Church on Monday.

Mr. Marriot said only by the complete support of home and community can such an undertaking survive. The wonderful experiences these youngsters are receiving and the ones to come will most assuredly make them better citizens.

Cadet Director Richard G. Richardson Jr., who is appearing in both productions at Center Stage with Mr. Marriot told the history of the group and its work.

Other participants: A parent, Mrs. Rosetta Davis and Mrs. Margaret Bailey, director of the Community House.

Reports were given by James Bull, social committee, and Mrs. Helen Richardson, mother of the director - founder. The Rev. Charles Weston offered prayer.

Rhodesia vote

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — A United Nations committee voted Thursday to ask Britain to use force to topple the white settler regime in Rhodesia. The African colony broke away from the mother country a year ago.
