—Agnew switchover

Agnew did even better.

There was a 54 percent turnout of the registered citizens, with a total of 28,832 votes cast.

Mr. Agnew polled 23,740 or 82 percent.

Mr. Pressman got 3,427 for 11½ percent.

Mr. Mahoney garnered 1,621, for 5½ percent.

Over in AFRO precincts in the city's 2nd District, there was a 46 percent turnout of registered voters.

There were 12,498 votes cast in these precincts for the gubernatorial candidates.

Mr. Agnew polled 9,609, or 77 percent.

Mr. Pressman got 1,630 or 13 percent.

Mr. Mahoney was again a low third with 1,259, or 10 percent of the votes cast.

The second is not organized to the degree the Fourth is. Additionally Paul Cockrell, leader of the Associated Civic Democratic Council, failed to take a stand for Agnew or against Mahoney.

"I told them to vote their conscience," he told the AFRO.

MR. AGNEW'S victory could carry high significance for Baltimore and its place in state affairs.

Not in this century has there been both a Republican governor in Annapolis and a Republican mayor in Baltimore city.

This situation is likely to exist for some time, for Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin is expected to run for re-election next year in the municipal campaign.

Agnew has said he will work to effect a strong two-party system in the state.

Adding to the Republican upsweep in Maryland was the winning by Montgomery County's former State Senator Gilbert Gude of the new 8th Congressional District seat.

This gives the GOP three of Maryland's eight House seats in Congress, with the return of two incumbents.

Rogers C. B. Morton won again in his 1st District, and Charles McC. Mathias Jr. won in his 6th District.

• • •

THE SENATE race in the 4th District in which Sen. Verda F. Welcome, incumbent, and Clarence M. Mitchell 3rd won the two seats handily posed some interesting statistics between the two.

Sen. Welcome won 19 precincts over Mr. Mitchell, lost 71 to him, tied with him in one with a polling of 20,041 votes.

Mr. Mitchell won 71 precincts over Sen. Welcome, lost 19 to her, tied in one with a total of 21,888 votes.

On the House of Delegates side of the picture, here is how winners Isaiah Dixon, Mrs. Victorine Q. Adams, Troy Brailey and Mrs. Lena K. Lee chalked up their votes in comparison with each other.

Mr. Dixon won in 43 precincts, lost 46 to his colleagues, tied in two, polling 17,062 votes.

Mrs. Adams won 35 precincts, lost 53 and tied in three, with 17,064 votes.

Mr. Brailey won in 6 precincts over his colleagues, lost 82 to them and tied in 3, with 15,094 votes.

Mrs. Lee won two precincts over her running mates, lost 86 to them and tied in 3, with 15,094 votes.

CITY - WIDE, Judge Robert B. Watts and his four sitting judges running mates were elected to 15 year terms, with him leading in the unofficial returns on a vote of 91,327.

Horace H. Ashby Jr. lost his bid to oust Herbert J. Ripperger for clerk of Circuit Court in a 73,959 - 40,051 vote.

In the race for sheriff, Purnell B.Oden lost to incumbent Frank J. Pelz in a 86,633 - 35,517 vote.

Solomon Reddick lost to veteran incumbent Frank C. Robey, in his bid for clerk of Court of Common Pleas. Total unofficial returns are not available at this time.

This is the first time colored candidates have tried for these offices and reached a general election.

All of the three are Republicans.

In addition to the above mentioned 4th District state legislature winners, two other race's candidates were victorious for the first time in the newly enlarged 2nd District.

Floyd B. Adams and Joseph A. Chester Sr., both Democrats, won two of the district's eight House seats.

• • •

FOR THE first time in modern times, two colored candidates won election to state House of Delegates seats in the counties.

Dr. Aris T. Allen, Republican, won one of his District's three House seats in Anne Arundel County.

Arthur A. King, Democrat won one of his subdistrict's seven House seats in Prince George's County.

The new General Assembly which takes over in January will have an all-time high of 11 colored members.

There will be two in the Senate and 9 in the House.

Formerly, the highs was in the outgoing legislature, when there was one in the Senate and three in the House.

BLACK POLITICAL power was manifest elsewhere in Alabama when Wilson Baker, the former Selma public safety director, defeated incumbent segregationist Jim Clark for sheriff of Dallas County.

Baker and Clark were at odds during Dr. Martin Luther King's voter registration crusade, which was climaxed by the famous Selma - to - Montgomery civil rights march in 1965.

Sen. - elect Brooke, who has not been active in the civil rights movement, said he tried to campaign "like anyone else."

He said he was weary of hearing himself called "the first colored person - this or the highest colored person - that."

THE RANKS of colored voters were swelled by the voting Rights Act of 1965 and intensive registration campaigns in the South.

The Freedom Democratic Party in Mississippi lost its challenge to unseat Sen. James O. Eastland, Reps. Thomas Abernathy and John Bell Williams, all Democrats.

By a strong support of a write - in campaign for former Gov. Ellis Arnall, colored voters helped force the Georgia gubernatorial race between segregationist Lester Maddox and Republican Howard Callaway into a runoff election.

Under the state's laws, the election of the governor now becomes the task of the legislature.

JULIAN BOND, whose case appealing the General Assembly's refusal to seat him last year, was heard by U. S. Supreme Court Thursday, won a third overwhelming election victory in Atlanta, Georgia.

Nine other precedent-setters won in Georgia. Bond's views on Viet Nam led twice to a barred door at the Georgia House, but he has won the 136th District seat from Atlanta again and it will be interesting to see what the reaction is this time. Bond defeated Ralph Moore, for the post.

In Texas, Mrs. Barbara Jordan, a Houston lawyer, was elected to the Texas Senate to become its first colored member in a century and its only female member.

Six won House seats in Tennessee.

Birthday Tributes

TILGHMAN —A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my husband, CLARENCE TILGHMAN, on his birthday, November 11th and who passed away March 31, 1966.
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true;
There is a token of affection, dear,
And a heartache still for you.
What would I give to clasp his hand
His happy face to see
To hear his voice once see his smile
That meant so much to me.
Loving Wife — EDITH

In Memoriams

ALLEN — In loving remembrance of our dear mother and grandmother, OTELIA N. ALLEN, who departed this life twelve years ago on November 8, 1954.
Memories are a keepsake, none can steal,
Death is a heartache, none can heal.
Beautiful memories are all we have left.
Of a wonderful mother and grandmother we will never forget.
Devoted Daughter—ETHEL
Granddaughter—BERLENE

BEDFORD — In loving memory of our dear daughter ESTELLA BEDFORD, who passed away November 13, 1964.
A lasting only your memory, dear daughter,
To remember our whole life through.
But the sweetness will linger forever.
As we treasure the image of you.
MOTHER and FAMILY

BRADY — In loving memory of my wife GENEVA BRADY, who passed away November 12, 1964.
Today my heart is heavy.
My thoughts are all of thee
Oh, how I miss you, GENEVA, so dear.
Nobody but God in Heaven can see,
Just why time heals an aching heart,
But, no it isn't true.
For two long years have passed, dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
HUSBAND and DAUGHTER.

BROWN — In loving memory of my husband, LEON A. whose passed away November 13, 1963
What would we give his hand to clasp,
His patient face to see,
To hear his voice,
To see his smile
As in the days that used to be.
—again
Here some sweet day we'll meet
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once
In Heaven, that happy life.
Wife — RITA BROWN DIXON

CHEW — In memory of our dear sister, VIRGINIA E. CHEW, who passed away two years ago, November 13, 1964
Her pleasant way and smiling face
Was a pleasure to recall
She had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Some day, we hope to meet her,
Some day, we know not when.
To clasp her hand in the better land.
Never to part again.
Devoted — SISTERS and BROTHER

COLEMAN — In loving memory of my dear wife, CATHERINE BEA COLEMAN, who passed away November 13, 1963
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind.
Beautiful memories she left behind.
Your Loving Husband,
JOHN A COLEMAN

DAVIS — In loving memory of my wife and our mother and grandmother, RUBY O. DAVIS, who passed away November 14, 1963
A wonderful wife, mother and grandmother,
One who was better God never made
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
One in a million—that was you.
Just in your judgment, always right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
Wonderful wife, mother and grandmother, that was you
The DAVIS AND HARRIS FAMILIES.

DIXON — In loving memory of my beloved father and mother, JOHN H. and ANNIE R., who passed away respectively, September 24, 1938 and November 12, 1941
Nothing but memories as I journey on,
Longing for a smile from loved ones gone,
None knows the depths of my deep regret,
But I remember and will never forget.
Loving Daughter — FLORA.

DODSON — In loving memory of our mother, SARAH FANCY DODSON, who passed away November 12, 1964 and our father, HUGO DEWITT DODSON, December 21, 1959:
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain:
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
Loving Children —
ELIZABETH — ALICE
DONALD — BAILEY and ISABEL.

DOTSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, ELSIE DOTSON, who passed away November 7, 1964.
God takes one of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends.
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare:
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most fair—
A mother as dear as you.
DAUGHTER, CAROLYN DOTSON and FAMILY.

'n Memoriams

DOUGLASS — In loving memory of my dear husband, EDGAR W. DOUGLASS, who passed away November 8, 1960:
I have lost my friend and companion,
A life linked with my own!
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone
Loving Wife — ELIZABETH.

DUPPINS — In loving memory of our dear mother, NANCY E. DUPPINS, who departed this life thirty-six years ago, November 12, 1930.
Our hearts can tell what we miss
Our lips cannot tell how we miss
Our hearts can tell what to say,
God alone knows how we miss her,
In a home that is lonesome today.
Only God knows the loneliness,
And how long has been the years,
How we try to hide the sadness,
And check the lonely tears.
In moments of our deepest grief
Our Saviour comforts us
Be of good cheer and do not weep
Sorrow with her we will meet.
By Her Devoted Daughter —
HATTIE and Son—
PAUL R. DUPPINS.

FOGLE — In loving memory of our dear husband, SAMUEL FOGLE, who passed away November 13, 1956:
I seem to see in the soft, dim light
I love to see the last
And think of him when the sun's bright rays
Goes down in the far — off West.
I miss you no less as the time passes on
Then I did on the day of your going.
For absence can never close the door of my heart
And the lamp of my love is still glowing.
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world,
Your love the best to recall,
For no one on earth can take your place.
You are still the dearest of all
Your Loving Wife —
BEULAH

GREEN — In loving memory of our dear father and mother SARAH E. GREEN, who passed away November 2, 1964:
I seem to see in the soft, dim light
I love to see the last
And think of her when the sun's bright rays
Goes down in the far-off West.
I miss you no less as the time passes on
Then I did on the day of your going.
For absence can never close the door of my heart
In the autumn it will be filled
But the face of our dear mother
We would love to see again.
Mother, when the violets open
And the flowers in green wave,
We will gather in green leaves
And lay them on your grave,
And then we see wonder
Too the place you are laid
And think if God had only left you longer
On earth with us to stay.
From your loving children—
CHARLES, DOROTHY, EARLEAN and FRANKLYN
GRANDCHILDREN and GREAT GRANDCHILDREN

WINSTON — A tribute to my husband JOHN J., an Veteran's Day who passed away August 23, 1966:
Sweet rest in Jesus name,
I loved you, but God loved you best.
Your wife — DOROTHY WINSTON

Career Appointments for Engineers, Physical Scientists
APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY
The Johns Hopkins University
The Applied Physics Laboratory, a division of The Johns Hopkins University, is closely associated with the Bureau of Naval Weapons. The development of the Navy's Terrier, Talos, and Tartar guided missiles, the development and fabrication of satellites for the Navy and NASA, and the test and evaluation of guided and ballistic missile systems are among its principal achievements.
At the present time, the Laboratory has a number of interesting assignments in aerospace engineers, physicists, and mathematicians interested in career opportunities. Specific openings include computer programming, thermal engineering, analog and digital circuit design, structural design and analysis, missile system test and analysis, operations research, and propulsion engineering (rocket and ramjet).
The Laboratory's principal locations are in Silver Spring (a suburb of Washington), D. C. and in Howard County, between Baltimore and Washington. These exceptionally complete facilities contain large-scale computers, well equipped laboratories, libraries, and cafeterias.
