PERMANENT FOSTER Parents needed—Love you ever thought of opening your home to a foster child? Perhaps you have heard that Foster children have own parents who may sometime want to take them home. You may not have heard that there are many children under the care of the Department of Welfare who need foster families with whom they can live permanently. These children between the ages of 2 and 5 years have no parents. They need foster families to raise them through adolescence. If you are interested please call the Department of Welfare, 669-3000, extension 321, Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

2 FURNISHED ROOMS and board employed gentleman preferred. Retired or Welfare accepted. 945-8073.
