Charles had voluntarily undergone the treatment.

During Tuesday's court session, Charles' lawyer Paul Redmond, assured Judge Wyzanski the defendant had been cured of drug addiction.

JUDGE WYZANSKI said a condition of the probation was that Charles should not leave the United States unless he obtained permission from the probation office or from a Federal judge here.

Killer of 3 to be tested

WINDSOR, N.C. (UPI)—Superior Court Judge Albert W. Cowper Tuesday ordered a mental examination for a youth who admitted slaying his parents and sister after his mother slapped him for charging cigarettes to the family grocery bill.

Cowper directed that Roger Bernard Lee, who was 15 today, be examined at Cherry Hospital in Goldsboro. He asked for a report in two months.

Lee was indicted by the Bertie County Grand jury on three counts of first-degree murder in the deaths of Willie McCoy Lee, 51, Essie Mae Lee, 41, and Carolyn Ann Lee, 4, last May 28. Roger's younger brother, Marvin Lee, 1, was shot in the hip but recovered.

The slaying at first were ruled murder - suicide when Roger told authorities he saw his father quarrel with his mother and then grab a rifle and start shooting.

Suspicious neighbors and relatives instigated a reopening of the investigation which led to a confession by the youth that he became angered when his mother slapped him in the face and killed his parents in a fusillade of rifle shots.

ATL seminar to probe criminal law problems

BOSTON — The highly controversial legal problems arising out of the new concepts held on criminal justice will be probed and dissected by the "giants" of the criminal defense bar in one of the most unusual teaching seminars held in many years.

The 25,000-member American Trial Lawyers Association, sponsor of the seminar which will take place on Dec. 2 and 3, at Washington, D.C.'s Mayflower Hotel, seeks answers to two major questions confronting the entire bar and the public today:

—Has the "rights evolution" in criminal law gone astray and endangered the public's safety by over-protecting the individual?

—Can legal competeny be taught to every trial lawyer so that criminal cases may be handled more efficiently and afford top protection for the accused?

• • •

TO FIND the answers, the ATL bar association has assembled a teaching faculty which includes top criminal defense lawyers, many of whose names have appeared in the headlines in national cases.

And to evaluate what the future holds for such controversial issues as arrest and investigation, search and seizure, pre-trial publicity, the right to counsel, bail and sentencing, ATL will have the University of Michigan's Professor B. James George Jr. — author and criminal law specialist as "critic and judge" over the faculty of defense lawyers.

• • •

THE FACULTY all volunteers will be: John Flynn, successful defense counsel in the recent landmark Miranda decision; Joseph Varon, prominent authority and author on search and seizure; F. Lee Bailey, successful appellate counsel, in the Sheppard case; Ronald Goldfarb, author of the much - discussed study on the abuses of the bail system — Ransom; George Davis, internationally renowned criminal defense attorney and defender of Caryl Chessman; Stanley Preiser, chairman of the ATL criminal law section; George Shadoan, prominent professor and author; Jacob Ehrlich, famed practitioner of "Sam Bendict" renown; The Hon. Hyman Barshay, distinguished jurist and former prominent defense attorney; Henry Rothblatt, author of the widely used criminal text, Successfull Techniques in the Trial of Criminal Cases; such prominent criminal defense advocates as Warren Schrempp, Ronald Meshbesher, William Erickson, and Verne Lawyer.

• • •

THESE DEFENSE specialists will stage a demonstration "trial" — dissecting an actual criminal case from start to finish — under the new concepts of criminal justice.

Invitations to the seminar, "How to Defend a Criminal Case - From Investigation to Acquittal" — have gone out to members of the bench and the bar throughout the United States. Thousands of lawyers are expected to attend.

Attorney Verne Lawyer of Des Moines, Iowa, serves as Chairman of the Criminal Law Seminar and is also National Seminar Chairman of the American Trial Lawyers Association.

Stokely had eyed Watts

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The county supervisors Tuesday banned "Black Power" advocate Stokely Carmichael from appearing at a rally Saturday at Will Rogers Park.

The supervisors voted unanimously to instruct County Park Director Norman Johnson not to issue a permit for the meeting (at 103rd St. and Central Ave.).

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn said the meeting in the Watts area was "nakedly designed to foment racial hatred and violence.

"Why should we tolerate a meeting that could develop into another riot," Hahn asked.

One of the backers of the rally, the Watts Community Action Council, issued a statement saying, "Now is not the time to deny colored people the right of free speech."

County Counsel Harold W. Kennedy said he feels the ban is legal because the Supreme Court has ruled that a government has a right to act when a "clear and present danger exists."
