

- | | |
|--|------------------------------------|
| C. S. C. 23. Corn ^s Forrester | 49. Martin Conden, |
| 24. Barny Quin, | 50. Tim ^y Donovan |
| 25. Fran ^s De Shields, | 51. Hugh M ^c Doole |
| 26. John Hanlon | 52. Fred ^k Pine |
| 27. Luke Gardiner | 53. Philip Sitzler |
| 28. John Pearson | 54. John King |
| 29. John Howard | 55. Roger O'Donnell, |
| 30. David White | 56. John Brady |
| 31. James Barry, | 57. Barth ^w Donohoe |
| 32. Rob ^t Mitchell, | 58. Math ^w Kelly |
| 33. Cha ^s Cloes | 59. W ^m Reed, |
| 34. Tho ^s Robinson | 60. Joseph Wilkes |
| 35. Sam ^l Thompson | 61. David Thomas |
| 36. Hugh Martin, | 62. Robert Toole |
| 37. Rich ^d Burke | 63. John Gorman |
| 38. Thomas Smith | 64. Edmund Walsh |
| 39. John Clarke | 65. Fra ^s Malgawran, |
| 40. John Shly | 66. Pat ^k Slaughness: |
| 41. Jacob Boager, | 67. David Walsh, |
| 42. Peter Richards | 68. W ^m Culbertstan |
| 43. W ^m Forbes | 69. George Rees, |
| 44. Jn ^o Forrester | 70. Edw ^d Coughlan |
| 45. Alex ^r Forrester | 71. John Curtis |
| 46. Stephen Fennell | 72. Andrew Shreek |
| 47. Henry Carroll, | 73. George Gitnere |
| 48. Tho ^s Connor | 74. Ellack M ^c Mullin : |

[Jesse Hollingsworth to Council.]

Sirs.

Baltimore January 24th 1777.

I have made bold to draw on you for a large sum, but you may depend I have a right to part of the draft, and soon shall be for the whole. Pleas honner my draft, I am preparing the cargo for the Brig as fast as possible and laying in provitions for the ship Defence with all kinds of neseryes, and geting the Ship Liddia fit for her cargo. There must be one new mast and I propose to put her provitions on bord for the voige. Pleas let mee no if I am to supply Capt. Walker of the Gundela I have let him have £100. M^r Stuard says hee cannot give you a State of the a count till you let him now the proportion you clame and the men's proportion, which hee has not yet been acquainted with. Capt. Kook wants mee to provide blankets and shirt and Trousers with a number of other things that will be very hard to get here. from,

Your humble Servant,

The Honorable Counsill of Jesse Hollingsworth.
Safety of Maryland at Anapolis