If YOU Ask ME

People, places and things

Whatsa this talk about naming a white man as president of Bowie State Teachers' College?

Our sources say the reasoning is that the surrounding population is predominantly white so that a white president could do a better job.

That, you know, is tommyrot, the best available man should be named president of Bowie, and if there are two candidates equally qualified, the colored person should get the nod.

That's right — thatsa what I said. Why not ???

Have you attended a church recently where the members are in their seats fully fifteen minutes before services are scheduled at 11 a.m.?

It was so on Sunday morning. Nearly all of the 1400 seats were filled at the magnificent new Wayland Baptist Church, 2200 Garrison Blvd.

This is the church of which dynamic Rev. William W. Payne is pastor.

He and his congregation purchased the former synagogue for 400,000 this past March.

Sunday was the 35th annual Women's Day. And, the women were able to report a total of $11,338. How about that!

Of course, the singing here was inspiring, and there was participation by many.

That's the secret of this church's success — as the Rev. Mr. Payne puts it:— 'Everybody here is wanted, everybody here is loved, everybody here is appreciated. . . .' Amen!

We took the children along with us on Sunday. They are still talking about the 'dancing' ushers.

Actually, they were not dancing — they were looking good in their crisp white uniforms.

They paraded up the aisle and around the church with an extra 'strut,' which resembled a dance number.

Leading the group were Mrs. Lillie Mae deBerry, chairman, and Mrs. Joyce Evans.

* * *

New usher in the group — Mrs. Carolyn McCamey. . . . She had been down in the dumps since her husband (Alex Sr.) was sent to Viet Nam, but she radiated happiness on Sunday. The McCamey family — 4 children —joined the church last year.

* * *

Did I mention that the ushers marched to the song, 'You Can't Beat God Giving?'

* * *

Philadelphia visitor; Mrs. Alfreda Granton Moore. She comes a 'home' every Women's Day.

Lovely bronze lady met: Mrs. Charlene Cooper, who tells me she teaches at School No. 56. Lucky are the children in her class . . . she's pretty and pleasant.

* * *

Cuff note: Like we say so often, everybody is related to everybody else. Take the Rev. Mr. Payne, for example.

He is the nephew of the Rev. Elijah Reynolds, second minister of Wayland.

And, Mrs. Zadie Simon, program chairman, is the granddaughter of the Rev. Mr. Reynolds.

Good singing group is the one composed of Helen Grotto, Pansy Atkinson, William Grigsby, Glenn Bunch, with Lois Pickens at the piano. They're all city teachers.

Pleasant neighbor met recently: Mrs. Ida Wilson of Chestertown in Kent County, Md., where she is a member of the School Board.

She is a widow and the mother of two, de Vere Wilson, 21, a Morgan State student; and Devereaux, 6. She has a brother, Paul Dukery a Baltimore City high school teacher.

Another county school board member met recently: Mrs. Ruth S. James, pl Jessups, a member of the Howard County board since May 1966.

Happy birthday cards by Nov. 28 to Mrs. Ralph Young (Addie), wife of the physician. Her address, 3232 Carlisle Ave.

More about people, things

Thinking of you cards, please, to a good, good neighbor — Mrs. Eula M. Birche of N. Hilton St.

Since Saturday, she has been confined to Hopkins Hospital (Osler 3.)

She is the mother of W. Meredith Birche, the city music teacher; and Mrs. Richard P. Showes (Estellena), the Cleveland, Ohio teacher, who came home this weekend to visit her mother.

* * *

Good neighbors of the week: Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Nealy of Aberdeen in Harford County, Md.

Mr. Nealy, a retired government worker, is a member of the county school board.

He and Mrs. Nealy (Camille), observed their 40th wedding anniversary this past June. She is a diet supervisor at Aberdeen Proving Ground.

* * *

These are the Nealy children: Air Force Sgt. Charles Nealy, recently returned from three years in Germany now stationed in California; Miss Betty Nealy, a Hampton Institute junior; Mrs. Nellie Howard, who lives at Radstone Arsenal, Ala., where her husband, M/Sgt. Hanson Howard, is stationed at a missile base; Mrs. Franklin Brown, who recently returned home from Germany with her husband, S/Major Edward M. Brown; now on duty in Fort Holabird; Mrs. Rosinda Alexander, social worker with the Veterans Administration in Baltimore, and wife of Charles Brown, retired postal employee.

Do people call or write a newspaper when they have something nice to say as well as when they have a complaint?

Yes, sometimes they do. In our mail this week, we are told of the thrilling talk Dr. Herbert M. Frisby gave to 2,400 teens at Eastern High School.

The teens were most attentive and gave sustained applause several times.

Dr. Frisby, the retired science teacher and AFRO Far North correspondent, told of the role of colored Marylanders at the North Pole and explained some aspects of Eskimo culture.

The letters also suggests praise for Miss Helen Lentz, the science department head who arranged the 'thrilling' program.

Cuff note: Dr. Frisby dressed one of the students in an Eskimo parka to show how our Far North neighbors look. The kids loved it.

The letter - writer adds: 'Learning does not have to be boring. It can be an enjoyable experience, even for teen - aged girls. . . .'

P.S. - Betcha that was the first time many of those kids learned that Matthew Henson - co-discoverer of the North Pole with Admiral Peary, was a colored man born in Maryland.

Notes about this and that

Cuff note: Sidney Offit, of N.Y., Baltimore-born author of seven children's books, will speak to students in the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades at the Park School On Dec. 2.

His most recent book, of Homer Fink, takes place in Baltimore and is dedicated to the memory of Arnold Ortman, teacher at the former Lafayette Junior High School. Two of Mr. Offit's books are included among the Library Journal's selection of 'Best Books for Children."

Free Culture:—The Education Department of The Baltimore Museum of Art has resumed story time for children on Sundays, at 3:30 p.m. with the help of a group of volunteer high school students and a faculty member from Friends School.

The program is free and open to all.

The story time is being held in the May Wing of the museum in the area where the museum's children's library is housed.

Stories are read from 3:30 to 4 by Friends School student Peggy Ramsey, captain of the project, Annette Carter, Chrissy Ramsey, Sarah Elmendorf, Julia Frank, Steve Asper and Tommy Ascher. Frank Shivers of the Friends School faculty is advisor to the student group.

Sympathy cards to the family of Mrs. Janie Stevens, 316 Ashburton.

The 86 - year - old senior citizen was buried on Wednesday. Funeral services were at Sharp St. Methodist Church, where she was active in several groups for nearly half a century.

Remember her husband, Alexander? Remember when he operated a restaurant at Caroline and Lombard Sts., for years? (He died 16 years ago.)

Here's a practical prayer

The author of the following prayer is unknown: —

Slow me down, Lord!

Ease the pounding of my heart by the quieting of my mind.

Steady my hurried pace with a vision of the eternal reach of time.

Give me, amidst the confusion of my day, calmness of the everlasting hills.

Break the tension of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of the singing streams that live in my memory.

Help me to know the magical restorative power of sleep.

* * *

Teach me the art of taking minute vacations . . . of slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to pat a dog, to read a few lines from a good book.

Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise, that I may know that the race is not always to the swift; that there is more to life than increasing its speed.

Let me loop upward into the branches of the towering oak, and know that it grew because it grew slowly and well.

Slow me down, Lord, and inspire me to send my roots deep into the soil of life's enduring values, that I may grow toward the stars of my greater destiny.— AMEN.

Gadabouting In Baltimore

Calendar takes upturn as townfolk swing into holidays

With Lula Jones Garrett

If you swing in Baltimore you swing with clubs, as everyone knows, and the swinging, beginning tonight and looking back for the past month, has really been something.

The Baltimore chapter of Guardsmen dined, danced and saw the show at the Venus. . the party to especially honor their two members, Dr. Raymond Gray and Charles Tilghman. On New Year night they will be holding forth at an affair to benefit President Hospital. This dance (black tie) will be in Mondawmin Mall.

THE BALTIMORE chapter of Girl Friends, shooting towards their annual Cotillion on December 29th, have had a series of mighty-fine sessions. Laura Jones gathered the group for dinner at a Woodbrook caterer's place. Catherine Law broiled steaks to top and ultra menu for the session in her elegant Lynchester Road place, and Gwendolyn Roper took the group back to the Woodbrook spot for her meeting, Saturday.

FOUR HOSTESSES combined their doings for an intimate supper party for Pierians and their guys, in the pretty manse of the Medford Reynoldses, Saturday ago.

Dr. and Mrs. G. James Fleming, entertained the group with a dialogue anent their stay in Africa . . . a depth story presented in a light note for an interesting evening.

Mrs. Reynolds, Jewel Moseley, Gwendolyn Tarter and Lula Mackay were hostesses.

Both the Girl Friends and the Pierians are debating adding to their membership this year.

TWO SESSIONS of the Couples Club enhanced the within-the-club affairs. The Ben Foremans' dinner session brought the members together at an end - if - October session.

Last month's gloom turned to cheerful smiles during the investment meeting when Bill Sanford, chairman of the stock committee made his usual stock market report, Sunday.

A market upswing in the club's portfolio brightened the November meeting at the Hilton Rd. home of the Greenes. Also as much as the enticing menu and a variety of sippables.

A hopeful note and sounded by Chairman Stanford who predicted that the October downtrend has been reversed and fall loses were recovering.

The stock committee was authorized to make additional purchases in the continuing effort to build up the club's portfolio.

Helen and Al Burrell were guests at the November meeting. Members present were Adele and Ben Foreman, Vernice and Medford Reynolds, Delphine and Tom Warrenton, Yvette and Jim Murphy, Ethel Rich, Cliff Mackay and Jeretta and Lonnie Green.

THE UPPER Ten Club met Sunday with the Paul Mosses, where they celebrated the birthday of Ken Wilson.

The Charles Hillens were re-elected president and vice president. The Aaron Ellises remained secretaries and the Errol Taylors were renamed treasurers.

Others members of the club there were Mrs. Wilson; Messrs. and Mesdames Edward Williams, Melvin Callaman, David Wright, Clifton Murray and Mrs. Royal Weaver.

Also present were Messrs. and Mesdames Earl Parier, Clarence Henderson, Samuel Blackwell and Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Leonard Underwood.

Robert Matthews, former AFRO staffer, now a member of the WBAL news staff, has been nominated for membership in the Baltimore Chapter, Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalism society. The nomination was submitted by Al Quinn, veteran WBAL newsman.

Col. Holmes, the New York attorney well-known to many Baltimoreans, spent Thanksgiving eve and week - end in Baltimore visiting his sister, Mrs. Joseph Sims, wife of the lieutenant and University of Maryland Law School senior.

Mr. Holmes is on his way to take over a new post as executive assistant to Congressman Ogden Reid (Rep., N.Y.) on the House Sub - committee on Anti - poverty in Washington.

He was formerly executive director of the Bedford - Stuyesant Poverty Program in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Dr. Alvin M. (Boo) Brown, formerly on the Morgan State College athletic staff, has been named Assistant Chief of Physical Medicine at Sinai Hospital here.

Dr. Brown began the study of medicine at the age of 40 and after finishing training and intership became chief of the Tuskegee Veterans Hospital.

* * *

ALSO TAKING a new post is Livingston Wingate, former executive director of the Harlem Youth Opportunity Unlimited project.

He was in Baltimore this week visiting old friends before going to D. C. Saturday as assistant director for the Citizens Crusade Against Poverty sponsored by Walter Reuther's AFL - CIO United Auto Workers.

Home for Thanksgiving holidays is Reginald Robinson, former SNCK official. Now in Washington, he is a personnel director in the War on Poverty.

LOUISE ROBINSON, chic in a black jump suit, greeted members the Chipperettes' Club and guests for her catered supper, and game, Friday night.

It's a shame that these gals confine all those goods looks to feminine eyes. They all wear something along the pants line to meetings, but being ladies, and vieing in fashion, this dress motif has become top couture, what with the all out ensembles and the mad mad jewelry that goes along.

Chipperettes at the session included Berine Gail, Arnetta Lottier, Vonzella Murray, Dorothy Johnston, Elizabeth Edwards, Gwendolyn Hillen, Frances Henderson, Bernadine Harrison, Peggie Jones, Joan Scott.

Guests were Ellsworth Rhetta, Robbie Chissell, Norma Maiden, Nickie Randolph, Ida Smith, Wilhelmina Garner and Hortense Perkins.

* * *

THE WE WIVES met with Ida Smith on Saturday . . . departing from the usual Tuesday night meeting. Starting at 4 . . with pinocle and bridge, the guests were treated to some snazzy earrings. . for those arriving early, Joe Brown, president, conducted a brief meeting to put the finishing touches on
