Les Onze pace town in ultra partying

Les Onze, that infant club (only a year old) set the pace for autumn affairs, recently, when the members held their "Champagne Ball" in the Cherry Hill Union Hall.

Membership is made up of a vivacious young married set, and their guests included as fashionable a group as has been garnered in a month of moons.

THEY GOT the party on the road at 10 in the evening when champagne began to flow. Guests dined at 11 p.m. And before, between and afterwards they danced to the hot tunes of Bobby Felder's Orchestra.

FILLING THE evening with beauty were such high styled matrons as:

Mrs. Herbert Chissell in palest pink sequin shell and satin skirt, her hair piled high in a new coiffure; Mrs. Robert Phillips whose gold-embroidered gown was a tunic affair; Mrs. Clarence Maiden, one of the lovelies in Red, Mrs. Milton Stanley, also in red, her gown vieing for attention with her gold-blond hair style.

MRS. EDWARD DANIELS in within the hour from attending a convention in Boston, Mass., but cool in a pink and gold brocade gown; Mrs. Lonnie Greene, utterly elegant in a French number, black and cut to the nines.

Mrs. Archie Robinson in a whtie peau fitted top, flowing into an A-line skirt and banded with mink at the top; Mrs. Bernard Christmas wore a white satin brocade dinner suit and Mrs. Clarence Henderson in hot pink. Mrs. John Chissell's Empire gown was of gold brocade.

THE HOSTESSES and their husbands were:

Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Garris, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. John Holmes, Dr. and Mrs. Archie Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. Edward McDaniels, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stanley, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Trader.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. B. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Elroy Young. The guests of Mrs. Walter T. Davidson, who was out of town, were hosted by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lloyd Davis.

GUESTS INCLUDED:

Predicts drop in food prices

WASHINGTON - (UPI)— The Agriculture Department this week had good news for housewives with a prediction that average farm prices would show a slight decline in 1967.

But the good news for the ladies will also mean up to a 5 per cent drop in net income for farmers who this year were earning at near record levels.

THE LOWER PRICE averages will stem primarily from expanded production under government orders, the Department said. Also predicted are larger supplies and lower prices for hogs, but higher prices for cattle, calves and dairy products in 1967.

Soft Whiskey chased the chaser away.

Soft Whiskey is so soft going down, there's nothing to chase.

After that, drinking it is like drinking any other 86 proof whiskey.

So what you have is a whiskey that doesn't need water on the way down, and yet, isn't watered down itself.

Of course, all this doesn't mean it's against the law to follow up Soft Whiskey with a you-know-what.

And it's certainly not taboo to mix it with your favorite mixer.

(These are two excellent ways to make it go down even softer.)

So if you ever do run out of water, it doesn't necessarily mean you have to stop serving drinks.

phone

This is where Mr. Williams hangs his hat when he's on the go. With a public telephone always conveniently at hand, he is never far from his office or from his prospects.

For example, he uses a public phone to call ahead for appointments, check on things back at the office, place orders, obtain prices and information, complete a sale, and keep his boss informed as to his whereabouts. And of course, if he's going to be late for dinner at home, a call will ease the sting.

When you're trying to crowd two days' work into a single day, take a tip from Mr. Williams. Step into your office away from the office and—

Just pick up the phone.

No "ifs, ands or buts" about it. Handy phones are there to help you make the most of your busy day.

And serving you the way you want to be served is what the telephone business is all about.

To Mr. Williams, this is his office away from the office

MRS. DORIS WHEELER, new specialist in Business Education for Baltimore Public Schools.

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. — Fred B. Ellis Jr., a '65 graduate of Fayetteville State College is studying for his master's degree in English at Carnegie Institute of Technology) Pittsburgh. Mr. Ellis is among eight graduates of American Colleges and universities holding the baccalaureate degree in English who have been selected to attend the Graduate School at Carnegie under a government - sponsored Prospective Teachers Fellowship Program.

Mrs. Mary Frazier in new school post

In personnel action taken at its last regular meeting the School Board named Mrs. Doris Wheeler, formerly a special assistant in personnel, as specialist in Business Education.

To take Mrs. Wheeler's position, the Board approved the appointment of Mrs. Mary Frazier, former head of the business education department at Douglass High School.

The Board, on the recommendation of superintendent Laurence G. Paquin, also approved the appointment of Mrs. Florence Hubbard, as senior teacher at Dickey Hill Elementary School 201.

She is a former teacher at Carter Godwin Woodson Elementary School 160.

THE SALARY scales for these three teachers, department heads at their respective schools, were raised due to increased duties:

Samuel Billups, mathematics, School 77; Robert Freeman, mathematics, School 79 and Mrs. Letitia Weise, social studies, School 80.

Mrs. Ruth Lanzy, a demonstration teacher in Project Mission at Columbus Elementary School 50, was named senior teacher at Elementary School 94.

Julian Lewis, acting department head of physical education at Edmondson High School, was made permanent head.

In addition the Board granted seven leaves of absence, five of them for injuries suffered in connection with school duties.

Eight new teachers were granted tenure and five resignations were accepted.

The eight new teachers granted tenure are: Miss Irene Ellsworth, Miss Dorothy G. Wheeless, Miss Florence V. Klein, all elementary.

Edward L. Clapp, elementary teacher of physical education; Miss Janet Conner hospital teacher; and Miss Vivian Mishner.

And Ronald Barnes and Mrs. Mary H. Becker, secondary teachers.

Mrs. Grace Block, teacher at Violetville Elementary No. 226, was granted a study leave until June 1967.

THE retirement of twelve persons was also announced, all effective with the opening of the fall term.

Mrs. Gladys M. Derry, Mrs. Charlotte P. Flanagan, Mrs. Rebecca E. Gordon, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Guerin, Charles W. Jones, Mrs. Gertrude D. Nordling and Mrs. Viola M. Smith, all principals;

And, David Kaufman, vice principal; and Mrs. Evelyne A. Kunkel, Mrs. Diana Mons man, Charles T. Riley and Mrs. Mildred S. Wise, all teachers.

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C.—The student body of Fayetteville State College is conducting a "Parade of Dimes Plus" to be used as a Dr. C. A. Chick Memorial Fund as a living testament to his interest in the Central Orphanage at Oxford, N.C. The late Professor Chick was a tireless benefactor to the institution, annually making contributions during the Christmas and Thanksgiving seasons.

Misses Laura Gilmore and Mary McEachern, both of Fayetteville, are chairman and co-chairman, respectively of this student memorial fund. Faculty advisors to the group are Dr. Marguerite S. Frierson and Ollie Coz.

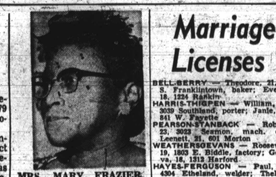
ATLANTA, Ga. — Dr. William H. Jackson, dean of the Atlanta University School of Social Work, has announced that the Pilot Project for Field Work Development for the Southeastern Region of the United States has now been initiated.



MRS. MARY FRAZIER, former Douglass High teacher named special assistant in the Personnel Division of the Baltimore Public Schools.

Afro queen causes stir at RPI

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) — Beatrice May Wynn, 20, cradling a dozen roses in her gloved left arm, delivered a broad smile in return.

A whisk of hair fell over her eyes as Pamela Smith reached up to place the crown.

Jeffrey Parker, Miss Wynn's escort, stood at her side, tall and straight in his tuxedo.

Miss Wynn Tuesday night became the first of her race to serve as Harvest Ball Queen at Richmond Professional Institute. The coronation ceremonies took place in a hotel ballroom in this former confederate capital.

MISS WYNN, a drama student, was nominated by Theater Associates, a campus drama group, and from among 14 nominees, she was selected by popular vote.

Her drama student colleagues were said to have voted in bloc and they were on hand to cheer her as she arrived at a play rehearsal after victory was announced Saturday.

The announcement did not go unnoticed.

A CROSS was burned at the drama school building on the campus during the weekend.

Four plainclothes detectives showed up to attend the ball, looking awkward in their business suits and sportswear, and much older than the students. They did, however, intercept a youth carrying a confederate flag in the hotel lobby.

Miss Wynn, a native of Crewe, attended predominantly colored Hampton Institute her first year in college. She transferred here, in the fall and hopes to emerge as a drama teacher.

Earlier this year, Miss Wynn won a fellowship in theater from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts.

The person most affected by Miss Wynn's reign at the college social event probably was Parker, her escort.

He got the first dance, but after that, Miss Wynn was mobbed by white students who sought her out for the other dances.
