Joe Frazier stock rises, beaten Machen lauds foe

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Young Joe Frazier's stock as a rising star in the heavyweight ranks moved up several notches Tuesday as a result of his tenth round knockout victory over the experienced Eddie Machen.

But the 22-year-old Philadelphian was loud in his praise of his 34-year-old opponent, declaring Machen had more heart than any man he had fought in his short career.

• • •

FRAZIER, who had a 13-pound weight advantage at 205 pounds, admitted the Berkeley, Calif., veteran stung him a little in the eighth, the only round Machen won.

The victory, however, was the 13th straight for the unbeaten Frazier since he turned pro after winning the Olympic heavyweight championship in 1964 and it was his 12th by a knockout.

• • •

FRAZIER had Machen virtually out on his feet in the ninth round but the game loser managed to hang on until the bell. It was evident when the tenth round started that Machen was helpless and referee Tommy Hart stopped the bout after 22 seconds.

Frazier did what few fighters had been able to do to Machen when he knocked him through the ropes in the first round, forcing him to take a mandatory eight count. Only Ingemar Johansson and Manuel Ramos had floored Machen previously.

"WE HAVEN'T got any plans for my next fight," Frazier said. "I'm going home to Philadelphia to rest until a fight is arranged.

"That Machen was really tough, a lot tougher than any man I've met before. I don't know what kept him up in the ninth because I hit him with everything I had."

Frazier admitted Machen hit him "on the button" in the eighth but he claimed the punch did not hurt him although Machen took the round.

• • •

MACHEN compared Frazier to a young Rocky Marciano with his swarming tactics and said his younger rival gave him no room in which to box.

"He's a tough kid and he should go a long way," Machen said.

"His best punch was a left hook, and he never lets up. He's awful strong and I couldn't keep him off."

14 members seek six NAACP seats

NEW YORK — The names of fourteen candidates for election to six at-large posts on the Board of Directors of NAACP have been submitted to all local units of the association throughout the country.

Six of the candidates were named by a seven-person national nominating committee and eight were nominated by independent petitions. In addition, branches in each of the seven regions will vote for one regional nominee. There are also two candidates for election to one opening for youth representation on the Board to be voted upon by youth units of the association.

Nine of the fourteen candidates at-large are incumbents. They are Mrs. Bates, Lewis, Overton, Judge Delany, Dr. Hudson, Perry, Reuther, Spingarn and Bishop Spottswood.

This is the first time in the history of the NAACP Youth Councils that they will vote on at-large candidates for the Board. In the past, they have voted for youth nominees only. This year, youth members, 17 years and over, will be permitted to ballot for the at-large members of the Board in addition to one youth nominee.

• • •

THE YOUTH nominees chosen at the annual convention are: Michael Mitchell, Baltimore, Md., chairman of the National Youth Work Committee and Chris Nelson, vice-president Oakland, Calif., Youth Council.

Local units are required to vote upon the candidates at their annual meetings and return the ballots to the NAACP National Office in New York on or before Dec. 31. The ballots will be opened and counted at the Association's annual meeting in New York City, Tuesday, Jan. 3.

In Memoriams

AVENT — In loving memory of my husband, LAWRENCE H., who passed away November 26, 1964.
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
Two years ago today.
We walked together, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy.
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love
For thru the mist I see
Our dear smiling face in the sky—
For all eternity!
Loving Wife—GRACE AVENT

Only those who have lost can tell.

Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within our hearts concealed.
