

Calvert
Papers. had discourst about the matters in Controuersie on Delaware; Why therefore should it appeare soe [Slight abrupt &^{ca}] that a memoriall was not sent; It seeming an Vnnecessary thing to trouble M^r Penn with, euery time the L: B: thinks it need-full to make his demands to that, which M^r Penn in his letters calls the L: B right. And perhapps the L. B. not being in his owne thoughts, soe great a Seignior, and Ruler as M^r Penn knowes himsele to be, Might be one Reason the Memoriall was omitted, His Lo^{pp} prideing more, that he is the son, and grand son of persons euer Loyall to their Prince, (a truth all his neighbors cannot walk up to) Then that he is a Seignior in this part of the world: The Stile of a loyall and Dutifull subiect being more Gratefull, and pleasing to him, then that of a Prince.

p. 2 2^{dly} Prop^a Penn informs us that [William Penn Esq^r and the said Penn (the Language of the Comission) as he saith) Is not his American Stile nor that which belongs to him in the matter in question: for as such (he saith) he keeps noe Deputy]. The L: B is here check't a second time, for not giving William Penn Esq^r his other Titles: The first (as I was told) was at new Castle in may last, where the L: B: was Call'd to an account for the Superscription of a Letter of his to M^r Penn, being onely Superscribed; ffor William Penn Esq^r at Philadelphia; as if (said M^r Penn) I were noe where but at Philadelphia; adding that as he was Penn of Penn, in some part of England, the Adjunct Esq^r was his due there; To this his L^{opp} answerd, That the Omission of his other Titles was not designedly don by him, nor was there any Respect at that time wanting in his L^{opp} towards him; That the letter was Superscribed in hast, and therefore was in hopes of his Pardon for the omission, which should be soe noe more; And for that time Prop^r Penn seemed Satisfied. But now for the language of that Comission, that has giuen (it seemes) the like offence again, there is this to be said, that [William Penn Esq^r is some part of his American Stile,] and which belongs to him, though not all due in the matter in question; Therefore if it had bin incerted in the Comission to Coll Talbot Esq^r William Penn of Pensilvania, instead of William Penn Esq^r it had bin more generall, and soe better knowne; for (as I remember) that was the Language in the Comission, Markham, Harrison, and Clarke, came with to the L: B: the 16th of July last.

3^{dly} M^r Penn assures all persons, that he liues not on the west side of Skullkill, nor any Deputy of his; That Coll Talbot could not by his Comission goe to the East side to make his demand, which yet he did. Now thanks to M^r Penn for his sending a Cobby of Coll Talbots Comission, it is there found, that Coll Talbot was order'd to repaire forthwith to the
